

THE INTERPRETER.

It is not so much the thing we do,
Nor yet again the words we say,
That open to us the heavenly way;
God is interpreter each day
Of our heart's motive—false or true.
It is so much to live each day
With God's sweet kingdom in our soul,
Our labors wrought by his control,
Our spirits seeking but one goal—
The love that opens the heavenly way.
LOUISE J. R. CHAPMAN.

LISLE SIFTINGS.

Mr. Teal of Naperville now holds services at 10 o'clock at the Lisle church. The new butcher shop was opened the first of the week.

School election was held Saturday and Mr. Hammesser was re-elected.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Engelschall is brightened by the presence of a little son.

Last Friday night some one stole a fine horse and two harnesses from O. L. Willard.

John L. Remmers was suddenly called home Saturday on account of his sister's illness.

Work has commenced on the Lisle creamery. It will be completed about the middle of May.

Misses Rose and Mattie Hatch spent Saturday and Sunday at Oak Park with their brother Luther.

Mrs. Smith's youngest child died last Thursday, of brain fever. The funeral services were held in the city.

CASS.

Mrs. Westenberg and Mrs. Nelson have been very sick with inflammatory rheumatism, but are improving at present.

The school election passed off quietly. Mr. H. Smart was re-elected director. We are told that the ladies took part in this election.

The literary entertainment will be given Saturday evening. Epworth Leaguers are putting forth every effort to make it a grand success. Come everybody and participate in the enjoyment.

The so-called county Sunday school convention turned out to be a township meeting of the Sunday school committee. It was to have been conducted by Mr. Block of Naperville, but on account of his absence, Mr. Lloyd of Glen Ellyn conducted the exercises. Messrs. Commons, Herring, and Roe, and Mrs. Roe were present. This meeting was an inspiration to all who are interested in S. S. work, and we owe a good deal to Mr. Lloyd, who walked from Downers Grove through the rain that the work might go on. He explained something of what is being done by the association of S. S. workers in this county, and gave us valuable hints concerning the teaching of the young. The talks given by Messrs. Herring, Commons and Roe were beneficial and inspiring, for we were made to see some of the work which is and has been done by those who are consecrated to the work of the Master.

WHEATON.

Chris Ganger, for many years section foreman on the C. & N. W. R. R., died very suddenly April 14, of heart trouble, aged 58 years.

Mrs. Joseph Barnard, for many years a resident of Wheaton, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Herman E. Ward, 231 N. Oakley Ave., Chicago, of acute pneumonia, April 16, aged 56 years. The remains were brought to Wheaton Friday and taken to the Wheaton Cemetery.

The city election passed off very quietly April 16th, and resulted in the election of Wm. E. Gary, treasurer and Geo. Eggers, alderman from the third ward, and the reelection of J. S. Peironnett, mayor; N. E. Matter, clerk; J. F. Snyder, attorney; H. J. Traver, alderman from the 1st ward and Thos. Lewis, alderman from the second ward. There was no opposition except for city attorney, for which there three candidates, Snyder, Reber and DeWolf. Snyder got out a carriage and done considerable hustling and was elected by a plurality of nine.

It is getting so that the school election is the only election that makes any excitement in our city. Last Saturday's election for President of the Board of Education and two members of the board, was no exception. Every livery team in town was out and several private rigs were engaged in carrying voters to the polls. The ladies were especially active and the result was the election by large majorities, of E. H. Gary for President of the board and F. E. Wheaton for director, and Miss Lucy Barber for the other director, by a majority of eight.

The masons of Wheaton had one of the most enjoyable times last Wednesday evening that has ever been known in Wheaton. Most Worshipful Leroy A. Goddard, Grand Master of Masons of the state, came to Wheaton for the purpose of installing Wm. H. Johnson as Grand Steward of the Grand Lodge, who was unable to be present when the Grand Officers were installed at the last annual communication of the Grand Lodge. Right Worshipful Brother Edward Cook, Grand Senior Wardman and Brethren from Oak Park, came out and exemplified the work on the High Degree. The wives and daughters of the Masons of Wheaton got up a banquet which was the finest ever spread in Wheaton on an occasion of the kind. Covers were laid for over one hundred. The Grand Master came out on one of the early trains and escorted by Brother Johnson, took in the water-works, public library, college, and a good share of the residence portion of the town. He expressed himself as much pleased with the general appearance of the city and thought he would like to own property here. As this is the first time a Grand Master has ever visited Wheaton, the occasion will long be remembered. Visiting brethren were present from Chicago, Oak Park, Naperville, Turner, La Grange, Marengo and Warrenville.

Mrs. Laura C. Phoenix, Chilwackee, Wis.

"Matron of a Respectable Home and knowing the good Dr. Miles' Nervine has done me, my children to help others, overcome my dislike for the publicity, this letter may give me. In Nov. and Dec., 1893, The inmates had the 'LaGrippe', and I was one of the first. Assuming duty too soon, with the care of so many sick, I did not regain my health, and in a month I became so debilitated and nervous from sleeplessness and the drafts made on my vitality, that it was a question if I could go on. A dear friend advised me to try Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. I took 2 bottles and am happy to say, I am in better health than ever. I still continue to use it occasionally, as a nerve food, as my work is very trying. A letter addressed to Milwaukee, Wis., will reach me." June 6, 1894. Mrs. LUCIA G. PROYER.

Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold on a positive guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. All druggists sell it at $1.60 bottles for $5, or it will be sent prepaid on receipt of price by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.
