WILL VISIT DOWNERS GROVE ON NEXT SATURDAY AFTERNOOM.

EX-GOYERNORS

John R. Tanner, John C. Smith, Lyman B. Hay and Other Preminent Men Will Make Short Speeches Favoring Ropublican Principles at 5:55 p. m.

Downers Grove will be honored next Saturday afternoon by the presence of ex-Governors Cullom, Oglesby, Baveridge, Hamilton and Fifer, accompanied by ex-Lieutenant governor Lyman B. Ray and Hon. John R. Tanner.

Their special train will arrive late in the afternoon about 6 o'clock It will be side-tracked and remain for thirty minutes, and the demonstration arranged for in honor of the noted men will be in the nature of a tremendous and hearty ovation.

The train is equipped with a cannon from which salutes will be fired. The Downers Grove McKinley club will come them to our midst. The cordial turn out, as will also the club from Gostyn, while many are expected from have been gratifying to them. Adthe surrounding country. There will be such speaking as the limited time of the stop will allow, the train proceeding from here to Chicago, where a great demonstration will take place in the evening.

SENATOR FULLER'S SPEECH.

An Excellent Exposition of the Principles of Republicanism.

Senator Chas. Fuller of Belvidere, ad dressed the citizens of Downers Grove at the Auditorium last Saturday evening. Owing to the coldness of the weather, the crowd was not so large as usual, but they showed their thorough the various churches, the prospects for appreciation of the senator's remarks by their close attention and hearty applause. At the outsett he said that he had no set speech to offer the audience but would simply present matters as they occurred to him, in plain straightforward language. From that the senator spoke on for more than an hour touching upon the vital points in the currency question, and showing up the dishonest propositions of the free silver champion. He showed that the "honest dollar," so loudly clamored for by Bryan, was no other than our present gold standard which is the "same yesterday, today and forever." Altogether his speech over the Pennsylvania road. Their ficial results of the sound financial ately decorated, being attached to the policy of the party who claim Wm. McKinley as their leader.

POLISH REPUBLICAN MEETING.

Next Friday evening, October 23d, the Kosciuszko Polish McKinley ctub will hold a rally at Gostyn and will listen to a speech by the Hon. M.
