CLOUDBURST SWEEPS A NEW MEXICO CANON.

Loss of Life Is Thought to Be Large-More Than Twenty Miners Were in the Path of the Flood - Property Loss Is Heavy.

A cloudburst struck the town of Mogollon, N. M., about 4 p. m. Wednesday, leaving death and destruction behind. John Knight, a miner who resided at Georgetown, was drowned in his cabin. Several others are reported missing, but so far only two bodies, those of Knight and an unknown Mexican, have been recovered. These were found in a field about six miles below here. About 100 families have been rendered homeless and 30 houses have been washed away. The property of the Colonial Mining Comgany, of Boston, Mass., has suffered to a large extent, the assay office, millhouse, powder house and blacksmith shop being washed away. It is feared the mine is filled with mud and water. The manager and assayers had a narrow escape being assisted to the bank by means of

for Governor at Decatur. At the final session of the national party Illinois state convention at Decatur Thursday the "broadgauge" platform adopted at Pittsburg was indorsed, and the effort to cause the Illianis prohibitionists to fuse with the "narrow-gauge" prohibitionists proved a failure. The following state ticket was nominated:

Governor, Isaac Wiggs, Chicago; lieutenant-governor, A. C. Allen, Murphysboro; secretary of state, L. G. Spencer, Chicago; auditor, J. A. Hoopes, Ipava: treasurer, A. L. Scott, Orangeville; attorney-general, G. A. Gordon, Campbell Hill; university trustees Mary E. Metzger, Moline; Mrs. Eliza J Adams, Quincy; and Mrs. J. D. Collins, Vandalia; United States senator, Daniel R. Sheen, Peoria; electors-atlarge, W. E. Mann, Decatur; J. W. Wells, Chicago.

Money was pledged to pay campaign expenses. In the afternoon C. E. Bentley, nominee for president, addressed the convention. He addressed a massmeeting at night at the tabernacle, taking up each plank of the national party.

THE TRADE REVIEW.

EXPORTS OF MERCHANDISE WELL MAINTAINED.

Corn Prices Still Low-Dun's Review Thinks It Should Be Put Into Hogs -Duliness Continues in Iron and Steel.

R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says:

"Political events of the week had no definite influence upon business prospects, for the phenomenal variations in sterling exchange and the beginning of imports of gold may be fairly attributed to the accumulating excess of merchandise exports over imports, to which attention has been repeatedly called.

"Exports from New York for the past two weeks have been 20 per cent larger and imports here 21 per cent smaller than last year. The rapid movement of grain and the unusually early marketing of cotton tend strongly to aid the banking syndicate which has undertaken to regulate foreign exchange.

"Speculation has advanced wheat over 1 cent during the week, corn a small fraction, and cotton % of a cent, the principal motive power being reports of injury to growing crops. As tefore, the unfavorable accounts respecting wheat are in some measure discredited by the continued movement from the farms.

"Western receipts have been 10,697,-137 in the two weeks, against 6,759,363 bushels last year. With prices 8 cents lower than last year, such a movement cannot be interpreted as a sign of deficient yield.

"The Atlantic exports for the same weeks have been, flour included, 4,-892,660 bushels, against 2,995,233 last year, and while the increase is encouraging, it scarcely corresponds with current accounts of deficient yield in some foreign countries.

"The movement of corn continued heavy, although the price is still so low that one wonders why the product is put into cars instead of into hoge.

"The alarm about the destruction of cotton has been most vigorously worked here and abroad, and has readily raised the price, although it is yet to be seen whether the yield has been so far diminished as to warrant a price nearly 1 cent higher than a year ago.

"Some additional heavy failures in the lumber trade call attention to the continuing depression, which appears to result, at least in part, from expectations entertained by many that the unlimited increase in new buildings during the past year or two would be permanent.

"The iron and steel manufacture is the only continued depression to report, and Bessemer pig has sold at $10.40 at Pittsburg, while Southern iron is offered at prices equivalent to $10 at New of the Reichsanzeiger that Emperor | York, and nearly all finished products William desires a bill to be drawn up are being sold below the current quotations.

duction, the Illinois Steel company havmeasure along the lines of the recent | ing only seven of its seventeen furnaces speeches of Prince Hohenlohe indicates at work, but in spite of this the supply of finished products appears to "The one bright spot is the sale of 9,000 tone of steel rails to Japan, for

There is rapid curtailment of prorefitting railways in that country. which makes an aggregate of 45,000 tons exported during the year. "Nothing encouraging can be said regarding the woolen manufacture, and the demand for goods, even at recent reductions in prices, is still disappoint-ingly small. Sales of wool at the three chief markets have been only 7,670,000 pounds in three weeks, against 16,847,-200 last year, and 23,361,400 in the same weeks of 1892. "A heavy auction sale of cotton goods brought prices which were considered quite encouraging, and the current demand is fairly maintained, although the mills are not inclined to make large contracts for the future in view of the rise in raw material. In general, the work in view for the textile branches does not appear to have increased."

Watson Will Take the S: nmp. It is announced that Tom Watson, the populist candidate for vice-president, will begin his speaking tour at Dallas, Tex., on Labor day, Sept. 7. and from that time forward would be on the stump until election day. From Dallas Mr. Watson will go through the northwest as far as Nebraska, returning by way of Mississ ppi and Arkansas, and thence to Georgia, where he will remain until Georgia's early election. After that Mr. Watson will again enter the northwest, going as far as Idaho and Washington. He will come east in time to give some atten-
