The Hawaiian Lady Minstrels, in their second appearance at the Auditorium, last Saturday evening, were ciative audience. They were under the management of Ex-Queen Lil whose grace, dignity of manner and executive ability were prominent features of the entertainment. The dusky maidens acquitted themselves admir ably; their topical songs were original and witty, and their jokes partook of the qualities of their perpetratorsyouth and attractiveness. Their local hits were brilliant and pungent, but left no sting, and the entire entertain ment was the most successfully amus ing that we have ever attended and elicited unstinted applause. It was given in the interest of the Library Association and a rich pecuniary harvest was the result. When the exercises were brought to a close and the sweet-voiced damsels comprising the troupe, departed for their island home, they carried with them the hearty congratulations and commendations of the vast audience, and the tender al fections of the susceptible youth who pens these lines.
