DOWNERS GROVE.

Downers Grove is situated in DuPage county, Illinois 21 miles west of the Union Depot in Chicago, on the main line of the C. B. & Q. R. R. It is attractively located on rolling ground in the midst of beautiful groves of natural timber, and contains a population of about 2300. Handsome and costly edifices line its shaded streets and groves, and a wide-awake progressive people are its residents. Its religious and educational advantages are of the best, its suburban train service all that could be desired. A first-class system of waterworks is now in operation, also telephone connection with the city. The surrounding country is settled by thrifty farmers who make this their market. Our merchants are bright and enterprising business men, all doing a thriving business. The population of the town has more than doubled in the last 4 years and many costly buildings are now in the course of construction. A healthy religious atmosphere pervades the community. Saloons are prohibited by law as well as by public sentiment, and we challenge any town in Illinois to compete with us as a place to invest in either a home or a business location.

CURRENT NEWS.

The library seems to be well patronized.
It is reported that Miss Clara Nourse is sick with la grippe.
Give them a crowded hall at the Auditorium next Tuesday evening.
Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Leacy's baby has been very sick, but is now recovering.
Miss Annie Myers went to Graham yesterday to visit a few weeks with relative.
Mrs. Josephine Austin has been quite sick most of the time since the anniversary party.
Owing to Dr. Bolton's sickness, his lecture has been postponed. Date will be announced later.
Miss Jessie Clendenen, from Elgin made her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wells, on the north side, a pleasant visit last Monday.
Robt. Buck, the veteran train conductor at Auditorium Tuesday evening, Feb. 19, supported by a strong company, largely home talent.
The backbone of the extreme cold weather which we have been having of late seems to be broken; consequently it is moderating some.
Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Roe, as collectors, are a success. They are busy in the P. O. room every Friday and Saturday, and by their courteous, accommodating ways make tax-paying comparatively easy.
We were handed a full report of the Downers Grove schools for January, but owing to lack of time, will have to cut it short. The following is a summary: Total number enrolled, 409; average daily attendance, 382; total cases of tardiness, 51; total number neither absent nor tardy for the month, 194; for the year 84; number of visitors, nine.

A. J. Palmer has been on the sick list.
Degree work at Old Fellows lodge next Monday night.
Frank Prentiss has been quite sick, but is out again.
A great deal of sickness among children is reported.
La Grippe has got quite a firm grip on some of our citizens.
"Rip Van Winkle," Auditorium next Tuesday evening, the 19th.
Mrs. Bond went to Somonauk last Tuesday for a short visit.
Miss Doris Frankel, of East Grove, is teaching at Millard avenue.
Mrs. Paul contemplates a visit to Scotland the coming summer.
Mr. and Mrs. Annable mourn the loss of their infant child, Burial last Sabbath.

Joseph S. Miller has been under the care of Dr. Tope for the past week, but is out again.
I have a good store, with convenient dwelling rooms above, for rent at a very reasonable figure. D. G. GRIFFIN.
Many of the farming community transact business in the Grove these days, although the roads are badly defiled in places.
Mrs. Chas. Leacy has been enjoying a visit the week from her mother, Mrs. Carlock, of Oregon, and a sister, Mrs. Reed, from Chicago.
The Old Fellows gave up their proposed sickle ride last Monday night. Think now they will try it about the coming 15th of July.
R. V. Mr. Help has supplied the Congregational pulpit very satisfactorily for several Sabbaths past. He will preach again next Sabbath.

Sylvester Lyman, our popular shoe dealer, was taking an invoice of stock the fore part of the week. His business shows satisfactory results for the past year.
W. J. Harting has a force of men at work on the old M. E. church, which they will finish on or into next week. Joseph B. Hartman is the present owner.
When you go to West for business, be sure and pay that water of yours, that don't run in your pocket, for him, so put in your order.

On course you may have noticed the new list of A. H. Dannamark & Co. on last page of paper. They are making eight copies to the public, and propose to let the unknown if they can, every one who reads it.
Dannamark & Co. are now at work on the new building, which will be ready to occupy by the 15th of March. It will be a fine addition to the city, and will be a credit to our architecture.

Mr. J. M. Dwyer, of the Bank & Co. office, in the city, was preparing here last Tuesday. He has been moving out and making his home in our beautiful village, as he was very favorably impressed with the Grove as a residence town.
"Rip Van Winkle," Tuesday evening at the Auditorium, benefit of the Episcopal church building fund, under the auspices of the Ladies' Guild. So cast of characters. This will be an evening of rare enjoyment, and will further a laudable cause. We hope there will be a full house. The Episcopal people patronize entertainments given by the other churches liberally; let us reciprocate and give them a helping hand. Let the whole community attend, and thus assist in the cause.
T. R. Lyons, business manager of city, also his law scheme, and in a city of position with the new city goods and grocery firm of A. H. Dannamark & Co., of the north side, as city collector and deliverer. This, without doubt, is a valuable help to this enterprising firm, as he is a hustler at anything that he undertakes, and being well and favorably acquainted with our town-folks will be able to greatly increase their business.
The following is the cast of characters for "Rip Van Winkle," to be presented at the Auditorium, Tuesday evening, the 19th, for the benefit of the building fund of the Episcopal church, and under the auspices of the Ladies' Guild:
Rip Van Winkle, by Robert Beck; Dutch Van Rensselaer, by H. B. Gibson; Nick Vandergriff, by J. W. Hancock; Gail, by W. E. Canada; Hendrick Vreese, by Mrs. Harold Lee; The Landlady, by Mrs. J. W. Bando; The Innkeeper, by J. W. Hughes; Griefen, by Mrs. Robert Beck; Michael Young, by Hazel Rendo; Miss (28 years), by Miss Belle Lyman; Kathleen, by Mrs. H. B. Gibson; Rattling, by Mrs. J. W. Bando; Gertrude, by Mrs. Flossie Bando; Demons, villagers, dancers, etc.
Tickets and reserved seats at both drug stores.

WE ARE IN IT

With both feet—and don't you forget it. Goods are moving in and out. Just step across the track to the new store and see if what we say is not true. The LOW PRICES. Neat Store and Good Treatment is the cause of it all.

"The Moving Concern,"
As some of our friends are pleased to call us, and right they are, we are moving, but you can rest assured we are stickers, we stay right by you, with low prices and good goods.

A. H. Dannamark & Co.
Keep your eye on this space next week.

It is desired that two fire companies be formed here, immediately—one for the north, and the other for the south side. There are carts and hose all ready, and the companies should be formed and drilling. No re-arranging of insurance rates can be procured here until we are fully equipped to fight fires. Those who are willing to join such companies, apply to Frank Blumhard, Fire Marshall.

POST: On the north plank road, between East Grove and Stone Ave., LaGrange, a black and white striped shawl, valued by owner as a keepsake. Finder will be rewarded by communicating with A. E. Cross, Downers Grove, Ill.

Wm. Kling, of Mason City, Iowa, was the guest of Prof. H. E. Nourse the past week. After taking in the sights of our beautiful village, he left Thursday morning for a visit to his daughter, who lives in Canton, O., at which place he will, if pleased with the city and surrounding country, purchase a house and lot and take up his future residence. While in the Grove, he made several calls at our office, and we found him to be a very pleasant person with whom to visit. Although in his 5th year, he is still very spry and takes life easy. In conversation with him, he said that he had not seen a town that came so near to being an ideal town as Mason City, as is Downers Grove, with its wide, clean and beautiful streets, and right smart, good-looking village appearance. After viewing the pumping station, standpipe, churches, and many other buildings of our small dimensions on Maple Ave., and also on E. H. Prince & Co.'s subdivisions, he came to the conclusion that if he had property in this temperate town he could enjoy life. He seemed to be quite favorably impressed with Prince's additions and thinks there are no finer locations to be found in town. Also that we have one of the finest systems of waterworks of any place of its size, or double its size, that he had ever visited. This, coming from one who has traveled as much as he has, and seen so many different cities, speaks well for our village.

OBITUARY.
Mrs. Cynthia A. Gleason was born at Preston, N. Y., October 29, 1813, and died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. G. Dixon, in Chicago, February 10th. She, with her husband, were among the first settlers in this vicinity, and he preceded her to the heavenly land about 24 years ago. Two of her sisters, out of a family of eleven children, are still living, viz: Mrs. Bennett, of N. Y., and Mrs. Rogers, of Wisconsin. Mrs. Gleason leaves four surviving children: Mrs. C. G. Dixon, of Chicago; Mrs. O. K. Mitchell, of LaGrange; Mrs. M. L. Dixon, of Downers Grove, and Mr. E. O. Gleason, of California. The funeral services were held here on Wednesday.

On Saturday last death once more entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. Curtis, at Diamond City, and took from them their only child, Edith Marion, aged 19 months. Her death was very sudden, spinal meningitis ending in paralysis of the brain. The remains were brought to Downers Grove for interment. Monday afternoon a short but beautiful service was held at the residence of the child's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Curtis, Rev. Heiler officiating, and then the loved one was laid to rest by the side of her little sister, Edna, who died but two years ago. The parents have the loving sympathy of many friends in their bereavement.

Christian Endeavor Convention.
The Christian Endeavor societies of the Elgin district will meet in annual convention in Batavia, Kane Co., Ill., March 15, 16 and 17. The executive committee, with the aid of the two local societies, is aiming to make this the grandest convention which the Elgin district has ever held. An interesting program has been arranged, and every effort will be made to make it a success. Entertainment will be provided free of charge, and the railroads will probably give reduced rates. It is earnestly hoped that every society in the district will send a large delegation. Don't forget the date. Endeavorers plan to be there.

If any of our readers have $25, $50, $75 or $100 that they wish to invest where it will be safe and bring them in good returns every quarter, we can inform them where the same can be had if they will call at this office.
