Notice thereof;

Who to preside;

Notice to party elected.

V. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the first election of members of the said Corporation shall be holden on the first Monday in the month of June next, at some place within each ward respectively, to be appointed by the Sheriff of the District of Newcastle, who shall give public notice thereof at least six days before the said election; and who shall preside at the said election for one of the said wards, and the Deputy Sheriff and High Constable, or some other person authorised by the said Sheriff shall preside at the first election of the other wards, and shall declare the persons in such other wards, who shall have the greatest number of votes, to be duly elected members of the said Corporation; and shall give notice thereof to the persons so elected in the said wards as members of the said Corporation, within six days after such election.

Members to serve till first Monday in June 1838;

Elections to be on the first Monday in June;

Before the Bailiff of the ward;

Notice.

VI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the members of the said Corporation, so chosen, shall serve until the first Monday of June in the next year, and until a new Board shall be chosen and formed as hereinafter mentioned; and that on the first Monday of June in each year an election shall be holden for each ward in the said town, for a member of the said Corporation, before the Bailiff of such ward, who shall be appointed from time to time by the said Corporation, and who shall appoint the place for holding the said election, and shall give notice thereof, and proceed in all respects as the Sheriff is required to do at and after the first election to be holden as aforesaid.

Oath to be taken by presiding officer at elections.

VII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That before any person shall proceed to hold an election under this Act he shall take the following oath, which any Justice of the Peace for the District of Newcastle is hereby authorised to administer:—"I do solemnly swear, that I will faithfully and impartially, to the best of my ability, discharge the duty of presiding officer at the election which I am about to hold, for a member of the Board of Police of the town of Cobourg—So help me God."

Presiding officer at election may examine parties on oath, as to qualification as candidate or as voter.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the officer presiding at any election under this Act shall have authority, and he is hereby required, at the request of any person qualified to vote at such election, to examine on oath, or affirmation (when the party is allowed to affirm,) any candidate for the office of member of the said Corporation respecting his qualification to be elected to the said office; and shall also have authority, and is hereby required upon such request aforesaid, to examine upon oath, or affirmation, (when the party is allowed to affirm,) any person tendering his vote at any election respecting his right to vote; and that the oath to be administered for either of the said purposes shall and may be in the following form:—"You shall true answer make to all such questions as the officer presiding at this election shall put to you, respecting your qualification to be elected at this election, or respecting your qualification to vote at this election, (as the case may be,)—So help you God." And that the affirmation to be taken shall be in the common form of an affirmation to the same effect.

IX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any person, being examined upon oath or affirmation under this Act, in regard to his qualification to vote or to be elected, shall wilfully forswear himself, he shall be deemed guilty of wilful and corrupt perjury, and on conviction thereof shall suffer as in other cases of wilful and corrupt perjury. False swearing perjury.

X. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if the election of any member of the Board of Police aforesaid shall be complained of, either on the ground of want of qualification in the person returned, or on the ground that such person had not a majority of legal votes at such election, it shall be the duty of the Sheriff, after the first elections to take place under this Act, upon receiving, within forty-eight hours after the termination of the election, a written requisition signed by any three inhabitants of the town having a right to vote at such election, to appoint a time and place within the town or ward for which the election was held for entering into a scrutiny of the matters complained of, and that such time shall be within six days after the election; and the Sheriff shall have power to summon witnesses, and to take evidence on oath respecting the matters to be inquired into, and shall determine upon the validity of the election or return as shall appear to him to be right according to the evidence; and in case an election shall be declared void, but it shall not appear proper to the Sheriff for any cause to amend the return, by substituting the name of any other person as entitled to have been returned at such election, then he shall, after giving eight days notice thereof, hold a new election for a member to serve according to this Act; and that if after any election to be holden after a Board of Police under this Act shall have been completely organized, a requisition, signed as aforesaid, shall, within forty-eight hours after the termination of such election, be served upon the President or any other member of the Corporation, it shall be lawful for the said Corporation, and they are hereby required, to appoint a time for entering upon a scrutiny of the Proceedings where any return is contested, at the first election;

Oath to be taken before trial of contested election.

XI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That before the Sheriff, or any member of the Corporation, shall enter upon any such trial or scrutiny, as aforesaid, he shall take an oath in the following form, before some one of the Justices of the Peace for the District of Newcastle, that is to say:—"I do solemnly swear, that I will truly and impartially, to the best of my judgment, try and determine the merits of the complaint against the election of A. B.—So help me God."

Penalty for witnesses refusing to attend.

XII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That any witness who, being duly summoned to attend upon such trial or scrutiny, shall wilfully neglect or refuse to attend upon such trial or scrutiny, shall, upon conviction before any one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the District of Newcastle, having been duly summoned to answer such complaint, be liable to be imprisoned, on the commitment of such Justice, in the common Gaol of the District, for a time not exceeding one month.

Notice of meeting of Corporation to be given.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the person presiding at any such election shall give public notice, immediately upon declaring the result of the election, of the time and place at which the members of the Corporation are first to meet, which meeting shall be within six days after the election, and at some place within the said town.

President to be chosen.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said five members elected as aforesaid shall, within ten days after their election, appoint one of their number President; and the said President and members shall form the said Corporation, and shall hold their office until the first Monday in June in the ensuing year, and until the election and formation of the new Board.

Penalty for members refusing to take the oath of office;

XV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if either of the members elected as aforesaid, after notice thereof, shall neglect or refuse for ten days to take the oath of office hereinafter contained, which any of the said members so to be elected as aforesaid is hereby authorised to administer to the others, he shall, for such neglect or refusal, forfeit the sum of ten pounds, to be recovered, with costs, by information before any Justice of the Peace, who is authorised to proceed in the same manner as hereinafter is provided for the recovery of any penalty for the transgression of any order or regulation of the said Corporation: Provided, that no person having been elected a member of the said Corporation, without his knowledge or consent, shall be subject to the penalty herein-before stated, for his refusal to act as a member of the said Corporation.

Exception.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in case it shall at any time happen that a vacancy occurs among the members of the said Corporation, by neglect or refusal to take the oath of office hereinafter contained, within the time herein-before limited, or by death, removal from the town, or from any other cause, the Corporation shall issue a precept to the Bailiff of the ward to hold an election for such ward of said town, giving notice of the time and place of holding the said election; and the member so elected shall hold his office until the next annual election, or until another is chosen in his place.

How vacancies to be filled up.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in case it shall at any time happen that an election of members of the said Corporation shall not be made on any day, when pursuant to this Act it ought to have been made, the said Corporation shall not for that cause be deemed to be dissolved, but it shall and may be lawful on any other day, to hold and make an election of members, in such manner as shall have been regulated by the laws and ordinances of the said Corporation.

Corporation not dissolved by reason of default in making an election.

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Corporation, from time to time, to establish such ordinances, by-laws and regulations, for the said town, as they may think reasonable; to regulate victualling-houses and ordinaries, where fruit and victuals shall be sold; to regulate the weighing of hay—measuring of wood; to regulate carts and carmen; to regulate slaughter houses; to prevent the firing of any guns, muskets, pistols, squibs and fire-balls, or injuring or destroying trees, planted or growing for shade or ornament in the said town; to prevent the pulling down or defacing of any sign-boards; or inscribing or drawing any indecent words, or figures or pictures, on any building, wall, fence, or other public place; and generally to prevent vice and preserve good order in the said town; to enter into and examine all dwelling-houses, ware-houses, shops, yards, and out-houses, to ascertain whether any such places are in a dangerous state with respect to fires, and to direct them to be put in a safe and secure condition; to appoint fire-wardens and fire-engineers; to appoint and remove fire-men; to make such rules and by-laws as may be thought
