has been 1.12 cents for the week and 10 cents since Sept. 2, and is mainly, due to short crops abroad and foreign demand. Atlantic exports for the quarter ending with September, flour included, were 23,195,214 bushels, against 14,320,020 last year; the outgo of wheat separated nearly doubled, in spite of higher prices. No lack of visible domestic supply causes or supports the advance, and western receipts for the exact quarter were 57,742,941 bushels, against 43,790,499 bushels last year. Cotton has weakened after its sud-

Hig Meeting of the Methodist Ministers at Freeport. III.

The fifty-seventh annual ression of he Rock River conference was opened at Freeport, Ill., Wednesday. The conference was opened by a sacramental service, conducted by Bishop Andrews, assisted by six presiding elders. The Rev. W. J. Richards was re-elected secretary. The Rev. F. F. Farmilee was re-elected statistical secretary. The Rev. J. T. Bell was renominated for treasurer for the eighth time, but declined on account of ill-health, and he nominated the Rev. A. T. Horn, who was unanimously elected.

Dr. Lewis Curts, senior agent of the book concern, made his report, showing the present capital to be $3,492,000, He congratulated the conference on the good condition of the literary department, and ended by presenting it with a draft for $2,479, its share of the profits from the book concern.

The reports of presiding elders and individual ministers were next taken up. Elder Clark of the Dixon district and Presiding Elder Sweet of Freeport reported their districts to be in excellent condition.

The report of the board of stewards recommends that all of the amount of the draft from the book concern be turned into the necessitous fund instead of being divided, as is customary. 75 per cent to that and 25 per cent to the annuity fund. It was adopted. A motion was made that the assessment of $5 per minister, which had been paid into the annunity fund, be returned. The matter was referred to the board of stewards to report.
