Search-Lights on Land. The recent night attacks on British army posts in India have led to the suggestion that all such exposed military camps be provided with powerful electric search-lights, like those used by war ships. With bright beams playing over the surrounding country, it is argued, the danger of night attacks | Jonathan, attired in a red, white and would be greatly diminished; and sentries and outlying pickets could be protected from the assassins who, it is group danced a big, red faced Bismarck asserted, not infrequently stalk them like game' and murder them in the darkness.

The Wrong Thing.

To do the right thing at the wrong time is as bad as to do the wrong thing at any time. How often have we blundered just at this point! If we review the past we will see that in many cases we have brought trouble upon ourselves, not because we did a wrong thing, but because we did just the right thing to be done, but we did it at the wrong time. We need great caution and care. Guard well this point, Judge Tuthill Discharges the Jury in the Luctgert Case.

For sixty-six hours the jury struggled with the Luetgert murder case at Chicago. They retired shortly before 5 o'clock Monday afternoon. At 10:50 o'clock Tuesday morning they announced to Judge Tutbill that it was impossible for them to agree. An order for their discharge was then entered by the court.

The final ballot taken by the jury resulted 9 to 3 for conviction.

In the presence of his attorneys Luct gert made a sworn statement in which he denied his guilt.

The jurors signed the following statement: "We wish to state that while the evidence was such that we were unable to agree upon a verdict, one thing we did agree about, and that is, that people had ample reason to prosecute tion Oct, 25 Miss Frances Willard read on the showing without hearing the de-

OUR OBJECT: I. We want to awaken a priverent appreciation of the great merits of CABteaching the people what diseases Casearets will cure. If we can by this plan in a month's time, induce 8,000 people to become users and well-wishers of this wonderful azative and liver regulator, which even now is seiling at the rate of 5,000,000 boxes a year, it will pay us to give away 1,000 instead of spending it for some other form of advertising.

2. Everybody knows what enormous sums of money we spend annually for advertising, we probably lose $25,000 a year by not knowing just what a paper is worth as an advertising medium. If we can find out just how many see this advertisement and give it attention, it will be hig money in our pockets. Your answer to this advertisement will belp us find out, and we are willing to pay for the information.

WHAT YOU ARE TO DO: There are in the schedule below fourteen names of diseases. From each name letters have been emitted and their places supplied by stars. To fill in the blank spaces properly and get the names right will be a test of your learning. We want you be applied by stars. To fill in the blank out as many names as you can, then send the list to us with 25 cents to pay for a box of CASCA-RETS. For correct lists we shall give each prises of from $1 to $100 in gaid. The correct list gotten up in the most artistic and original style will be awarded the first prise, the next best, the second prize, and so on. Also, if your list contains ten or more correct names, you will not colve a SPECIAL CONSOLATION PRIZE. By exercising care in preparing your list you will be a winner.
