Nothing in This World
Is so cheap as a newspaper, whether it be measured by the cost of its production or by its value to the consumer. We are talking about an American, metropolitan, daily paper of the first class like THE CHICAGO RECORD. It's so cheap and so good you can't afford in this day of progress to be without it. There are other papers possibly as good, but none better, and none just like it. It prints all the real news of the world—the news you care for—every day, and prints it in the shortest possible space. You can read THE CHICAGO RECORD and do a day's work too. It is an independent paper and gives all political news free from the taint of party bias. In a word—it's a complete, condensed, clean, honest family newspaper, and it has the largest morning circulation in Chicago or the west—140,000 to 150,000 a day.
 Prof. T. J. Hatfield of the Northwestern University says: "THE CHICAGO RECORD comes as near being the ideal daily journal as we are for some time likely to find on these mortal shores."

HINSDALE.
 Clarendon Hills will soon have new water works that promise to rival those of Hinsdale. Mr. T. A. Lemmon's place has been selected as the site of the water works, this being the most available spot in the village. Work has already commenced.
 Fox and Davis attracted the attention of many of our citizens this week by the display of two stalks of corn, one fourteen feet high and the other twelve feet. Both were placed outside in front of the store where their enormous size was commented upon by not a few. The corn was raised on Mr. Barton's farm, south of the village.
 The business men of the village have all taken an interest in the coming concert, which will be given by Bacon's Band, in Everden Hall, Tuesday evening, August 27th, and have donated very liberally. Now the citizens should fall in line and do their part, which is to buy a ticket. Only 25 cents. It is to help a good cause.
 The Hinsdale Guards held a mid-summer's dance in Gardner's Hall, Thursday evening, at which despite the warm weather, there was a large attendance. But although it was warm outside, a gentle breeze swept through the hall making it fairly comfortable. The dancers were in the best of humor, and all night long merry peals of laughter rang through the hall and out on the calm night air. To and fro, over the waxed floor, the dancers lightly tripped until early dawn spread its first streak in the eastern sky. The music was furnished by Rueso and Albino Bros., of Chicago. The Guards served their own refreshments, which consisted of lemonade, ice cream and cake of a most delicious quality.—Beacon.

A MOONLIGHT RIDE TO FULLERSBURG.
 A moonlight ride in good old fashioned style has many attractions—at least that is the verdict of about 40 young people who indulged in one last Monday night. The party was composed for the most part of members of the Social and Literary club of the Methodist church, and were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Hawk, Miss Suydan, Miss Churchhill, Miss Humphrey, the Misses Silsby, Miss Edna Drake, Miss Alice Hayes, Miss Tenney of Downers Grove, Miss Deloy, Messrs Hill, Kelley, Lydick, Christopher, Sheldon, Silsby, Cross of Downers Grove, and others.—La-Grange Call.

Downers Grove REPORTER:
 Our City Council has been so wonderful wise in its treatment of the dog question, and has made rules so rigorous as to the conditions under which dogs may still continue to exist within the sacred precincts of Downers Grove corporation, that I hesitate to suggest the publication of the attached, from a Chicago paper, as giving a view from a doggie standpoint. But I will risk it. The fool-killer has been out of town long enough. He may come back after me if he will take the others.

ONE OF THEM.
 Every dog
 Has his day,
 Or several of them.
 These are our
 Days, these hot ones.
 I'm a dog and I
 Don't like hot weather.
 But I'm not going mad.
 Why should I, when I
 Can lie in the shade
 Of the woodshed
 And study the flies?
 In August I feel like
 An alderman.
 Every one suspects me.
 If I let my tongue hang out
 The children scream.
 Yesterday I growled.
 What of it?
 Every one growls in this weather.
 But that woman next door
 Heard me growl.
 This morning I saw her
 Put some white powder on meat.
 The meat's over there
 By the fence.
 I know a thing
 Or two.
 If I pass a hydrant
 Without taking a drink
 Some one points me out
 And says I'm mad.
 I see men pass hydrants.
 No one accuses them.
 How about it?
 I musn't slobber
 These days.
 Well, I should say not:
 I can slobber all winter
 And no one will
 Offer an objection.
 But let me slobber
 In August
 And I have to begin
 Ducking bullets.
 Also I have to walk
 Very slowly.
 If I trot
 Some wise guy yells
 And tells every one to Look out!
 Oh, but I have
 To be careful.
 Yesterday I smelled of
 A boy's leg and
 A large, frantic mob of
 Men, women and children
 Chased me a mile.
 Hello, here comes a policeman.
 Now watch me
 Keep quiet.
 I am not mad.
 I am not mad.

Dr. Miles' Nervine.
 Worth Its Weight in Gold.

MISS RATHBURN.

DR. MILES' NERVINE RESTORES HEALTH. When the nerves are worn and weak, and vitality is at a low ebb. The brain force is weakened and the intellectual powers dulled. Courage is lost, the mind becomes timorous and melancholia takes possession. The digestive organs fail to fully perform their functions, the heart's action is painful and irregular, the blood becomes thin and watery and the entire system is threatened with collapse. Under these conditions there is nothing like Dr. Miles' Nervine to restore health.
 "I feel it my duty to inform you what your Nervine has done for me. I have been an invalid and doctoring for nine years. I lost my dear mother last March, and just after I was taken down with a very severe nervous trouble, which gradually grew worse, notwithstanding I was under the care of a physician. I finally became discouraged and gave up, thinking I never would be better. I cannot tell you how great a sufferer I was. I had hysterical fits, sometimes two or three a day, an oppressed feeling through my chest. I was troubled with palpitation, and could scarcely stand on my feet, and was totally unable to walk alone. Not even the lightest kind of food would digest. My nerves were in such condition that I could not write, and I was reduced to but the ghost of my former self.
 I saw an advertisement and purchased a bottle of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and from the first I noticed a change for the better. In a month's time there was a great improvement, in my looks as well as my feelings. The oppressed feeling in my chest entirely disappeared, my food digested much better and I could walk a short distance. It is over two months now and I can walk a half mile, and I am happy to say I am better than I have been for two years and am just beginning to feel like my old self; and I owe all this to you for Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. It is my best friend. I often make the remark that it is worth its weight in gold."
