CONCERNING STREET IMPROVEMENTS.

The spectacle of the North side members of the board of trustees endeavoring to frustrate the plans of the other members of the board to improve Maple avenue, east of Main street, by threats and abusive language, is to say the least very ill timed.

The members of the board from the South side, and also Mr. Chilvers, the chairman of the street and alley committee from the North side, have long realized the necessity of making some substantial improvements on Main street and Maple avenue.

Then too, it is entirely owing to the efforts of Trustees Hodge and Werten that there is the present balance of available cash in the street and alley fund.

Personal feeling and sectional prejudices should be put aside in this matter, and the money invested where it will do the most good, and that is in giving Main street and Maple avenue the improvement so greatly needed.

MR. HOPKINS IN CONGRESS.

THE SUPREME COURT AT SPRINGFIELD.

The long contest over the consolidation of the supreme court of Illinois has at last been ended by locating it at the state capital, instead of at Ottawa.

ciary in your insurance policy, if it is issued by a fraternal society, is on the probate calendar in Duquoin. A husband just before his death willed his wife all his property including his policy of insurance.

Judge Maxwell, a populist congressman from Nebraska, has introduced an elaborate bill transferring all the postmaster ships in the United States from the list of executive offices and providing that hereafter all postmasters shall be elected by the people.

While some democratic orators and editors are claiming that the Dingley bill will produce too much revenue, there are others who are shrieking that the new tariff bill based on the McKinley law will not produce a sufficient revenue.

By the co-operation of the legislatures of Wisconsin and Illinois it is hoped that the two states will soon enjoy one of the most notable connections in the way of a boulevard, extending from Chicago to Green Bay.
