

Aunt Martha did not like the spirit of criticism which her nephew had shown of late about reconciling statements of the Holy Scripture. She spoke up in a quick way and said, "Miss

Rhoda hasn't gone to the town-house points that way," replied Arthur.

aged."

"No; but the finger on the signboard

"It is dreadful for old people to be obliged to give up their home and old associations and go 'where they would not," said Mrs. Bates, "Young folks can bear changes—many really enjoy them-but it is different with the Aunt Martha had not married-her acquaintances called her "a maiden lady." It was not because she never had opportunities to marry, she told her nephews and nieces, but because she loved them too well to break her home ties with them. It had long ago been settled that the Bates family could not do without Aunt Martha, and Aunt Martha could not get along without them. "How dreadful it must be."

was her thought that night, "to have wrote a letter to her brother John,

who lived in the city. She told him of Miss Rhoda; what a patient, faithful life hers had been, and now, just as nearing the end of the journey, she must be forced to give up her home and go to the town-house. Then she added, "John, you and I must pay off that mortgage, and give Miss Rhoda the home for her life. We are able:

let us be wilfing to do it. What a joyous Christmas we shall have if we do this! Miss Rhoda must have the measure meted out to her that she has

The result was that Brother John who was quite apt to act on sister

Martha's suggestions, joined her in the labor of love for her neighbor. When

Miss Martha went over to see Miss

Rhoda, a short time before the foreclosure of the mortgage, she found her looking over her things she could not carry many with her; for the room was small she expected to occupy. But there was this little memento and that gift with sweet memories associated

THE LORD STAYED HIS HAND.

about them which made it a hard and her copy of "Daily Food" lying in Con-marks Were on Miss Rhoda's

t her age, it will be a ing and mending for the loved ones meted out to others."

no lovelight in one's life."

MISS RHODA'S MEASURE.

Miss Rhoda sat in the west doorway. Her face was turned toward the sweet sky, radiant with its rays of red and rolden light: it was nature's "withdrawing season." At Miss Rhoda's right was a field of stubble from which the wheat had been harvested. At her left the corn still stood, like Indian wigwams, all over the field, waiting for the husking time. At her feet the maple leaves, so gorgeons in their autumnal plaids, were falling. Here and there the note of a stray bird which has always been in some good work, had tarried later than its fellows fell | and has had a kind word for everyupon her ear. There was a chill in the body." air; the wind was rising, and it stirred the locks of silvery hair which usually lay with such calm precision about Miss Rhoda's face. She folded ber black hawl closer about her shoulders, but still she lingered.

There was no kindly voice to warn her of the dangers that might come from longer exposure. No loved form to come to the door and say, "Come in, the air is chill and the fire is serning brightly. It is lonely in the ruom without you." Miss Rhoda was alone in the world; she had outlived ne neurest and dearest to her.

In the afterglow of the lives of those a had belonged to her in the old me aw et memories lighted up the ding day, and as she looked intently the western sky she seemed to see vision of the pearly gates, behind whose portals those loved ones were welling. Watching the red and gold light fade away, and the darkness ather, she, like Christian, "fell siek" the glimpse of the glories and rished she could be among them.

HE'S TOO CLOSE-FISTED.

he she turned and went into the ouse, there was a look on her face which if an artist had caught it at that oment, might have inspired him to mint a picture and call it Renuncia-The most notable thing after ne has grown old in the fact of renciation. But in some lives, like at of Miss Rhods, it is a more deep-Ir felt fact than in others.

"I was passing Miss Rhoda's house at at sunset to-night, and I saw her at her west door," said Mr. ates, as he sat down at the supper hie "I know she was trying to work the kinks and knots about that ortgage on her place. But old Tom er will foreclose when the time She can't expect any mercy him; he is too close-fisted for me!" exclaimed Miss Martha what will become of her." till have to go to the townsuppose. It will be very hard Mias Rhoda was always a woman," her brother re-free all that woman has done other folks when they were in exclaimed Mrs. Bates. "Think took in those Butler chilkept them after their mother and how she kept that young man too sick to work all winter. mother couldn't have done matter to decide what to take and what bim. I deciare if Miss Rhoda | to give up. There was the mother's old up her place and go on workbasket, once so full of the make Hible say, With what it, and father's well-thumbed Bible, meet it shall be measured with here and there words of comfort asked Arthur, the tall I and explanation written on the marter's right. "How do | gins—those of course must go with at phasage of scripture her.

Tent-marks were on Miss Rhoda's prospects of going | Tear-marks were on Miss Rhoda's All my long life face as she offered the mother's rocker

to move. It's something I never did FROM before, and it's sort of trying. But I'm thankful I don't feel so unrecouciled and unhappy about it as I thought | PROCEEDINGS IN NATIONAL I should when I first made up my mind that there was nothing else I could do. My eyes are so poor I can't sew any more. I say with John Bunyan, 'Perhaps my way to heaven lies through this very valley. It is just as near the town-house, heaven is, as it is to my old home here, but then-well, I won't say one word against the Lord's dispensations. The Lord keepeth the feet of his children. If this is his way for me to walk, I hope he will give me strength to follow without faltering step."

"But, my dear Miss Rhoda, it is not going to be the Lord's will for you to leave your old home; you are to stay in it as long as you live."

When Miss Martha told her how her home had been secured to her, she exclaimed. "I never thought before how Abraham must have felt when he was ready to sacrifice Isaac and the Lord stayed his hand!"

It was Arthur who planned a housewarming for Mise Rhoda on Christmas eve. The young men and young women of the church and town filled her woodshed with wood and coal, and her cupboard-shelves with things needful for the necessities of the body. The fathers and mothers joined in the work of love, and there was never such a thorough house-warming done in that locality before. A new light came into Mies Rhoda's face that Christmastide. It was lovelight-she was not alone in the world any longer; she belonged to her good neighbors, and they belonged to her.

When the Christmas bells rang in the church belfry on Christmas morning the people heard them with gladness, and thanked the Lord that they had been enabled to help return Miss Rhoda's measure running over full.

CHRISTMAS RAPPINGS.

ing fair-Your wandering boy, that you though was lost-Say, wouldn't you open, Claire?

If a habe should rap at your old heart

On the Christmas morning fair. Then Miss Martha sat down and To give you a kiss or a hug or two. Say, wouldn't you open, Claire?

If a God should rap at your old heart

On the Christmas morning fair, To give you a Son with a heavenly Say, wouldn't you open, Claire?

Christmas Kindnesses.

At this season of the year, remember that it is your duty as children, and also your privilege, to glorify God, to promote peace, and to extend good will to those around you. You may promote the blessing of peace on earth by frankly forgiving those who may grieve or annoy you, by persuading enemies to be reconciled to each other, and by daily prayer to God to preserve the nations of the earth from the deadly horrors of war. And you may in a great many ways show good will to men. Are there not poor people within a short walk of your own door who will receive no Christmas cards, no nice presents of food or good clothing. whose children have no nice toys or picture books, of which some of you have such an abundance that you scarcely know where to find room for? Christian Herald.

What Makes a Happy Christmas,

It does not require much money, nor indeed any money, to make a happy home circle on Christmas. The chief thing is a warm and merry heart. It will devise ways and means for filling the home with cheer, joy and gladness. A little invention, a little effort, and much love will give the day a hale brighter than tinsel and gold. God did not require extra material to paint every tree and bush in all this region a crystal whiteness the other hight. He used only a little moisture and a little cold, and in the morning men exclaimed in wonder, "What beauty!" So the simple things beautify and glorify the home, and make holidays bright with joys beyond the purchase of money. - Michigan Christian Advocate.

Christmas gifts for thee, Fair and free! Precious things from the heavenly

Filling thy casket more and more; Golden love in divinest chain, That never can be untwined again livery carols of joy that swell stest of all in the heart's lone

WASHINGTON

HOUSE AND SENATE.

Condensed Summary of the Work Accomplished by the Legislators in the Upper and Lower House for the Past

Wednesday, Dec. 9.

Washington, Dec. 10.-The house held a three hours session and passed a dozen bills of minor importance. The senate by the decisive vote of 35 to 21, adopted a motion to take up the Dingley tariff bill. Three sets of vigorous resolutions for Cuban independence were introduced. They came from Mr. Cameron of Penusylvania, Mr. Mills of Texas and Mr. Call o Florida, and while differing in terms, breathe the same spirit of recognition by the United States of Cuban independence.

Thursday, Dec. 10.

Thursday, Dec. 10.—In the house two bills were passed during the four-hour session. One was to secure to musical compositions the same measure of protection under the copyright law as i now afforded productions of strictly dramatic character. A bill to prohibit the sale of liquor in the capitol building was also passed. A bill advocated by the delegates from the territories to modify the law forfeiting alien ownership of lands in the territories so as to give them the right to acquire under mortgage and to hold for ten years real property was defeated.

Senator Cullom made a long and able speech in the senate in favor of the | A Washington special to the New intervention of the United States in the York World says: "President Cleveceded his speech with the following sultan of Turkey. An emphatic proand house of representatives. That the government against the language used mination of Spanish control of the respecting the massacre of the Armenthose islands and to the people of the the empire."

United States." Mr. Call (dem., Fla.) followed Mr. Cullom, addressing himhelf to his resolution introduced Wednesday for the recognition of Cuban independence.

Friday, Dec. 11.

Friday was private bill day in the house, and seven war claims, carrying an aggregate of $18,407, were favorably acted upon by the committee of the whole. The house at 5 o'clock took a recess until 8 o'clock, the evening session beleng devoted to the consideration of private pension bills.

After putting the Lodge immigration bill over as unfinished business, the senate adjourned until Monday.

Monday, Dec. 14.

Monday, Dec. 14.—Beyond agreeing to a resolution for a two weeks' holiday recess beginning Dec. 22, the proceedings in the house were almost entirely devold of public interest. Mr. Hull (rep., lowa), chairman of the committee on military affairs, reported the army appropriation bill.

Mr. Allen made a speech in the senate protesting against intemperate criticism of populism in Nebraska. Mr. Peffer added a defense of Kansas against the attacks prevalent in the east that contract liabilities were being violated. He paid a high tribute to the integrity of his state. Senator Chandler spoke against the resolution for the election of United States, senators by popular vote, and Mr. Mitchell (rep., Ore.) supported it.

SULTAN FEELS SORE.

Says President Cleveland Must at Once A pologize.

conflict with Spain in Cuba. He pre- land has been called to account by the resolution: "Resolved, by the senate | test made Thursday by the Turkish extinction of Spanish title and the ter- in the President's message to congress islands at the gateway of the Gulf of lans and the general conduct of the Mexico are necessary to the welfare of government toward the Christians in

CEN. MACEO DIES ON THE FIELD OF GLORY.

in battle in Cuba the other day, was rondack. A Spanish man-of-war purwithout question the most brilliant sued the steamer for eight hours, and figure of the present revolution. He at last the leaders were compelled to effected a landing at Certe de Baran- land on Fortune Island, one of the coa on March 31. With him were West Indies. Thence Maceo and the Flor Crombet and a number of officers, other leaders made their way to Cuba. Maceo had been a member of Gen. In the great raid across the island, led Gomez's staff during the ten years' by Maximo Gomez in 1895, Maceo was war from 1863 to 1878 and commanded his chief coadjutor, and when Captainlarge bodies of troops in the Province General Campos had finally receded of Santiago de Cuba, in which prov- with his headquarters to the city of ince his family had lived and where he Havana, Maceo led a daring raid into owned a large plantation. After the the fertile province of Pinar del Rio, ten years' war Maceo traveled in Cen- where he devastated the great Vuelta tral America, attempting to raise a Abajo tobacco district, and raised the large force to invade Cuba and con- whole province in revolt against Spain. test the sovereignty of Spain. In 1886 There he remained, with the Spanish he went to Hayti to try to get assist- authorities in the province practically ance for an invasion of Cuba, but he overturned. Time and again reports was driven out and lived for a long have been received from Cuba of his time in retirement in Jamaica and defeat and rout, his death in action, or after that he returned to Cuba and his suicide, always to be refuted by lived quietly on his plantation in the his later activities. There is no doubt eastern province, where he was popu- that many people will doubt the aular. In 1890 he was driven out of thenticity of the report now received Cuba and went to New York. At the of his death, though no previous retime of the present outbreak he was in port has given such exact details of the Florida, and he joined a large expedi- circumstances of his death or the facts tion which set out from Fort Limon of identification.

Gen. Autonio Macco, who was killed in March, 1835, on the steamer Adl-

Miss Collins a Kentucky Girl.

Miss May Collins, who, with S. P. free though: congress, was found dead of D. T. C. Collins of Midway, Ky. She was a graduate of Daughters' college of Harrodsburg. Her age was 21 years.

Non-Partison W. C. T. U. The second session of the seventh annual convention of Non-Partisan Woman's Christian Temperance union met at Washington Friday. The treas-ments $2,605.

Extra Session Sure. It can be safely predicted that the Fifty-fifth congress will meet in extra session about March 15 and certainly not later than March 22. The first date is the more probable, as it is the third Monday in the month and allows ten days after the inauguration for the call.

Has No Cabinet Ambitions. H. H. Kohlsaat of Chicago, who has been mentioned as a possible member of the McKinley cabinet, says he could not accept such a place if it were offered to him.

To Fight for Cuba.

A company of twenty young men Putnam of Chicago, president of the went south Sunday night over the IHinois Central railroad, bound for New in Boston Saturday, was the daughter | Orleans. There they were joined by sixty others from various parts of the United States, and the entire party will ship for Cuba on the first outgoing vessel and will join the insurgents.

Want Mulct Law Repealed.

A meeting of the temperance people of Iowa has been called in Des Moines Dec. 29, having for its end the repeal urer's report showed the receipts to of the present mulct law and the subhave been $2,636, and the disburse- mission to a popular vote of the prohibition question, as was done in 1882

Want the Date Changed.

The committee having in charge the arrangements for the coming monetary conference are being appealed to from many sections of the country to change the date from Jan. 12 to some later

Joseph Choate for Senator. Joseph H. Choate has written a letter announcing that he will be a candidate for election to the United States senate to succeed David B. Hill of New # sturns to the heart of the victim lains of rheumatism, dyspepsis, grb, when the blood is curiched a Sarsaparilla The One True Blood Purifier. All Druggists. Hood's Pills are the best after-dinner

Housekeeper-Goodness, what have you broken now?

Little Help-A cup, mum. Housekeeper-And this morning you broke a saucer!

Little Help-Yes'm; but I h'aint broke a plate yet.

PARMER WANTED.

In every township, 3 days a week during winter, to distribute samples, collect names of sick people and work up trade for their druggists on the 3 great family remedies: Dr. Kay's Renovator, Dr. Kay's Lung Balm, and Kidneykura. Good pay to man or woman. Send for booklet and terms. Dr. B. J. Kay Medical Co., western office, Omaha, Neb.

The Lawyers of the United States. The allowance of lawyers to population in the United States is rather more liberal than that of preachers. There are 89,422 men and 208 women engaged in the legal profession, and supposing each to have an average of ten suits on hand, the litigation going on at one time in the United States would foot up 896,300 cases.

Lilly Lost Her Hair.

A celluloid comb worn by Miss Lilly Henderson of Portsmouth, Ohio, came in contact with a gas jet, flamed up, and burned every hair from her head. leaving her entire scalp blackened and blistered.

BRAVE SPIRITS BROKEN.

How often women wake up in the morning cheerful and happy, determined to do so much before the day ends, and yet:-Before the morning is very old, the dreadful BACK-ACHE appears, the brave spirit sinks back in affright; no matter how hard she struggles, the "clutch" is upon her, she fails add noge couch, erying -" Why What can I Lycia E. Pinkham's "Teretable Commonind" will s'op the torture and restore courage.

All such pains come from a deranged uterus. Trouble in the womb blots out the light of the sun at midday to a vast number of women.

Be advised-do as many others have done and are doing-procure Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and commence without delay to realize the relief it is sure to bring you.

49 YEARS SUFFERER.

DEAR SIRS: -- Am 47 years old and began taking your medicine last April for Rhenmatism, which I have had or to years, also for a weak heart. Since taking Drops" the Rhenmasism has all disappeared, the stiffness is gone from my joints, and my heart never misses a best. I am today a well, strong woman, and I owe it to "5 Drops." I only wish I could sound my bugle of praise land erough to be heard all over the world, and could convince every one that "5 Drope is all you claim it to be and more per bottle. Sample, prepaid, by mail, 25 cents.

Swanca Shemestic Care Co., 127 learners St., Chicago, Ill.

WOMANHOOD TO SERVE suffering women how to guard against danger ous surgical operations and quack ireatme the American Association of Physicia passed a resolution to distribute a life book on female diseases. "Womanhood'y plains all diseases and irregularities pe to woman and gives the best methods of he treatment. Sent free for stamp to par postage Address Eleanor Kendall.

816 North 25th St., South Omaha, Nel

Patent." O'FARRELL & SON, Washington, D. C.

OPIUM STEPPEN DRUNKENNESS Dr. Kay's Lung Balm for coughs, colds BED-WETTING CURED OR MO PAY.

