Ed. Wootton has the heaviest piece and highest corn field in this part of the county. A subseriber writes that he inspected the crop upon invitation of Mr. Weotton, and says that it is the finest crop he has seen this year. The corn was raised on clover sod, plowed to a good depth last fall, and stands so thick on the ground that it is difficult to cross the rows on foot.

A republican rally will be held to-night at Lisle at which time Judge Brown of Wheaton will speak. The judge is a forceful speaker, a logical reasoner, a ready debater, and leaves both those who agree and those who differ with his views in a good humor. Capt. and J. W. Rogers, M. Slusser, Guy L., Bush, Lon Courtright and Hugh M., White, will go from here accompanied by the McKinley glee club.

An empty house and barn belonging to a Mr. Patrick of Chicago, burned in Gostyn last night. The fire was discovered by Officer Kearney about 2:30 o'clock this morning who gave the alarm. A. E. > Last week the associate editor visited Edgemont, So. Dak., and Alliance, Nebraska, on a sad mission. He was received with a hearty welcome and sympathizing hearts by the good people of those cities, and he will never forget their kindness and tender solicitude towards the sorrow-stricken parents and sisters of the late Adelbert Graham, whose tragic death occured while at his post of duty at Edgement. The deceased had resided in the two places about a year—was universally loved and respected and left a record there which will never be forgotten by the people, and of which his friends and relatives will ever cherish with fond recollections.

FIFTEEN YEAR WEDDING BELLS.

About one hundred of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Holt, gathered at their home Tuesday evening, Sept. 1st, to assist them in celebrating the fifteenth anniversary of their marriage. The outside of the house was gaily decorated with Japanese lanters, while inside the abundance of flowers filled the air with their fragrance.

The evening was very pleasantly passed with games and music. About 10:30 the wedding march was started, the gay laughter and conversation was hushed as the bridal party marched into the room in single file the groomsman/leading, followed by the groom, bride and bridesmaides respectfully.
