Circuit court adjourned on Saturday, March 30th, till May, when the chancery cases will be taken up. The last two days of court were mainly taken up with a very interesting case from Downers Grove. It seems a Mr. Daniels, residing at Downers Grove, had a man named Pardee indicted by the grand jury for representing himself to be a deputy sheriff, and as such, entering his house and room on the morning of December 1, 1894, and in so doing creating an unnecessary noise and disturbance, etc. The evidence showed that on the night of Nov. 30, 1894, Pardee, accompanied by a constable from Chicago, having a state warrant for Daniels' arrest, came out to Downers Grove on a late train and stayed over night at Miller's hotel, and in the morning, accompanied by Hofert, the marshal of Downers Grove, went to the house of Daniels, before daylight, and were admitted to the house (Hofert remaining outside) and immediately went to the room occupied by Daniels and wife, for the purpose of arresting him. That considerable loud talking was done by both parties, and that Daniels, who had partly dressed himself on finding out who Pardee was, went for him and ran him out doors, and off the premises on the toe of his shoe. That Daniels was the only person in the party who was armed, and that the constable afterwards disarmed him and made arrangements with him to come to Chicago later, which he did, and was examined and discharged. The jury were out all night and finally brought in a verdict of guilty on the last two counts of the indictment, which charged him with disturbing the peace and entering the house of Daniels without being invited, and refusing to leave when so ordered. The judge fined Pardee $100 on the two counts. The People were represented by States Attorney Batten and Judge Brown, and Pardee by Mr. Slusser and a lawyer from Chicago. It is understood that there are damage suits growing out of the transaction.

The C. B. & Q. Ry. will sell Home-seekers tickets to all points west and south on March 5th and April 2nd, 1895, at one fare plus two dollars for the round trip.

W. Carnahan's very popular and useful "G. A. R. Key," a limited number of which we will furnish to our readers at less than one-third of the publishers' price. This book has been highly endorsed by the National Headquarters of the Grand Army of the Republic, and prominent members of the order in all parts of the country. They all agree that as a convenient reference book in all matters pertaining to the Civil War, the G. A. R. and kindred societies, its value is incalculable, and that it will be constantly before them for that purpose. The book sells readily through canvassing agents at the regular retail price of $2.50 per copy, but The Basal Monument Association, in order to bring before the public in an effective manner as possible, the purpose for which it was organized, has purchased the right to publish 10,000 copies of the book, to which they have added 20 pages detailing the history, up to date, of The Basal Monument project, and will supply it through this paper while the stock lasts at the extreme low figure of 80 cents per copy if called for, or $1.00 if ordered sent by mail.

We cannot agree to furnish this book at these prices only so long as The Basal Monument stock lasts. Now is your chance; do not delay your order if you want a copy of this valuable book at the reduced rates above mentioned. Address all orders to the Association, Downers Grove, Ill.
