

Around Town...

with Lorraine Orr

686-7847

Bean, the hostess at Coldwater Canadiana, many visitors during the summer and from a number of places. Last week her guests included a well known hitch-hiker from Clichy, France. Froment and her two friends flew to Coldwater and were camping north to Sudbury and then for a trip on the Polar Bear Express. They had visited Toronto and Niagara Falls, and then hiked from Orillia to Coldwater and while there she visited the museum, her friends were in Coldwater. They will return to Montreal and then on in time for Helene to enter her fifth year of university to continue her studies in Psychology.

surprise 80th birthday party was given on Sunday, August 10th for Mrs. Jean Russell now residing in Creighton Heights in Cobourg. Mrs. Russell and her husband Foster are former residents of Coldwater. They came to the village in 1941 when they purchased the newspaper The Coldwater Planet. Their printing office was on the main street in the store between the telephone office and Home Hardware. Their home was the one now owned by Alan Hill on Grey Street. Mrs. Russell taught singing to the Presbyterian Young People's group at her home once a week. The party arranged by her husband and son Robin was held in the garden and was attended by over 150 guests. Driving down from Coldwater for the celebration were Kathleen, Roy and Carlton Galbraith, and Jean Oakley.

Visiting with Velma Godfrey at her cottage "Halfway House" on Little Go-Home-Bay were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pearce of Burlington.

David and Ella Reid and children Brian and Elizabeth, travelled to P.E.I. to help David's father celebrate his 94th birthday.

Coldwater's Fall Fair time is fast approaching and the directors are busy finalizing plans for a bigger and better show. There are two new attractions this year. One is a rabbit show to be judged on Saturday morning at the pet building. The rabbits will remain in the pens for the day. On Saturday evening at 5:30 on the race track, there will be a Horse Pull.

A family party surprised Helen (Mrs. Beverley) Walker of Eady on the occasion of her birthday. During the festivities the grandchildren entertained the group with a fashion show, wearing clothes their grandmother had loaned them.

Mr. and Mrs. S. O'Laney of McLean Lake were happy to have their son and daughter-in-law John and Ruth and grandchildren Andrew, David and Danny visiting them for two weeks. They also visited with friends in Toronto for several days, then returned to the lake before starting their motor trip home to Edmonton, Alberta.

Visiting with Wyn Jones at her cottage at Severn Falls were her niece and husband Leslie and George Ognibeni of Bristol, England.

Looking

Pre-Wedding Party

This week