Mrs. Laura C. Phoenix, Milwaukee, Wis.
"Mother of a Benevolent Home and knowing the good Dr. Miles' Nervine has done me, my wish to help others, overcomes my dislike for the publicity, this letter may give me. In Nov. and Dec., 1903, The Sunstates had the 'LaGrippe,' and I was one of the first. Resuming duty too soon, with the care of so many sick, I did not regain my health, and in a month I became so debilitated and nervous from sleeplessness and the drafts made on my vitality, that it was a question if I could go on. A dear friend advised me to try Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. I took 2 bottles and am happy to say, I am in better health than ever. I still continue its occasional use, as a nerve food, as my work is very trying. A letter addressed to Milwaukee, Wis., will reach me." June 6, 1904. Mrs. LAURA C. PHOENIX.
Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold on a positive guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. All druggists sell it at 25c a bottle for 50c or 75c a bottle. It is a receipt of price by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

Once in a while a tramp is of some benefit. Last night a tramp walking on the railroad this side of Huntly discovered a cow fast in a culvert. He walked back to that village and informed the railroad people. The train was run slowly to the place and the cow taken out. If not notified the probabilities are that the train would have been dethatched.—Turner Independent.

In digging pits to test the composition of the gravel belt on the Wheeler farm the delvers probed into one of the Indian mounds there, the result being that on that particular spot they unearthed more human bones than gravel. So far as we could judge a great number of red men must have been buried in the mound which covers over 50 feet in diameter, the highest elevation being about four feet above the surrounding land. It is well-known that that entire region was a favorite burying ground of the savages, and it is not improbable that the archeologists of Chicago will visit us ere long and give some of the mounds an analytical inspection.—St. Charles Chronicle.

James O'Brien, the fellow who stole 20 tubs of butter the other night from the Kaneville creamery, and who was captured by a detective in Chicago as he was getting in a nice drunken condition on the proceeds of the sale, is now at Geneva. He was brought there from Chicago Thursday, by Sheriff Burke. He had done time for previous offenses and is an all around bad man. He is a native of Kaneville, smart, but evidently a villain. His wife and six children, it is said, reside at St. Charles. He will doubtless get a chance to view some familiar walls at Joliet. His examination will be concluded to-morrow. The butter was recovered and later sold to Chicago parties.—Aurora Beacon.

The "Q" road has bought the whole bluff and adjoining land by the narrows near Oregon, on Rock river, and are fitting it up as a summer resort. The Byron Express says it is being cleared of brambles and underbrush, platted into lots and parks and that a large hotel to accommodate 1,000 guests will be built. A large dancing platform will be one of the features and the whole will be converted into an ideal picnic ground and resort. Several cottages will be built and ere long what was formerly an unsightly growth of nature will be one of the beauty spots of the west. They will run excursions from Chicago, Aurora and other points to Oregon, thence by steamer to the resort, and expect to have it ready for business in a short time. The work of clearing the grounds is already in progress.

C. Kendig had a little scare at his Burlington Park gallery Saturday. A gentleman, whose picture he was about to capture, asked for the loan of a watch chain so as to make the photo look better. The request was granted, and more too, because not only the chain but gold watch also was handed over to the stranger. After the picture was taken the man walked off into the crowd and Kendig forgot all about his watch, but soon missed it and at once went to look for the man. However, he failed to locate him and had about given up the search when the man, who was also scared, put in an appearance at the gallery and handed over the time-piece. He had been down town twice, and only by an accident discovered the presence of a strange watch, having forgotten all about the picture transaction.—Clarion.

DON'T STOP TOBACCO.
How to Cure Yourself While Using It.
The tobacco habit grows on a man until his nervous system is seriously affected, impairing health, comfort and happiness. We give a written guarantee to permanently cure any case with three boxes, or refund the money with 10 per cent interest. It leaves the system as pure and free from nicotine as the day you took your first chew or smoke. Sold by all druggists, with our ironclad guarantee, at $1.00 per box, three boxes (thirty days treatment) $2.50, or sent direct, upon receipt of price.
