

WHEATON.

[Too late for last week.]

Jesse C. Wheaton, Sen., after whom the city of Wheaton was named, and who had, as supposed, nearly recovered, had a relapse last Saturday, and died Sunday in the 83rd year of his age. He was buried Wed. Feb. 27 from the M. E. Church; the business houses throughout the city were closed, out of respect to his memory.

Mrs. Austin J. Ehle died Tuesday, Feb. 26th, at her home one mile north of the city.

A. A. Gates has sold his residence on the S. E. Corner of Wesley and Gary streets to S. L. Rathje. Consideration $4,500.

August Michels, one of the old settlers of Wheaton, died Wednesday morning, Feb. 27. He came to Wheaton in 1860, and has been identified with the business interests of Wheaton ever since, doing business at the same stand for 35 years.

The Vice Presidents of the fair have a meeting Monday, March 4, 1895, at the court house, 1:30 p. m. The premium list will be revised.

H. B. Patrick has purchased the lot north of what is known as the Dr. Pratt property, and will build a fine residence next summer. In the meantime he will occupy the Dr. Salisbury place.

CASS.

On account of sickness, news has circulated very slowly in Cass, of late.

Mr. P. K. Hathaway is very sick with pneumonia.

Mr. Sampson, who thought of moving into the vicinity of Joleit, has decided to remain in Cass another year. Mrs. S. has been under the doctor's care, but is now better.

Mr. Elisha Smart has returned from a two-months visit with his children, in Chicago. We are glad to see his genial face again.

The gripe is a persistent visitor at Mr. Davey's. All members of the family being more or less afflicted.

There is some hope of Mr. Boger coming back on his place. We should be glad to welcome him.

Mr. G. B. Heart's family are able to be out again, excepting Mrs. Heart.

We hear that, as Dr. Fitzpatrick was driving from this vicinity to Lemont, his horse took fright and ran away, throwing him out and fracturing a rib.

It has been said that, knowledge is power. It seems that there is some ungodly power which prompts some of our young Cass citizens to make the trip to the Grove every Monday morning and back again every Friday evening. We are glad to see this, and feel like saying: Blow ye storms in the middle of the week and leave Monday's and Friday's clear.

If the census taken by Mr. Barr, last week, shows that this township is entitled to three supervisors, we think that, as Downers Grove has one, and Hinsdale one, Cass would be entitled to one. We have a man in view who, we think, could fill the place well.

It seems that our elder has failed to understand our explanation. I do not object to criticism, and I agree concerning the arrangement of verse. Evidently our elder is a man, as such a fondness for kissing is felt; so if there is, any "making up" to be done I am ready, but not in that way. We note that our elder in "digging into the dead languages" has reached as far as Webster's Unabridged, Page 1914. Now I feel very modest in giving advice to our elder, being "young and inexperienced," and—beg pardon, but could I suggest that your invectives or "little talks," or opinions, or whatever they may be called, are unnecessary, especially since one of them occupies you two or three weeks, to the exclusion of what is more important news.
