A Lonely House.

It is stated that the gamekeeper's cottage in Skiddaw forest is entitled to the distinction of being the loneliest house in England. During the summer the gamekeeper or his wife may be seen trudging back from Keswick, round by Lonsdale Pell, laden with the rough walking as can be well compressed into that district. The house has the additional distinction of being the only one in the township, but it vote, because there is no overseer to make out a voter's list and no church door on which to post it.

Prosperous Farmers.

Yankton Press and Dakotian: In Yankton County, South Dakota, there are at least one thousand farmers who came here as poor as the proverbial turkey of Job and who to-day count their worldly possessions by thousands. Many of them started in with a house built of sod, and almost empty handed so far as horses and cattle go. Today they occupy fine dwelling houses, have large barns, fine horses, cattle, hogs and sheep, granaries filled with grain, fruit orchards and money in hand. We mention this to show that South Dakota farmers are the prosperous class. Prosperity is the rule-not the exception. With fair prices for grain and live stock they would be rolling in wealth. Prices, however, have nothing to do with the fertility of the soil and the favorable character of the climate. These natural advantages are here to stay and assure prosperity to the farming classes.

A Question of Temperature.

When Dr. Kenealy, being returned to parliament by the electors of Stoke, took an early opportunity of moving a vote of censure on the judges, he found a teller in Mr. Whalley. On the house dividing it was found that 433 men of all parties voied in the negative. Dr. Kenealy's proposition being supported by a single member. The single member was Major O'Gorman. Asked afterward why he had gone against his own party, for once merged in the majority, the major, mopping his massive brow, answered: "Bedad, it's a hot night, and I knew there would be more room in the 'aye' lobby."

MR. JOHN G. WOOLLEY

THE MAN WHO WANTS CHRIS-TIANS TO GET TOGETHER.

Bolleves that by United Action They Could Carry the Country for Prohibition-May Be the Presidential Candidate of That Party.

N the heat of the national campaign it would not be surprising if the name of a Chicago man should be sounded all over the land as a presidential possibility, says the Times-Herald. "I am out to kill the saloon, and to help men escape from the temptation of drink. I do not care who kills the liquor traffic. Whoever or whatever agency undertakes the work can count on my support."

This is the platform upon which John G. Woolley, one of prohibition's foremost workers and most popular agitators, has taken his stand. It is scarcely the platform of the prohibition party, and might not suit the views of those who believe that prohibition is a political issue to be fought for with machine tactics. Mr. Woolley holds other views on the temperance question for which he alone is responsible, and which week's supplies. The nearest way to have, no doubt, contributed largely to Keswick is the path by the Whit Beck, his fame as a successful worker in the and that is five and a half miles of as | cause of reform. He declined an offer to be come a temperance agitator without any assured salary, and has since that time declined even more flattering offers to re-enter the legal profession. Mr. Woolley has persistently declined to be under anybody's management or to be held by any society, church or political party, or to issue circulars or lithographs of himself as a lecturer. He is a favorite speaker at Christian Endeavor conventions, and is believed to have addressed larger audiences upon his chosen subject than any other speaker. He spoke 100 consecutive nights in Minneapolis, thirty nights in New Haven, and sixty nights in Boston. He has traveled in England, Scotland and Wales, making friends wherever he went.

One of the World's Marvels. Among the collection of the microscopic objects in the United States Army Medical Museum at Washington is a specimen of microscopic writing on glass which contains the Lord's Prayer, written in characters so small that the entire 227 letters of that petition are engraved within an area measuring 1-294 by 1-441 of an inch.

An inch square, covered with writing of the same size, or counting 227 letters to each of such fractions would contain 29,431,458 letters.

Party is a secondary matter with Mr. | glass. Woolley so long as the temperance cause is advanced. He considers his work to be the education of the consciences of young men that they may lead right lives, and believes the best way to do this is to avoid partisan methods. He is satisfied with simply urging all persons to refuse affiliation with political parties that refuse to deal frankly with the liquor traffic.

Much has been written of Mr. Woolley's life, his success, his fall through drink, his conversion, and his devotion to the cause in which he is now working. His father's family were among the early settlers of this country, coming from England in 1653 and settling at Newport, R. I. Mr. Woolley was born at Collinsville, Ohio, his father, Edwin C. Woolley, being a prominent physician. Early in the 60s the family moved to Paris, Ill., and at the age of 17 the young man held a prominent position in the public schools. Mr. Woolley was graduated from the Ohio Wesleyan College in 1871, went abroad, and on his return entered the law department of the University of Michigan. He was admitted to the stop-over privileges. These Santa Fe bar in 1873 in the Supreme court of Illinots, when the chief justice pronounced his showing on examination the most brilliant of all he had known. After practicing four years in Illinois he moved to Minneapolis, where he entered Supreme court practice, becoming state's attorney and a leading lawyer in criminal cases. In 1885 he was called to the Supreme court of the United Via the Chicago, Union Pacific & States. CASE CITED IN THREE OAKS MICH., THAT WILL INTEREST DELICATE WOMEN.

The Effects of the Fever Were Felt in the Weakest Spots-A Warning to Mothers.

From the Press, Three Oaks, Mich. Out at Three Oaks, Michigan, lives Mrs. J. S. Flowers, from whom we publish part of a most interesting letter. The first part of the letter was taken up with a description of her sufferings as a result of malarial and typhoid fevers. These consisted of rheumatism, nervous prostration, boils, severe pains in head and back, etc., etc. The feature of her letter, which will be of the most interest, however, follows, and it will interest many women and particularly mothers of young daugh-

"I had also been a sufferer for sixteen years with painful menstruation. Every time I would have to lie down most of the time, as it was impossible for me to stand. At last, as a result of this remedy, (Pink Pills), they nearly disappeared. Every time they should come I would cramp and would have to use hot applications, and would take hot slings, teas and every known remedy, but of no avail. After using Pink Pills two months they came on without any pain whatever. It had been two years since there had been any color. The doctors said it might be the turn of life, but as I was too young, only thirtythree, he thought it strange if it was, Now I am just as anyone should be at

"Another trouble I had was a weak stomach from a child. Every little while I would have bad vomiting spells, consequently the doctors found me a very hard patient to treat. My physician said he had spent more time in studying my case than that of any patient he ever had. Several physicians advised me to use an electric battery. We got one and I used it for some time before I commenced using the pills, and continued it for awhile after I began using them, but I found out I could get along as well without it and just depended on the pills.

"When I commenced using them I was so discouraged that I had given up the thought of ever being any better, as after every attack I was so much weaker and more helpless. It seems almost a miracle to me that after trying so many remedies that your medicine should have helped me so much. I can now walk quite a distance without getting very tired, and the bunch on my back is much smaller than it was.

"I can furnish plenty of proof that these statements are all true from friends who have seen me suffer and know just how helpless I was when I commenced using your medicine. I have used in all thirty-two boxes. I am perfectly willing to tell what has helped me and have recommended your pills to several persons who are now using them. I do not believe I would have been allve now had it not been for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for they helped me when everything else failed. "Respectfully,

"Mrs. J. S. Flowers." Sworn and subscribed to before me this 19th day of October, A. D. 1895. Dwight Warren, Notary Public,

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical illa, which vanish before proper efforts-gentle efforts-pleasant effortsrightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge, that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs. promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxatives or other remedies are then not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.
