For the thirteenth year the Columbia Pad Calendar makes its appearance promptly on time for 1898, and while its general style is of the same familiar character, the many bright thoughts it contains, contributed by its friends in many parts of the country, as well as abroad, are new, and will be appreciated by all who take an interest in bicycling, healthful exercise and good roads.

The best Christmas gift of all can be found at Lyon & Healy's great holiday musical sale. Everything known in musical instruments is displayed on their six great floors, and an acceptable present may be found to suit every purse. No one should neglect making this display a visit. Visitors are freely welcome. Musical boxes sell from 35 cents to $250, and from $1 to $10 the choice of musical gifts is fairly bewildering. A copy of the Lyon & Healy Annual for 1897, containing a fine new two-step and a charming ballad, free to every caller. Lyon & Healy, Wabash avenue and Adams street, Chicago.

Only those who have lived in a small town, says the Country Publisher, can appreciate and realize the fascination of the home paper. It occupies a place that no other publication can fill. The home newspaper comes first always. Everybody looks through every column to see if his or her "name is in the paper." Each bit of local gossip is read and discussed. Sometimes it is a birth, sometimes a death, sometimes a marriage. No matter what it is, every name mentioned is familiar to all, and for this one reason alone the home paper is prized above and beyond anything the "literary fellows" can produce.—Country Publisher

AN IDEAL HOLIDAY GIFT.

The holidays are near at hand. You are thinking about what you will give. Could anything be as appropriate or as welcome as a piano? Encouraged by the overwhelming success of our October Piano Clearance Sale, in preparation for the holiday trade we have placed on our floors a very large number of the unrivalled Bradbury Pianos in the latest styles of cases and in all woods. Remember that the Bradbury since 1854—over forty years—has stood in the first rank; that thousands are in use in every large eastern city and in Chicago; the world's great artists endorse them; our enormous capital—over one million dollars—and our large output reduces cost to the lowest point consistent with standard workmanship; and that you buy direct from the maker and save all dealers' profits. We guarantee these pianos superior to any piano on the market. We also show several other makes at lower prices. For those whose needs can be met with a second hand piano we offer very excellent instruments in good repair from $25 up. Selections now may be delivered later if desired. Cash or time payments to suit your convenience. F. G. Smith, Manufacturer Bradbury pianos, J. M. Hawthurst, western manager, 255-257 Wabash ave. Telephone Harrison 771. Factories: Brooklyn, N. Y., Leominster, Mass.
