TERMS:
$1.50 per year; STRICTLY CASH IN ADVANCE. A proportional rate per month.
Entered at the P. O. at Downers Grove, Ill., as second class mail matter.

In regard to the new cemetery association, the people are seemingly taking hold of it in earnest. They realize that it is a necessity now and that this is the most propitious time they will have for it. It is in our power now to establish one of the most beautiful cemeteries in this part of the state simply with a little united effort and the situation is such that all can take stock and receive in return there-for their money's worth and a great deal more.

No money will be required till the organization is completed and then the payments will be easy as it will be in installments of so much per cent levied by the board of directors. All that is needed now is a sufficiency of bonafide subscriptions, and these must be had before the permanent organization can be effected. Quite a number of our good people who were not present at the meeting last Friday evening, came around promptly the next and subsequent days and subscribed cheerfully and liberally. This should be a popular movement in which all should and may have an interest; commercial and business reasons might be adduced in favor of this proposition but there are reasons so weighty and interests so imperative other than a mere matter of business in dollars and cents, that the latter pale into insignificance.

It is the setting apart of a suitable place for the city of the dead—ground consecrated by the ashes of the dear departed and the tears and prayers of the living; fragrant with flowers and plants and verdure bloom and blossom; a place of calm and sweet repose until the sleepers are called to a larger and eternal existence, "beyond the clouds and beyond the tomb."

Let us then make this a popular enterprise—a movement of all the people as all are interested. Do not wait to be called upon but drop in at J. W. Rogers', John M. Well's, Mertz & Moche's or Exchange Office, where subscription lists are ready, and subscribe.

The committee will be glad to call on all but it is not necessary as many can subscribe without waiting for formal invitation. It is desired to raise this subscription without expense and the committee will willingly donate the time necessary but many of our good citizens can assist by calling at one of the above mentioned places and subscribing and doing a little missionary work with their neighbors. Now is the time to act in this matter.

Would it not be a good idea, asks the Chicago Record, to change the accepted plans of jail construction so that in place of a structure designed solely to keep prisoners in one would be built to keep lynchings out?

The affair at Danville, in this state, a few days ago was followed by an attempted lynching in Indiana, where the efforts of a mob were foiled by the sheriff taking his prisoner to an adjoining county. Hardly a week passes in which the public is not treated to an account of the attack on a jail by a mob of citizens who, unwilling to await the processes of law in the punishment of crime, assault the jail and hang the object of their hatred.

Jails may have to be built like forts; at least it begins to be evident that present models will have to be improved upon, so that the sheriff with his assistants may protect prisoners charged with crime from the assaults of supposedly law-abiding citizens, who are intent on violating the law.

As at present constructed the country jail seems to be easy to get into when attacked by a mob of angry men. But if surrounded by a stone wall and the entrance commanded by an effective piece of artillery the few prisoners inside might be protected from the larger mobs of law-breakers outside and the country saved the disgrace of the lynching bees which bring the nation into disrepute the world over.

No person has a stronger claim on the state for protection than the unconvicted prisoner. It is a claim that all men ought to feel an equal interest in defending, for no man knows when the finger of suspicion may be pointed at him wrongfully yet under circumstances more or less convincing of his guilt. To a certain extent a man awaiting trial is a ward of the county and should be protected at all hazards.

"This day," said a Bloomington preacher Decoration day, "is hallowed to tender, sacred memories." And taking that for his text the preacher proceeded to anathematize the soldiers of the south and to denounce with considerable violence of language the dedication of a monument to the confederate dead in Oakwoods cemetery, Chicago. Here and there a similar croaking note has been heard respecting the visit of the southern generals to Chicago and the purpose of their coming. Most of the croaks, however, have emanated from throats professionally tuned to spouting pater-patriotism. As the Bloomington preacher does not belong to that class he is probably one of those unfortunate persons who having once seen a thing in one way can never afterward by any chance see it in any other way. He is really preaching to thirty years ago.—Chicago News.

Elsewhere this week we publish a communication in regard to the numerous dogs that infest our village, ownerless and otherwise. The writer of the article most decidedly hits the nail on the head when he says it is time something was done to abate the nuisance. We read reports every day almost, of mad dogs biting some one, generally children, and before something of this kind occurs here, let an ordinance be passed requiring owners of taxed dogs to muzzle same, and if any are found running about without muzzles, let them be promptly shot; untaxed dogs should most decidedly be killed. The complaint of "Sufferer" is by no means the first or only one, and the people demand that something be done at once to prevent any possible accidents.

After two weeks' trial in the Circuit court in Joliet the jury in the Chicago sanitary district condemnation case brought in a verdict giving the property owners $38,621.45 for the 127 acres in dispute, a little over $311 an acre. The property-owners got from $90 to $150 an acre in the first trial in the DuPage County court for land that was considered dear at that price. The contractors in excavating used the stone excavated to wall up with and incidentally saved something, and on this account it was claimed that the land was valuable stone land, worth $1500 to $2000 an acre. The stone was said to be of an inferior quality and the land well paid for at the price awarded by the first jury, who gave the defendants $10,000 for the 127 acres.

WEATHER CROP BULLETIN.

CHICAGO, June 4th, 1895.
The past week has gone to the opposite extreme from the week previous and crops have struggled under a heat averaging above 80 degrees daily, which is from 12 to 15 degrees above the normal temperature. Rainfall has been very scarce, only northwest counties have been favored sufficiently, and all east central and southern counties were practically dry, hence the average for the State was but a sprinkle. The sky was nearly cloudless during the entire week, the maximum temperatures extremely high, and the wind boisterous. Where rain fell vegetation is growing finely. Where rain is lacking, however, and this is much the largest portion of the State, small grains and meadows, gardens and potatoes are suffering from the heat and drought. Wheat is receiving less damage from chinch bugs than previously, but rust has developed and with the Hessian fly is causing damage. Oats are heading short and are less promising. Rye is short and the heads poorly filled. Fruit prospect still is excellent in southern counties and also tree fruits in central counties. Cherries are being marketed in southern counties and ripening fast in central. A good general rain would without doubt materially change crop conditions, but the hay crop will be short.

NORTHERN SECTION.
The sharp frost of the first of last week was quickly followed by the heat wave which continues at the present time. Quite general showers fell in north and west counties on the 30th and scattering light showers on the 1st. Where these rains fell much benefit has followed. In central and east counties dry hot winds and excessive heat have done considerable damage, in these counties corn is growing fairly well, but oats, potatoes, gardens and grasses are poor and need rain. Hay will be a short crop. Rye is blooming and in some of the west counties is being cut for hay. Apples are dropping quite badly in the drier eastern counties. Cut worms are still doing some damage to corn.

Office of THE PIONEER PRESS COMPANY, C. W. HORNER, Supt., St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 7, 1904

Dear Sirs—I have been a tobacco fiend for many years, and during the past two years have smoked fifteen to twenty cigars regularly every day. My whole nervous system became affected, until my physician told me I must give up the use of tobacco for the time being, at least. I tried the so-called "Keeley Cure," "No-To-Bac" and various other remedies, but without success, until I accidentally learned of your "Baco-Curo." Three weeks ago today I commenced using your preparation, and today I consider myself cured. I am in perfect health, and the horrible craving for tobacco, which every inveterate smoker fully appreciates, has completely left me. I consider your "Baco-Curo" simply wonderful and can fully recommend it. Yours truly, C. W. HORNER.
