Nothing in This World
 Is so cheap as a newspaper, whether it be measured by the cost of its production or by its value to the consumer. We are talking about an American, metropolitan, daily paper of the first class like THE CHICAGO RECORD. It's so cheap and so good you can't afford in this day of progress to be without it. There are other papers possibly as good, but none better, and none just like it. It prints all the real news of the world—the news you care for—every day, and prints it in the shortest possible space. You can read THE CHICAGO RECORD and do a day's work too. It is an independent paper and gives all political news free from the taint of party bias. In a word—it's a complete, condensed, clean, honest family newspaper, and it has the largest morning circulation in Chicago or the West—140,000 to 150,000 a day.

Prof. T. J. Hatfield of the Northwestern University says: "THE CHICAGO RECORD comes as near being the ideal daily journal as we are for some time likely to find on these mortal shores."

Sold by newsdealers everywhere, and subscriptions received by all postmasters. Address THE CHICAGO RECORD, 181 Madison-st.

 The Misses Allie and Ella Leonard and Miss Courtright of Chicago are visiting at J. F. Smart's.
 Miss Warden returned to her home in the city Saturday. Her cousin, Miss Clara Smart, accompanied her.
 Messrs. Frank and John Gregory took a trip to Lockport on their wheels. What made you so tired, Frank?
 When a young man comes regularly to Cass once a week, then suddenly inquires if he can rent a farm, what does it mean?
 A number of people from Cass church helped in the street meeting Sunday at Lemont. Rev. Sedweek was one who preached.
 Three ladies, wearing the latest cycling outfit, rolled through Cass the other day. Many glances evolving from different emotions accompanied them on their way.

HINSDALE.
 Remember the Hinsdale Guards' grand social dance at Gardner's hall, Hinsdale, Aug. 15. Get your tickets of members of the Guards.
 The efficient work of Officer Nickolson has unearthed another buggy, the property of Walter Lyman of Downers Grove, which was stolen by Oswald Schneider, the criminal who committed suicide in our village jail several weeks ago.
 On Wednesday evening Mr. Henry B. Mills was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Miss Mary Ashton of Watertown, S. D. The ceremony occurred at the home of the groom's mother, Mrs. E. J. Wallace. Rev. Cary Moore, formerly of this place, but now of Savannah, Ill., officiated.
 While overseeing the work on his new brick block on First street Wednesday, Henry Buchholz met with a serious injury. An iron tile fell from the hands of one of the plumbers who was placing it, and struck Mr. Buchholz on the head, cutting a deep gash and knocking him senseless. He is now improving.
 Bacon's Cornet Band is now one year old this month, and it will celebrate its anniversary by giving a concert. Mr. Lincoln Higgins, reader and impersonator from Chicago, Mr. F. Berryman, soloist from Ann Arbor, Mich., Miss Eva Olney and Miss Mamie Irish will assist. The band is a benefit to our town and the concert should be well patronized.
 Another of our police officer's successful exploits was the search for and subsequent recovery of the light road wagon stolen from Real Estate Agent Fish. The carriage was stolen some four weeks ago by Schneider. For several weeks no trace could be found of it, but finally a rumor stated it to be located at Yorkville, in the hands of one Dyer. But as soon as Dyer heard that the police were on the trail of the buggy, he disposed of it to a fiveman in Aurora. With the assistance of the chief of police at Aurora it was finally recovered and returned to its owner.—Beacon.

OSWEGO CAMPING GROUND.
 AIR: JOHN BROWN'S BODY.
 In the forests of Oswego, there a high old camp you'll see,
 Built by John and Ben and Betsy, Ed and Bill and Frank and Lee,
 There we stayed till Friday evening and had pleasure full and free—
 Oswego Camping Ground.
 CHORUS—
 Look! Oh see the fish a-baking,
 Hark! Oh hear Al Nash a-scrapping,
 All a merry noise are making—
 Oswego Camping Ground.
 We started out from Blodgett's on a midnight cold and dark,
 All the way from there to Crowder's every dog we met would bark;
 But for that, we did not care a cent, for we were on a lark—
 Oswego Camping Ground.
 Every morning handsome Eddy fried potatoes in the pan,
 If you want a cook that's out of sight, why he is just the man,
 And Billy with a smiling face would wash the coffee can—
 Oswego Camping Ground.
 We had our pictures taken and we tried to look our best,
 Some of us were in our shirt sleeves, some arrayed in coat and vest,
 And all of looked sleepy, just as if we needed rest,
 Oswego Camping Ground.
 Ben and Gallup, Dave and Johnny, all smoked cheap Kikkick,
 But it almost turned their stomachs, and it made poor Wally sick,
 All the rest of us poor devils had to stand it—
 Oswego Camping Ground.
 One afternoon old Joney in the river took a bath,
 This quivered the rest, who wouldn't, and they all gave him the laugh,
 They threw sticks and stones upon him, till he turned on them in a wrath—
 Oswego Camping Ground.
 One evening Ernest Gallup, in a short and scanty shirt,
 With Ben and David Colville ran before us in the dirt,
 They dove into the river and their cocoanuts they hurt—
 Oswego Camping Ground.
 David Blodgett lay a-dreaming of the girl he left behind,
 He tried to rise for breakfast and his feet he could not find;
 We had tied them to the wagon—his remarks we didn't mind—
 Oswego Camping Ground.
 Our funny man, Ben Colwell, kept the laughter going round,
 When he tried to open a red-horse, he fell in and nearly drowned,
 And now he says: "Hereafter I will stay upon dry ground—
 Oswego Camping Ground.
 When John and Albert left us everybody heaved a sigh,
 We knew that round the blazing fire we never more might lie,
 And to our happy camping ground we soon must say "good-bye"—
 Oswego Camping Ground.
 When we left on Friday evening all of us were feeling queer,
 On the ashes of our camp fire each one dropped a letter tear,
 You may bet a hundred dollars we are going back next year—
 Oswego Camping Ground.

...Judicious Advertising
 Is the magnet that draws cash from the pockets of the public.

- Judicious advertising means several things. Not only in composition and display has there been marked improvement in advertising, but among other things, judicious advertising means to advertise the right thing at the right time and in the right medium. The REPORTER reaches nearly all of the people in this vicinity. We have had years of experience in preparing advertisements and can assist you in preparing trade catchers. We charge nothing for writing advertisements.

Dr. Miles' Nervine.
 Worth Its Weight in Gold.

MISS RATHBURN.

DR. MILES' NERVINE RESTORES HEALTH. When the nerves are worn and weak, and vitality is at a low ebb. The brain force is weakened and the intellectual powers dulled. Courage is lost, the mind becomes timorous and melancholia takes possession. The digestive organs fail to fully perform their functions, the heart's action is painful and irregular, the blood becomes thin and watery and the entire system is threatened with collapse. Under these conditions there is nothing like Dr. Miles' Nervine to restore health.

"I feel it my duty to inform you what your Nervine has done for me. I have been an invalid and doctoring for nine years. I lost my dear mother last March, and just after I was taken down with a very severe nervous trouble, which gradually grew worse, notwithstanding I was under the care of a physician. I finally became discouraged and gave up, thinking I never would be better. I cannot tell you how great a sufferer I was. I had hysterical fits, sometimes two or three a day, an oppressed feeling through my chest. I was troubled with palpitation, and could scarcely stand on my feet, and was totally unable to walk alone. Not even the lightest kind of food would digest. My nerves were in such condition that I could not write, and I was reduced to but the ghost of my former self.

I saw an advertisement and purchased a bottle of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and from the first I noticed a change for the better. In a month's time there was a great improvement, in my looks as well as my feelings. The oppressed feeling in my chest entirely disappeared, my food digested much better and I could walk a short distance. It is over two months now and I can walk a half mile, and I am happy to say I am better than I have been for two years and am just beginning to feel like my old self; and I owe all this to you for Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. It is my best friend. I often make the remark that it is worth its weight in gold."
