Last Friday Mrs. Dr. Van Ackerman of Kane county appeared before Judge Bishop in his chamber at Wheaton during a session of court, and was admitted to $10,000 bail for manslaughter. Several weeks ago a coroner's jury in Kane county holding an inquest over the body of a young lady, supposedly found that some physician had been tampering with the laws of nature which caused death. The jury found Mrs. VanAckerman guilty of the crime, but after the warrant was issued she could not be found. Her attorneys announced their willingness to produce her at any time arrangements could be made to admit her to bail. OFFICE IN THE COURTHOUSE-AT The authorities at last agreed to an ar rangement of that kind and the appeared at Wheaton with her attorneys when she was placed under arrest by the sheriff of Kane county.

UNPARALLED OFFER.

All our farmer readers should take advantage of the unprecedented clubbing offer we make this year, which includes with this paper the Iowa Homestead, its Special Farmers' Institute editions, the Poultry Farmer and the Farmers' Mutual Insurance Journal. These four publications are the best of their class and should be in every farm house. To them we add for local county and general news our own paper and the Chicago weekly Inter Ocean and make the price for the six for one year $2.25. Never before was so much superior reading matter offered for so small an amount of money. The five papers named which we club with our own are well known throughout the west and commend themselves to the readers favorable attention upon mere mention. The Homestead is the great agricultural and live stock paper of the west; the Poultry farmer is the most practical poultry paper for the farmer published in the country; the Farmers' Mutual Insurance Journal is the special advocate of farmers' co-operative associations and the special Farmers' Institute editions are the most practical publications for the promotion of good tarming ever published. Take advantage of this great offer.
