Cobourg ceremony

for new "Arms"

The Coat of Arms for the Town of Cobourg is to be officially presented to the town in a ceremony this fall.

The town has not decided on the details of the ceremony since the subject came up at an earlier summer meeting.

The Town commissioned the arms from the York Herald of Arms in London, England over a year ago. The data and history surrounding the name of "Cobourg" and its origins were incorporated into the crest which is shown

The crest has not officially been accepted by the town but it is expected to be done this fall.

The crest will be reduced and used as a letterhead on town stationery. It is possible that a large scale crest will be made to hang in the town hall.

The crest is the property of the town.
