YOUR DUTY NEXT TUESDAY.

But five days remain of the campaign supposedly upon an economic issue, really a campaign upon whose results depend the vital principles of republican government and the prosperity of the nation.

BASE MISREPRESENTATION.

The popocrats here are trying to make political capital out of what they term the hypocritical loyalty of the republican party to the American flag, and are censuring the directors of the Farmers and Merchants bank for not allowing the stars and stripes to be suspended from the building.

them permission to suspend the nation's flag, and sought to arouse sympathy for their cause and strengthen their side of the story by actually fraudulently displaying 'Old Glory' without any embellishments.

POPCROATIC FORGERIES RUN DOWN.

In its desperation over the inevitable fate which stares Bryan in the face the popocratic committee at headquarters is letting loose a flood of forgeries of the most audacious character. The list began with an "authorized statement" from the Vatican that the Pope disapproved Archbishop Ireland's letter, which statement is stamped as a lie by the Archbishop and by Mgr. Martinelli, the Pope's representative in this country.

Col. Wm. R. Morrison, one of the foremost leaders of democracy, in an open letter published last Thursday, directly reiterates the charges of Mr. Forman against John P. Altgeld, and says his administration has been the most corrupt and disreputable.
