Mr. Geo. L. Smith, of the Geo. L. Smith Mangle Co., Louisville, Ky., writes Feb. 28, 1894: "For about a year I was a terrible sufferer from heart trouble, which got so bad I was obliged to sit up in bed to get my breath. I had to abandon business and could hardly crawl around. My friend, Mr. Julius C. Voght, one of our leading pharmacists, asked me to try Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. I had used little more than a bottle when the pain ceased and palpitations entirely disappeared. I have not had the slightest trouble since, and today I am attending to business as regularly as ever."

The Chicago Chronicle
IS FIRST OF ALL
A GREAT NEWSPAPER.

INCIDENTALLY it is an advocate of democracy, with no leaning toward populism or statism. The triumph of the republican party in the recent presidential election, as a result of the disruption of the democracy, devolves upon the latter the duty of reconciliation and reorganization on the lines of their own, and not some other party's, faith. To promote genuine democracy, to discontinue populism, and to resist the monopolistic tendencies of republicanism will be the political mission of THE CHRONICLE in the future as it has been in the past.

As a newspaper THE CHRONICLE will continue to be comprehensive and authoritative, sparing neither labor nor expense to make its reports of all noteworthy events of superior excellence, and covering exhaustively the entire field of news, discovery, invention, industry and progress.

For one cent a day every family within five hundred miles of Chicago may have on its day its publication a copy of a great daily newspaper, costing thousands of dollars to produce—a miracle of cheapness and value combined.
