KENTE PORTAGE FESTIVAL '89

THANK YOU to QUINTE PHOTO

Discover how convenient the portage is to Presqu'ile and to Sandbanks Parks.

Lodgings are available in hotels, motels, bed-and-breakfasts and campsites.

A multitude of antique shops and flea markets dot the area.

Celebrate History on the oldest road in continuous use in Ontario, an ancient Indian portage over which Champlain, Lasalle, missionaries, voyageurs, traders, explorers and settlers passed. A nexus of travel for centuries.

Celebrate the canoe, the craft which helped build Canada, designed by the natives of readily available materials, it has served generations of travellers. Brigades of Voyageurs in the great canoes will rendezvous here from every point of the compass to demonstrate, race and revel. All sizes of canoe will join the fun.

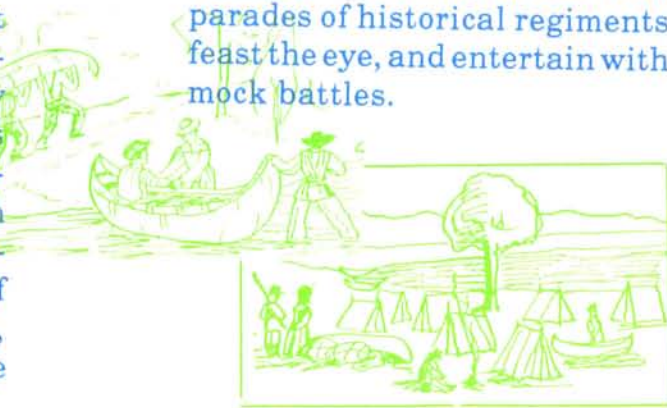

Celebrate boats and ships of all sorts, a flotilla sailing on the Bay of Quinte to the portage. Bring your own craft and join the parade.

Celebrate Loyalist settlers, whose houses still line the portage, celebrate as pioneers did with music, singing, dancing, story telling and feasting.

Celebrate artists and artisans, who will show their creations

20 miles long from water to water, from the Bay of Quinte to Wellers Bay on Lake Ontario. The county line of Northumberland and Prince Edward Counties the road celebrates both counties.

Celebrate soldiers, past and present. Encampments and parades of historical regiments feast the eye, and entertain with mock battles.

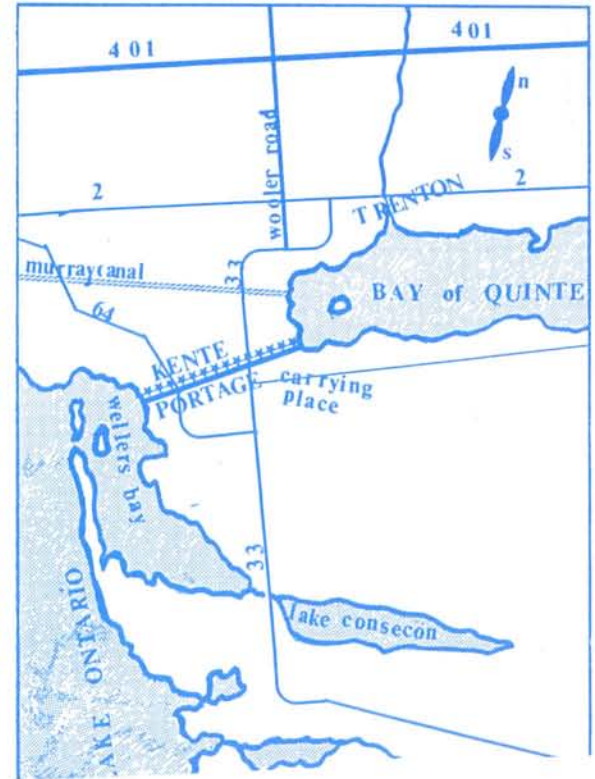

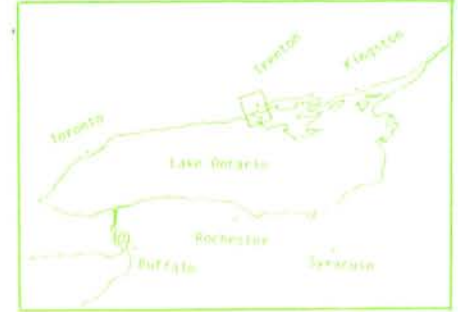

Celebrate with children, for the very special activities for children, fun and games as well as participation in historic activity and many craft projects, are programmed.

Celebrate native tribes which met here, portaged, and lived here. Their culture and crafts will be here

Discover friendly joyous people in historical dress, dress up yourself if you wish and join in the revelry. Attend a hoedown, a pow-wow, a canoe trip, a wagon ride, a feast. Listen to bands, singers and story tellers. Cheer a canoe team or join one. Have a picnic by the water.

There are many nearby boat dockings. The Murray canal is just to the north, Trenton and the Trent waterway five minutes away. Discover Quinte, a haven of beauty and history. Canadian Forces Base Trenton and the City of Belleville to the east a few miles, Brighton to the west will add interest to your tour.
