Provisions of the Pact Signed and Sent to the Sonate.

The following is the text of the Hawallan treaty sent to the senate last

The United States of America and the Republic of Hawaii, in view of the natural dependence of the Hawaiian Islands upon the United States, of their geographical proximity thereto, of the preponderant share acquired by the United States and its citizezns in the industries and trade of said islands. and of the expressed desire of the government of the Republic of Hawaii that those islands should be incorporated into the United States as an integral part thereof and under its sovereignty, have determined to accomplish by treaty an object so important to their mutual and permanent welfare. To this end the government shall continue to pay the high contracting parties have conferred | interest on said debt. full power and authority upon their respectively appointed plenipotentiaries, to-wit: The President of the United States; John Sherman, secretary of state, the United States. The President of the Republic of Hawaii; Franicis March Hatch, Lorrin A. Thurston and William A. Kinney.

ARTICLE L The Republic of Hawaii hereby cedes absolutely and without reserve to the United States of America all rights of sovereignty of whatsoever kind in and over the Hawaiian Islands and their dependencies; and it is agreed that all the territory of and appertaining to the Republic of Hawaii is hereby annexed to the United States of America under the name of Territory of Hawaii.

ARTICLE II. The Republic of Hawati also cedes and hereby transfers to the United States public, government or crown lands, public buildings or edifices, ports, harbors, military equipments and all other public property, of every kind and description, belonging to the governgether with every right and appur sible. tenance thereunto appertaining. The existing laws of the United States reto such lands in the Hawailan Islands, seals. but the congress of the United States shall enact special laws for their management and disposition; provided, that all revenue from or proceeds of seven. the same, except as regards such part thereof as may be used or occupied for the civil, military or naval purposes of the United States or may be assigned for the use of the local government, shall be used solely for the benefit of the inhabitants of the Hawaiian Islands for educational and other public purposes. ARTICLE III.

Until congress shall provide for the government of such islands all the civil, judicial and military powers exercised by the officers of the existing government in said islands shall be vested in such person or persons, and shall be exercised in such a manner as the president of the United States shall direct, and the President shall have power to remove said officers and fill the vacancies so occasioned. The existing treaties of the Hawatian Islands with foreign nations shall forthwith cease and determine, being replaced by such treaties as may exist or as may be hereafter concluded between the United States and such foreign nations. The municipal legislation of the Hawaiian Islands, not enacted for the fulfillment of the treaties so extinguished, and not inconsistent with this treaty nor contrary to the constitution of the United States, nor to any existing treaty of the United States, shall remain in force until the congress of the United States shall otherwise determine. Until legislation shall be enacted extending the United States customs laws and regulations to the Hawaiian Islands, the existing customs relations of the Hawaiian Islands with the United States and other countries shall remain unchanged. ARTICLE IV.

The public debt of the Republic of Hawaii, lawfully existing at the date of the exchange of the ratification of this treaty, including the amounts due to the depositors in the Hawaiian Postal Savings Bank, is hereby assumed by the government of the United States: but the liability of the United States shall not exceed $4,000,000. So long. however, as the existing government and the present commercial relations of the Hawaiian Islands are continued, as hereinbefore provided, said ARTICLE V.

RECORD OF MINOR DOINGS OF THE WEEK.

Seven Days' Happenings Condensed-Social, Religious, Political, Criminal, Obituary and Miscellaneous Events from Every Section of the State-

Canton.-A severe storm occurred here. Joe Auld was struck by lightning and instantly killed. Several barns and residences were wrecked. Five boys in one of the barns were rendered unconscious for thirty minutes, and one may die.

Champaign.-Mrs. Nancy Hill, aged 85 years, one of the pioneer citizens of Champaign county, died at her home north Urbana. She had been a resident of the county since 1830 and could tell many interesting stories of her experience with the Indians here.

Springfield.—The board of trustees of the Lincoln home, which consist of the governor, auditor, secretary of state, treasury and superintendent of public instruction, met yesterday and elected Albert E. Edwards of this city custodian of the home. The selection is understood to be pleasing to the old personal friends and admirers of Abraham Lincoln, and especially to members of the Lincoln family.

Joliet.-Judge Dorrance Dibell has been appointed to the Appellate court for the second district of Illinois for a term of three years. The court meets at Ottawa next Monday, and the judge will begin his new duties there on that date. The information came to Judge Dibell yesterday afternoon while he was in the midst of a minor larceny case. The telegram came from Assistant State's Attorney General Hill at Springfield.

While Matthias Decker, a Chicago jeweler, was talking to two prospective customers Tuesday afternoon someone entered the store through a rear door and stole $500 worth of jewelry and diamonds from the trays in a show case. An investigation showed that someone had entered through a rear door and made his escape in the same way. A dozen detectives are now looking for the young men who called on the jeweler.

Batavia. The new Roman Catholic church here was dedicated yesterday by Chancellor Mooney of Chicago, Rev. Father P. A. McLaughlin of St. Mary's high mass of dedication. Rev. Father John Zilla served as deacon, and Rev. Father Feeley as subdeacon. Rev. Father Bangen was master of ceremonies. The sermon was preached by Rev. Father Hodnett of St. Malachi church, Chicago. The new edifice was named Holy Cross church.

Alexander Del Mar, a London economist and writer on political economy. who will make his home in Chicago while studying the economic conditions of the country, iccured before the woman's department of the American Bimetallic union at the Sherman house last week. A business meeting followed the lecture. Meetings will be held each week during the summer. Mr. Del Mar has located at 167 Dearborn street. From there he will issue several of his well-known works on bimetallism.

Monmouth.-The faculty of Monmouth college has completed an important revision in the study course, The studies will be divided into eight groups, physical science, English, htstory, sociology, Greek, Latin, mathematics and biology. A system of electives is instituted for nearly onethird of the whole work. In these groups some subject is made the major and associated with it are minors to a tain the degree of A. B. Seventy weeks' work in the major is required and 285 weeks in regular group. One hundred and thirty-five weeks of electives also is required to win the degree. The old literary course with the degree of B. L. remains unchanged, but with no electives and substitutions in Elgin.-Miss Carrie Bisby, a seamstress in the employ of the llinois northern hospital for the insane, who was shot by her cousin, is still alive and there is some hope of her recovery. The cousin, Charles Bisby of Aurora, called to see the woman and they walked out to one of the summer houses on the grounds. They talked for some ttime, and suddenly Blaby, drawing a revolver, sent two bullets into the woman's cheek, and as she fell to the floor fired a third into her shoulder. He then scaled the fence and escaped in the darkness. Miss Bishy revived and managed to make her way to the hospital, where she received prompt attention. From her story it seems that the cousin is a dissipated and worthless fellow about 21 years old. He had asked her for money to take him to South America and she told him she could not supply him. further he tried to kill her. She is the police of three cities.

A. L. Schimpff, department commander of the Grand of the Republic, was in Chicago Friday making arrangements for the participation of the G. A. R. in the dedication of the Logan monument at Chicago on July 22, which it is proposed, shall be as big a thing for Chicago as was the dedication of the Grant monument for New York. He will issue an order requesting the attendance of all the comrades in the state as far as possible, and also he will invite the G. A. R. in neighboring states to attend. The govrwor has ordered out the state militia.
