CASS.
Cass church was nearly filled Sunday evening.

Which hand should a lady remove her glove from first? The one with the ring.

This is an old fashioned April and we hope a good old fashioned season will follow.

The funeral of Mrs. Dodge occurred Saturday. Her remains were brought to Cass cemetery.

Those who attended the lecture Saturday evening, given by Mr. Matsura, of Tokio, Japan, enjoyed something out of common. The pictures were well chosen and though not so plain perhaps as some, yet the lecture was excellent and altogether they made a pleasant and profitable evening for those present. On Sunday during the session of the Sunday school, Mr. Matsura gave a short talk to the children, and in the evening he preached from the words; "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature." He outlined the foundation principle of Buddhism and Confucianism and contrasted them with those of Christianity. The intelligence displayed in his discourse proves how great is the need of sending missionaries and how much is being done by them.
