FOURTEENTH YEAR.

DOWNERS GROVE, DuPAGE COUNTY, ILLINOIS, THURSDAY, AUGUST 19, 1897.

NUMBER 33.

ELECTRIC LIGHT PETITION.

PRESENTED TO THE VILLAGE BOARD AT ITS SESSION MONDAY.

A LOCAL COMPANY AFTER A FRANCHISE

Bids for Coal Opened—Treasurer's Report Accepted—Stopped Street Sprinkling During Coal Famine.

An adjourned regular meeting of the village board was held Monday evening, to pass upon various matters left from the last meeting. The members were all present except Trustee Mayer.

On account of the scarcity and high price of fuel it was voted to discontinue the use of the street sprinkler until further notice.

The committee in charge of the improvement of the park reported progress and were instructed to complete the work, which will include tilling the ditch adjoining the track south to the outlet near the Dicke factory, and the necessary filling and grading—the material for this work to be furnished by the railroad company. The committee will also ask to have the north milk stand removed further west toward Foote street, to overcome the necessity of teams entering the park. A cement walk around the fountain was also suggested, but no action was taken.

Treasurer Rockhill of the Globe Light and Heat company was present and asked for a renewal of the street lighting contract, which expires Sept. 1st, at the same price as the past year, viz: $1,493.50 for 105 street lamps; or $1.19 per lamp per month. The members of the board were of the opinion that this price was too high and stated to the representative that some reduction should be made. This Mr. Rockhill stated his company could not make. The village has long considered purchasing and operating its own lamps and has approached the Globe Co. in an endeavor to buy the ones now in use here, but these the company does not choose to sell. In view of the facts above set forth no action was taken regarding contract for street lighting for the coming year, pending the investigation by a committee, of another style of street lamp manufactured by a Milwaukee firm. The matter will come up at a meeting next Monday evening.

The village collector's report on the invoice of water taps found in excess of those reported and paid for by consumers was read and referred to water committee, with instructions to collect delinquency or cut water off.

A. R. Heckman and W. A. Tope presented a petition for a twenty year electric light franchise, praying the use of the streets and alleys for the erection of poles, etc., and authorizing the Downers Grove Electric Light and Power company to erect and maintain a plant for commercial and street lighting purposes—arc and incandescent. The petition also asked the village to take from the company twenty 1600 candle power street lamps at a monthly rental of $6 per lamp for a term of five years. In the petition the company grants the village the option of purchasing the plant at the expiration of one year, at absolute cost, with 10 per cent added. Again the village could reserve the right to purchase at the end of twenty years, at a price to be determined by arbitrators. The petition covered many minor points in connection thereto. Inasmuch as the petition for street lamps covered only 20 arc lights, and this number being inadequate to light the village, action was deferred on the petition, and the company was asked to present a new proposition at the next meeting, providing for street lighting by arc lamps, 32 candle power, for business district, and incandescent lamps for residence portion.

Hughes & Gallup were awarded contract for furnishing two cars of Seaton egg coal at $2.00 per ton f. o. b. Downers Grove. Other bids were from Mertz & Moche, and P. A. Lord company. Upon motion the board adjourned to meet Monday evening, Aug. 23rd.

FINISH THE TOURNAMENT.
The semi-finals and finals of the tournament for the suburban championship of the "Q" occurred last Saturday upon the courts of the Hinsdale country tennis club; and they passed very successfully and pleasantly.

In semi-finals, Mundy and Hotchkiss of Riverside, defeated Lewis and Scott, of Hinsdale, in three straight sets, score 6-1, 6-3, 6-4; and Crosby and Ripley, of Hinsdale, defeated Stokes and Brown, of LaGrange, also in straight sets, score 6-3, 6-4, 6-1.

The finals proved an exciting contest, and were won by Crosby and Ripley only after a hard battle, where victory hung many times doubtfully in the scale; score 6-3, 2-6, 6-4, 6-3. This leaves Crosby and Ripley with championship honors.

LOCAL TELEPHONE EXCHANGE.

Chicago Telephone Company Seeks to Establish a Line Here.

D. W. Ingersoll, representing the Chicago Telephone Company, was here Tuesday interesting business men and residents in the establishment of a local telephone exchange in Downers Grove. Provided a sufficient number of subscribers can be secured an office will be established here in the near future. The line contemplated includes a circuit as far south as Lacey post office, in addition to the local village line. The charges for use of the instruments are very reasonable indeed. The rate for business houses is $24 per year and for residences is $18 per year. These rates are for the village subscribers. The rate for patrons living south on the Lacey circuit will be from $40 to $60 per year according to class and location.

The conveniences of a telephone are so numerous, and the need of a local system so long felt, that there is no doubt many will avail themselves of this opportunity to secure a line.

He was brought to Downers Grove and placed under the care of Dr. A. Gourley and McKinney, who amputated the injured member between the ankle and knee and did all in their power to alleviate the suffering of the unfortunate man. He gave his name as Hines and claimed Chicago as his home. He was taken to the almshouse by the authorities, where he will remain until able to maintain himself.

During the past two years the streets of Downers Grove have been liberally sprinkled in summer time, and sometimes they get an overdose. A week ago one afternoon there was a down-pour of rain. When the rain began the driver of Courtwright's wagon was busily sprinkling Main street, and he was so wrapped up in his occupation that he continued steadily at his work, although wet to the skin. He was recalled to himself by the derisive shouts of several small boys, and then he shut off the water and sought shelter.

ROUTING OF THE BOYS' BRIGADE.

Camping Experience of the Young Soldiers on the DuPage River.

The following is an account of the mishaps and mishaps of the Boys' Brigade on their recent outing, as told by one of the members:

"Monday morning, the 9th, the town was aroused by the sound of beating drums and 'tread of marching feet,' and upon looking out of their doors the citizens on Main street saw a beautiful sight. The Boys' Brigade of our town, headed by the two drummers and the captain, were marching down Main street in all their glory. Following came provision wagons, carriages, etc., and the inevitable bicycle. The Boys' Brigade was going camping!

Just outside of town the company was ordered to halt and to climb into Mr. Frank Lacy's hay-rack, which they did at once and proceeded to fight for the softest places. The procession again started, headed by Capt. Mayer, the two lieutenants, Mrs. Mayer, Mrs. Kaiser, and Master Herbert Mayer, in Courtwright's livery rig, and next came Mrs. Kinney's buggy, in which were the Misses Agnes Stewart, Mabel Austin and Emily Henderson. The boys in the hay-rack were having lots of fun when suddenly they were rudely awakened to the fact that it was raining. And it soon rained so hard that the whole party was forced to seek shelter in a barn. Within an hour the party again started and arrived at Warrenville without further mishap. The grounds chosen were about a mile and a quarter northwest of Warrenville, on the banks of the large (?) and beautiful (?) DuPage river. The tent was pitched without much trouble on a 'shady green spot' on the river bank and after the table was constructed and a flag put up in front of the tent luncheon was served. This lengthened out longer and longer without any signs of the boys being tired, and Mrs. Mayer's face lengthened in proportion. At last when the boys ceased from their labors she breathed at once a sigh of regret and relief—regret at the havoc made in her stores and relief because the boys were at last filled. About 3 o'clock the clouds began to gather in the west and soon after a terrific windstorm came on. This came near blowing down the tent and caused some of the boys to wish most heartily for their 'Ma.' But the storm soon blew over and a semblance of peace was restored to the camp. That night there was 'war in camp.' The boys were cutting up and joking while the captain was trying to keep them quiet and go to sleep, and every few minutes the 'First' would growl out, 'Shut up, can't you!' At last all were asleep, when suddenly several boys began 'sawing wood' and 'biting off chunks' enough to raise the dead. It did raise the sleeping who vowed direful vengeance on the innocent culprits who thus disturbed their slumbers.

The next morning while the first lieutenant was sweetly 'pounding his ear' there fell a heavy shower of water (which came not from the sky) upon his upturned face, that rudely awakened him to the cruelty and heartlessness of this world.

Each day we entertained visitors in camp, who were welcomed as heartily as the 'grub' they brought. Wednesday morning we all went wading, ladies as well as the rest. There were no mishaps except when Mrs. Kaiser accidentally fell off the pier, but saved herself from an untimely death by standing up in the water. Wednesday night certain young ladies and gentlemen of the camp decided to stroll down to the town and attend prayer-meeting. Finding there was no meeting to be held that night, they determined to take in the town and paint it a bright crimson. Those who remained in camp, when they saw the glow in the eastern skies, thought that Downers Grove was on fire, but were reassured when the young people returned and explained the phenomenon. The camp was comparatively quiet the last few days except when one of the young men found his feet tied together at midnight when he tried to go out of the tent on guard duty, or when several young soldiers got a ducking in the river; also when an unusually large fish, weighing at least a quarter of a pound, was safely landed. The camp was named Camp Beecher after Mrs. Beecher, whose brother, Mr. Warren, was the founder of Warrenville. Mrs. Beecher lives in Chicago, but has fitted up the Warren residence in Warrenville as an old ladies' home. Here she often comes and spends a day or so. She happened to be there when the boys marched down town one day and seeing them invited them over and treated them royally. The next day she drove out to camp when she told us that she and her brother were the first to camp on that land. But what won the hearts of the boys most of all was when she presented them with 130 ears of sweet corn. Then and there the boys unanimously decided to name the camp after her.

Saturday the boys broke camp, but before they started they gave three cheers for Camp Beecher and unanimously decided that they could have no better fun next summer than to again go camping.
