

we want your views so at what we report will reflect more than just the wishes of the minority".

He points out that there are problems in the region today. "We also know that there will be more problems in the next 30 years as our population grows by 35 per cent. We think that some of these problems are serious or potentially so.

What we need to know is which ones you think are serious. Please let us know what plans you think are best as a citizen of this eight-county region", he says.

The first question in the opinion poll is: "Is it good that the region retains a pleasant rural atmosphere? There is slots for the answer under these headings: strongly agree, agree, neutral, disagree, strongly disagree.

Another question is: "Is it good that residents of the region do not have to deal with big city problems? Do you strongly agree, agree, are neutral, do you

Montreal, Toronto and Ottawa?"

In a separate section, dealing with another part of the report "Prospects for the Lake Ontario Region" the questions are slightly different.

A typical question is: "Incomes are lower in the rural areas of the region than they are in the cities and towns?" The answer parts of the region rely too much on a single industry?

Pollution, especially water pollution, occurs in many areas of the region? Many small municipalities cannot cope with the demands made upon them because their tax bases are too small? There is a notable lack of effective planning, particularly in rural areas adjacent to the maximum dispersal of growth should be "actively encouraged; mildly encouraged; neutral opinion; mildly opposed; strongly opposed?"

Cobourg Public Library 09-39

New librarian

Cobourg library will have a new librarian effective August 1.

Mrs. Wendy Binns a recent graduate from Wayne State University with a Master of Library Science, was chosen by a committee of the library board from 17 applications made. The salary per year is $8,500.

Mrs. Binns will move to Cobourg with her four-year-old son later this summer. She has had considerable practical experience in her field of work.

Dr. John Leeson, chairman of the board, said the qualifications of people who applied for the position were very high. He noted there were more qualified people now than several years ago.

Mrs. Frances Marsh, chief librarian at the library for three years, will resign, effective July 31.
