NUMBER 5.

WELCOMED THEIR NEW PASTOR.

The LaPorte, Ind., papers give the following report of a reception given Mr. and Mrs. Geo. C. Moor there last

"Music, addresses, conversation, refreshments were the order of exercises last evening at the Baptist church. The attendance was excellent and the spirit of the occasion was all that could be desired. W. C. Weir was master of ceremonies, Rev. Dr. R. H. Hartley, pastor of the Presbyterian church, offered the invocation, George Cutler ex tended a welcome to the pastor on behalf of the congregation, Mrs. Alonzo Cutler on behalf of the B. Y. P. U., Rev. E. D. Daniels, pastor of the New church, on behalf of the clergy here, and the Hon. Lemuel Darrow, mayor of the city, welcomed the reverend gentleman to LaPorte, Mr. Moor re- take. sponding in that happy manner for which men of his stamp are noted. His remarks were quite witty and chel's. evoked much laughter, especially when The Senour floor paints are the best Young People's union (B. Y. P. Mr. Moor was pathetic as well as humorous, spoke of the solemn duties that devolve upon a pastor at times, expressed the hope that church relations would always be harmonious, and that they would be prepared to meet each responsibility as it may present itself. After an appropriate hymn, followed by benediction by the pastor, the company adjourned to refreshments where choice, as might have been expected under such auspices, the table decorations being in keeping with the other features of the occasion. Rev. and Mrs. Moor start out under most favorable circumstances. They come at a most auspicious time in the history of the Baptist church here, and the indicatrons are that they will have the smoothest kind of sailing, and that their denomination in this city will be the better for their having come to join their fortunes with it.

SUNDAY NIGHT'S FIRE.

The tire alarm Sunday night brought out the fire department in a hurry, but their work was not arduous after arriving at the scene of the supposed conflagration—the Maple avenueschool building. The blaze was discovered in The best oil in town, only 14c per gal. | the ventilation shaft of the building and was undoubtedly of incendiary or igin. The fire did not gain much head way and was under control when the hose cart arrived. The damage was slight, but the building would have been destroyed had not the fire been discovered in good season. It is supposed to have been the work of boys. At a later hour several windows were broken in the North side school build-

SPECIAL SONG SERVICE

Music lovers of the village were the recipients of an exceptional treat Sunday evening at the special services of song at the Congregational church. For the past month the choir has been under the tuition of Carlile Tucker, of the Chicago Musical college, and the effect of persistent drilling was apparent to all in the improvement of the vocalization. Talent from abroad was enlisted to assist the well-rounded choir. An appreciative audience filled the church and necessitated the placing of seats in the aisles. The anthem and chorus work of the choir was exceptionally fine.

"My Pilgrimage," by Dudley Buck, as interpreted by Miss Agnes Wetten, was thoroughly appreciated by the auditors, who listened with rapt attention to each succeeding strain.

Mr. Lewis F. Cramm, of the Chicago Musical college, created a distinct impression by his rendition of Bradsky's tenor solo, "Sun of My Soul." The theme of this beautiful song, coupled with the harmonic cadence of an almost perfect musical setting, touched a responsive chord in the hearts of Striking in its simplicity was the recessional, "The Home Land," rendered by the full choir, unaccompanied by the organ, after the offertory.

A few well chosen words from Pastor E. H. Libby punctuated the song service and served as a fitting prelude to the grand anthem, "How Long Will I Forget Thee," which was the crowning piece of the programme. Led by the choir, the audience joined from time to time in the old hymns of Watts and Wesley, which were familiar to all. Special attention is now being directed to the music of the church.
