Grove Atporter.

WHITE & WILLIAMS.

ILLINOIS. WERS GROVE,

CURIOUS FACTS.

Irritating drugs—such as salts of aric, copper, sinc and iron-should us-My be given after food, except where local conditions require their administration in small doses before eating. The most easterly point of the United tates is Quoddy Head, Me.; Me most terly, Atto Island, Alaska; the most ortherly, Point Barrow, Alaska; the est southerly, Key West, Florida.

In the Argentine Republic, instead of fining a drunkard, they sentence him to sweep the streets for eight days, and similar punishment exists in St. Peterspurg. But the drunkard maker goes free.

Eben E. Rexford writes in the Home fournal that ants do not harm plants to any great extent. Indeed, they are benefit in most instances, as they eatch the insects which, if left to themselves, would soon damage the plants greatly. Jets of air discharged from flexible bose are made to do the work of brooms, whisks and cloths in removing dust and cinders in passenger cars. The hose may readily be carried to any part if a car, and is used in the same manser as an ordinary hose carrying water.

A bushel of corn is said to make four callons of whisky. The farmer gets 40 cents, the railroad $1, the government 23.60, the manufacturer about $5 and the saloon keeper $6, out of the $16 for which it is sold, while the drinker gets the refuse and delirium tremens.

a new thirteen-inch gun tested by our navy department at a distance of 4,000 yards sent a projectile weighing 1.100 pounds through a sheet of steel fifteen inches thick and twelve feet into the earth beyond. It is safe to say that somebody will get hurt in the next great sea fight.

HINTS TO HOUSEKEEPERS.

The torn pages of a book may be nicely mended with white tissue paper. Clean planter of paris ornaments with wet starch. Brush off when dry.

A few drops of benzoin placed on cotton and put in or around a tooth that is aching will almost instantly stop the Raisins can be easily seeded if put in hot water and allowed to stand fifteen minutes before beginning to seed. Clear, black coffee diluted with wator and containing a little ammonia will clean and restore black clothes. A sponge large enough to expand and dil the chimney after having been squeezed in, tied to a slender stick, in the best thing with which to clean a lamp chimpey. Graham gems or rolls are among the most relishable of breakfast dishes when properly made. The secret of success in baking anything made of grabam flour is to have the oven as hot as possible without burning. A mustard plaster made according to the following directions will not blister the most sensitive skin: Two tea-Sour, two teaspoonfuls ground ginger. that the whole region was enveloped in Do not mix too dry. Place between a dense pall of smoke, and river and two pieces of old musiin and apply. If if burns too much at first lay an extra place of muslin between it and the skin; the skin becomes accustomed to the beat take the extra piece of muslin

RAM'S HURNS.

the throne, no matter where they begin | safely expect rain.

Myery man is a robber who takes from another anything God wants him n a horse trade by the noise he makes the Indian summer. God still has plenty of angels to min-ater to those who resist the devil until be leaves them. Scandals and crimes in the newspaers ere helping the devil about as much as the hypocrites in church. Just as surely as we seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness will God supply all our other needs. Many boys are saved when their ashers are wrong, but the child stands a poor chance when its mother is

The devil is not throwing many nes at the preacher who has to d the Bible to keep his congrega-

The man who sits down to wait for a a opportunity to knock at his coming in; onion skins thick and will need a thick cushion on his tough, coming winter cold and rough.

t is better to have only a little honal in the barrel, than to sit down red mest that should be returned emebody's smoke house.-Ram's etimes is useful to those suffering na an Indian name "swimming of

VORTH KNOWING.

Maine, was name

AN OLD IRISH KING.

A Real Personage Was Belon Boru-His Harp Still Proserved. Brian Borothme, or Boru, was a real personage and perhaps the greatest of the old Irish kings, says the Brooklyn Eagle. He belonged to a celebrated clan known as the Dalcassians. He had a brother named Mahon and for a time the two worked together to drive out the Danes and extend their own power over other parts of Ireland than that to which their clan belonged. They were very successful. Mahon became king of a section of the country, but was soon after taken captive by some of his rivals and murdered. Then Brian rose in his might. Gathering his clansmen together, he marched with great rapidity from point to point, sought out the men who had slain his brother, defeated them and took possession of their lands and, by means of the deeds he performed with his strong right arm, became king of Munster, Then he marched into Leinster and exacted tribute and homage from the kings there. It was a time when Ireland was divided up into separate kingdoms. But over all was the ard-ree or chief king, and at the period when Brian Boru began his great work the leading monarch was Malachy, also a great warrior, Brian and Malachy became jealous of each other, and though for a time they agreed to an arrangement whereby Malachy was to be regarded as sole ruler over the north of Ireland, Brian had the notion that all Ireland should be controlled by one man and that he himself was the man for the work. So he picked a quarrel with Malachy, and marching against were erected also and crime was scarcely known in the country.

that king at Tara, challenged him either to surrender or settle the question of supremacy in battle. Malachy said be would not submit. He would rather fight than do this, but he needed help and he told Brian that he would meet him fairly in the field in a month's time. Brian actually agreed to wait until Malachy got ready for fighting.

Malachy, however, could not get the help be wanted and he therefore surrendered to Brian, who was so pleased at this act that he bestowed such honors

as he could on his captive and gave him his liberty. Brian was now master of Ireland and for many years the country was peaceful and prosperous. Roads were made through the land, bridges were built over the rivers and houses

the time of conflict were repaired or rebuilt. Colleges and seats of learning

Wealth of Georgia Negroes. The negroes of Georgia have more than doubled their property holdings since 1880. In that year the aggregate was $5,764,293, while the assessors' books show that now they own $12,-941,230. This is a shrinkage of about $2,000,000 since 1893, when the returns showed them to be worth $15,000,000, but this shrinkage is more apparent than real, for the property has suffered very small actual loss. Practically all of this property has been acquired in less than twenty-five years.

Forest Fires in Washington State.

Forest fires have broken out again in the mountains of Washington, where two months ago they were so extensive worst fires now are in Clarke county, and the town of Vancouver is overhung by dense clouds of smoke,

WEATHER SIGNS.

When rheumatic people complain of pains and sches then look out for rain and storms.

If cattle leave off feeding and chase God made kings are sure to come to each other around the field you may When birds of passage arrive early in their southern passage severe winter may be looked for. If All Saints' Day will bring out the chody can tell what a man will do winter, St. Martin's Day will bring out If goldenrod blossoms early you will need heavy clothes, for bitter cold weather will prevail. Gnats flying in compact bodies in the beams of the setting sun mean that the weather will be fine. If cpiders spin the filaments of their webs long the weather will be serene for ten or twelve days. The whiteness of the breastbone of a goese indicates the amount of snow that will fall during the winter. A good hydrometer is a piece of hemp. Roll it into a lump, and when it is damp it prognosticates rain. If birds preen their feathers and wash themselves, afterwards flying to their nests, rainy weather is indicated. Onion skins very thin, mild winter

When honey bees are busy laying in a supply of food you can depend on it that the winter will be a "corking" cold

The twelve days between December 25 and January 5 are the keys to the weather for the ensuing menths of that

WORTH KNOWING.

The London Chronicle says. Anetin is simply unthinkable as poet faureste. We can hardly conceive that so great an injury to literature is medleven hundred Berlin journalists are to have their pictures printed in a clume which Gustava Duhms has written and which is to give an inside tiew of modern German journalism. The Russian workman spends very

WIDOW OF A GENERAL.

TRIBUTE TO MRS, PHILIP HENRY SHERIDAN.

Wife of the Brave Soldier a Charming Bostess and Zealous Friend-Something About Her Home Life-"Little Phil."

(Chicago Correspondence.)

HICAGO CLAIMS Mrs. Philip H. Sheridan as one of her fairest daughters; and, whereas, she was not born here, it was in Chicago that she spent most of her girlhood; it was here that her four attractive children were born; it was here that she married one of America's illustrious generals. She lives here still in the memory of loving friends. Her bright sayings are constantly quoted, her soft, merry, contagious laugh lingers in one's memory like a stran of tuneful music, and numberless sad hearts that she has comforted feel a glow of warmth when her name is mentioned. Mrs.

MRS. PHILIP H. SHERIDAN.

and castles that had suffered during Sheridan was without exception the most popular social leader that Chicago has ever had. Her gracious and dignified manner endeared her to ail; her refined beauty and the honest glance from her deep-set, luminous gray eyes lingers in the thoughts of all who were fortunate enough to meet When General Sheridan was made commander-in-chief of the United States army, which necessitated his removal to Washington, Chicago parted reluctantly with Mrs. Sheridan, who was not only one of her greatest ornaments, but one of her most zealous friends.

Chicagoans do not forget that General Sheridan was one of the greatest generals known to history, but it is not as a general that they remember him. It is as a loving, helpful friend. They picture him sitting by his own fireside chatting with Mrs. Sheridan and her few friends, or playing with the children on the spacious lawn. There are, also, a few who remember him as the Santa Claus of their childhood. These favored few recall with keen delight rides on old Winchester, romps in the general's bachelor quarters and quiet afternoons spent in listening, with childish awe and delight, to the daring deeds of Indians on bucking broncos intricately interwoven into some fairy tale that was worthy the genius of Hans school days in Washington and in Philadelphia; on her meeting with the general, and of her marriage to him in 1875.

Andersen. Mrs. Sheridan seems even after these many years of absence a Chicago womcast at her feet gives pleasure to all her the writer touches upon Mrs. Sheridan's that were gifts to the general.

Mrs. Sheridan is still a young woman. She is slender, almost girlish figure, and dresses with exquisite taste in dark colors. She is graceful and willowy, and carries her dainty head with an air of aristocratic ease. Her hair waves delightfully into a becoming bang, her eyes are gray and bright, while the contour of her face is a delicate oval. In manner she is simple and kindly, her birth and breeding showing plainly in the ease with which she meets all of her social duties and the tact of her cordial bearing. Mrs. Sheridan is rather retiring, and is devoted to her home and children. She orders the conduct of her household, even to the details, and personally superintends the studies of her son, who bears the name of his illustrious father, of whom he is a speaking likeness. She finds time, also, to indulge her tastes for music and art and for the demands of charity. Until within a year or two Mrs. Sheridan has entertained rarely, except in the way of small dinner parties and informal evenings for friends.

The Sheridan children are a bright and interesting group. Mary, the oldest, was presented to society last winter; the twins, Irene and Louise, will make their debut during the present teenth birthday and is at school in Freiburg, in Baden. The latter gave Washington. The girls are said to be just such daughters as might be ex- Tufts is a recognized specialist in the pected of such a mother-pleasant, affable, well-mannered, well-educated, sweet and simple, full of life and spirit. Great hopes are centered in young "Phil." When old enough he will be sent to West Point. He is fond of all that relates to war and the army, and he will, no doubt, prove himself worthy of his sire. He is well built, has a frank, honest countenance, and is as full of fun and romp as any of his playmates.

The home of the Sheridans is described as one of the most interesting residences in Washington, not only for its historic associations, but for the attractions of its fair mistress and her children. It is the center of the (ashionable residence section-on Rhode Island avenue—and was the gift of Chicago friends to Gen. Sheridan when he was appointed commander-in-chief of the army. The house bespeaks everywhere the great general and his glorious achievements on the field. The quaint hall is full of momentoes of the warrior. In one corner on a wooden rack is a fine, silver-studded Mexican saddle and bridle, which was presented to him by an admirer; on a table there

LITTLE PHIL SHERIDAN. is a life-size bust of the soldier. An American flag is gracefully festooned about his portrait, and within the parlors are numerous souvenirs of the dead husband. The two partors are oddly an, and any fresh garland of flowers shaped, and they are furnished in a tasteful and almost inxurious style. In western friends. In a recent article a glass case are arranged several handentitled "General Sheridan's Widow," somely chased swords with gold hilts, THE ARMORED CRUISER MAINE.

NOTED CHICAGO SCHOLAR. He Is Attracting Murked Attention by His Lectures on Philosophy.

(Chicago Correspondence.) The course of philosophical lectures now being delivered by Prof. James Hayden Tufts, of the University of Chicago, is drawing marked attention to this student, writer and educator. He was born in Monson, Mass., thirtythree years ago, and received the basis of his education at the hands of his father, Rev. James Tufts, who was the first tutor of the late Eugene Field. When 15 years of age young Tufts began teaching as a means of obtaining a college education. He was graduated from Amherst college in the class of '84, of which Professors Clark, of Johns Hopkins; Wilcox, of Cornell; Thompson and Wood, of Amherst, and Rockwell, of Iowa, are members.

After a year as principal of the Westport, Conn., high school, he was appointed "Walker instructor in mathematics" at Amherst. Leaving this position after two years he went to Yale for graduate work in philosophy. In 1889 he was made instructor in philosopby in the university, where he remained until be resigned, at the end of two years, to become assistant professor of philosophy in the University of Chicago. The year pending the opening of the university was spent by Prof. Tufts in study at Berlin and him the degree of Ph. D. in 1892. Prof.

PROF. J. H. TUFTS.

field of the history of philosophy, and in the author of "The Sources and Development of Kant's Teleology," a work of great scientific value. He has also translated from the German "Windelbrand's History of Philosophy." Prof. Tufts is married and has two children.

Never Tempted.

There is a quaint story told of couple of Scotch ministers who were taking dinner together one summer day in a little parsonage in the highlands. It was the sabbath day, the weather was beautiful and the babbling streams were full of tront and the woods full of summer birds. One turned to the other and said: "Mon. don' ye often feel tempted on these beautiful Sundays to go out fishing?"

"Na, na," said the other, "I never feel tempted; 'I just gang."-Household Words.

Millon's Effort Wasted.

Learned men do not always appreciate the achievements of their fellows. mathematician, who remarked, when he had finished it:

"It's verra pretty; but, mon, what does it prove?"-Argonaut, fronunciation.

They had been discussing the pronunciation of "eleomargarine" and finally agreed to leave it to the waiter, but he hedged.

"Sure." said he, "I have to pronounce it butter or lose my job."-Tit-Bits, PROTECTS USERS OF "ROYAL" Baking Powder Company When Its Case in United States Court.

The decision of Judge Showalter in a recent case that came up before him sustains the claims of the Royal company to the exclusive use of the name "Royal" as a trademark for its baking powder. The special importance of this decision consists in the protection which it assures to the milions of consumers of Royal baking powder against inferior and unwholesome compounds. The excellence of this article has caused it to be highly esteemed and largely used almost the world over. Its high standard of quality having been always maintained, consumers have come to rely implicitly upon the "Royal" brand as the most wholesome and efficient of any in the market. The cupidity of other manufacturers is excited by this high reputation and large demand. Very few of the hundreds of baking pawders on the market are safe to use. It their makers could sell them under the name of a well known, reputable brand incalculable damage would be done to the public health by the deception. The determination of the Royal Baking Powder Company to protect the users of the Royal baking powder against imitators by a rigid prosecution of them makes such imitations of its brand extremely rare.

Develope or Develop. Whether this word should or should not be spelled with a final "e" seems to be a puzzle of modern orthographers. "Develope" was undoubtedly used at one time—Burke and others are quoted in illustrative works-and yet certain modern dictionaries omit it altogether. A good instance of strict impartiality appears in the Saturday Review. The chronicler of the week, describing Mr. Chamberlain's first speech as colonial secretary, closes with a seeming quotation, thus: "If we are not willing to develope countries ourselves we should hand them over to those who will develop them."-Notes and Queries.

ECLIPSES THEM ALL

$5 1-2 Hours, Chicago to Jacksonville,

The Monon Route, with its customary enterprise, has put on a new fast train that makes the run between Chicago and Jacksonville in 351/2 hours. This train is composed of elegant Pullman Perfected Safety Vestibuled, Open and Compartment Sleepers, including Drawing Room and Buffet Sleepers, as well as comfortable day coaches, with Monon Celebrated High-back Seats.

This train leaves Chicago daily at 8:32 p. m., arriving at Cincinnati next morning 7:30, Chattanooga 5:30 p. m., Atlanta 10:40 p. m., reaching Jacksonville at 8:20 the second morning, in ample time to make connection with all lines for points in Central and Southern Florida. This is the fastest time ever made by any line between Chicago and Fiorida.

FRANK J. REED, General Passenger Agent, Chicago, City Ticket Office, 232 Clark st., Chi-

For time cards, pamphlets and all other information, address L. E. SES-SIONS, N. W. Pass. Agt., Minneapolls, Minn.

Great Reduction in Time to California. Once more the North-Western line has reduced the time of its trans-continental trains, and the journey from Chicago to California via this popular route is now made in the marvelously short time of three days. Palace draw-It is said that a friend brought Milton's ing-room sleeping cars leave Chicago "Paradise Lost" to a great Scotch daily, and run through to San Francisall meals en route are served in dining cars. Daily tourist sleeping car service is also maintained by this line between Chicago and San Francisco and Los Angeles, completely equipped berths in upholstered tourist sleepers being furnished at a cost of only $6.00 each from Chicago to the Pacific coast. Through trains leave Chicago for Callfornia at 6:00 p. m. and 10:45 p .m. daily, after arrival of trains of connecting lines from the East and South.

For detailed information concerning rates, routes, etc., apply to ticket agenta of connecting lines or address W. B. Kniskern, G. P. & T. A., Chicago,

Most Remarkable.

Rialto-"Actresses don't have their diamonds stolen any more when they want advertisements."

Kirby-"No. They get married and live sweet home lives."-Truth.

State of Ohio, City of Toledo, Lucas Frank J. Chency makes oath that he is the senior partner of the firm of F. J. Cheney & Co., doing business in the City of Toledo, County and State aforesaid, and that said firm will pay the sum of One Hundred Dollars for each and every case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by the use of Hall's Catarra FRANK J. CHENEY. Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence this 6th day of December, A. W. GLEASON,

A. D. 1886. Notary Public. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Send for testimonials, free.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists; 75c. Hall's Family Pills, 25c.

What the country needs is a new brand of thermometer that will pull the price of coal down when it pulls down the mercury.

I have found Piso's Cure for Consumption an unfailing medicine.-F. R. Lotz. 1806 Scott St., Covington, Ky., Oct. 1, 1894.

In the United States there are fiftyseven frog farms.

Firs - All Fits stopped free by Dr. Kline's Great Nerve Restorer. No Fits after the first day's me. Marvelous cures. Treatise and $2 trial bottle free &: Fit cases. Send to Dr. Kline, 261 Arch St., Phila., Pa. Chromic acid was first employed as a caustic by Sigmund of Verona. A COUGH, COLD OR SORE THROAT requires immediate attention. "Brenen's Brenchial Troches" will invariably give relief.

Texas has 30,660,772 acres of unimproved land. If the Baby is Outsing Teeth.

Window's S system Synth for Children S.

neions Length on water line, 12 inches; turrets, 8 inches; barbettes, rapid-fire guns; four Gatling guns; four 118 feet; beam, 57 feet; draft, 21 feet 8 12 inches; protective deck, 2 inches, torpedo tubes. Crew-32 officers, 370 Steplacement, 6,648 tons. Two Armament—Main battery, four 10-inch men. Built at Brooklyn Navy I at displacement, 6,648 tons. Two Armament—Main battery, four 10-inch men. Built at Brooklyn Navy I at displacement, 6,648 tons. Two breeshiording rifles, six 6-inch breech. Keel laid in 1888; launched Nov. at displacement, 6,648 tons. Two breeshiording rifles, secondary buttery, eight 1890; went into commission Sept. eight Brooklyn Navy I at the commission Sept. I at the commission Sept. Sept. Brooklyn Navy I at the commission Sept. Brookly