been given up on account of diphtheria. The Lisle mill is in running order again, much to the accommodation of

WHEATON.

On December 8, Charles Fabbri and Miss Laura Coffery, of Chicago, were married by Justice DeWolf who has the matrimonial department of his office always in session and kisses the bride while the groom waits.

So far as wearing qualities are concerned, they would have been excellent, but defeated the object of the roof by not being water tight.

When the building of the first railroad which passed through Naperville was agitated, the farmers were all against it, for, said they, when a train passes, our hired men will stop in their work and watch the moving train until it gets out of sight. The question now being agitated in Wheaton is whether we should have a clock in the new court house tower, a chime of bells, or both, Superintendent Blodgett was informed that a certain party here in Wheaton, who did not want his name known, would pay for a chime of bells if the committee would allow him to place them. Another party is soliciting subscriptions for a clock, and why we should not have both is in evidence. A few business men are opposed to the clock for fear their clerks would put in more time running out and looking to see what time it was, than they would put in in the store.

Colville has added a fine line of glove and mittens to his stock of goods. He purchased direct from the factory and a therefore enabled to dispose of them at prices that are remarkably low, &
