Mrs. Laura C. Phoenix, Milwaukee, Wis. "Nerve of a Benevolent Home and knowing the good Dr. Miles' Nervine has done me, my wish to help others, overcomes my dislike for the publicity, this letter may give me. In Nov. and Dec., 1898, The Nervine had the 'La Grippe,' and I was one of the first. Resisting duty too soon, with the care of so many sick, I did not regard my health, and in a month I became so debilitated and nervous from sleeplessness and the drafts made on my vitality, that it was a question if I could go on. A dear friend advised me to try Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. I took 2 bottles and am happy to say, I am in better health than ever. I still continue to use it occasionally, as a nerve food, as my work is very trying. A letter addressed to Milwaukee, Wis., will reach me." June 6, 1894. MRS. LAURA C. PHOENIX.

SCISSORS AND PASTE.

Wheat and Chaff Gleaned from Our Esteemed Contemporaries.

It is against the laws of Illinois to allow a hedge to grow to a greater height than four feet. Daniel Gordon of South Moline allowed a hedge on his place to grow beyond the limit and when ordered by the highway commissioners to trim it five years ago he replied that he guessed he could run his own farm to suit himself, by gum, and he has continued to do so, disregarding the yearly notices sent him that his hedge was too tall. This week he was arrested and fined $50 and costs, or $10 a year for each year that he has disregarded the order of the commissioners.

Turner evidently took a lesson from the Lockport disaster and they are now agitating fire protection over in that burg. The Independent says: "A petition is being circulated for signers, asking the village board to call another election for the purpose of voting on the question of putting in water works. The petition now has some names of those who were at the last election opposed to anything in the shape of fire protection, but when they come to consider the defenceless condition of Turner they change their minds. The proposition can be carried if those who are in favor of it do their duty, but there are, we regret to say, those who are opposed on the ground of cost more than anything else, and these men will have to be labored with."

How differently tenants treat houses entrusted to their care. Some tenants seem utterly indifferent to appearances. Vines and bushes nearly obscure the house and yard, the grass looks as though it was never cut, the windows as though they were never washed, the whole place as though no one ever visited it. On the other hand, some tenants take pride in keeping the property in repair and looking neat and orderly, and regard the property in much the same way as their own. Landlords are happy in securing such tenants, but many of them do not expect such to stay long, for such persons generally manage sooner or later to secure their own homes.—LaGrange News.
