Mrs. H. L. Tenney has returned from the deathbed of her father, Mr. Watts H. Pys, who, after twelve-days' illness, fell sweetly asleep in Jesus early on Sunday morning, March 11th, at the home of his son, C. G. Pys, Faribault, Minnesota. His death was caused by general decay. He was in his eighty-third year. The deceased was born in England in 1818. Mr. Pys came to the United States in 1849. After living in Downers Grove six years he went to Minnesota and settled on a farm seven miles from Faribault. He has since resided in that vicinity, and was known as a man of sterling integrity. In dying he leaves to his children the inheritance of an untarnished name. There are five children left to mourn the loss of a kind and affectionate father, viz: Mrs. H. L. Tenney of Downers Grove, Ill.; Judge C. W. Pys of Northfield, Minn.; C. G. Pys of Faribault, Minn.; Mrs. Edward Oliver of Hudson, Wis.; and Major E. J. Pys of Santa Rosa, Cal., all of whom, excepting Major Pys, were present at the obsequies. The deceased was laid to rest in Cannon City cemetery by the side of his beloved wife, who died six years ago.

I want to let the people who suffer from rheumatism and sciatica know that Chamberlain's Pain Balm relieved me after a number of other medicines and a doctor had failed. It is the best liniment I have ever known of.—J. A. Dodger, Alpharetta, Ga. Thousands have been cured of rheumatism by this remedy. One application relieves the pain. For sale by Bush & Simonson.

It has been demonstrated repeatedly in every state in the union and in many foreign countries that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a certain preventative and cure for croup. It has become the universal remedy for that disease. M. V. Fisher of Liberty, W. Va., only repeats what has been said around the globe when he writes: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family for several years and always with perfect success. We believe that it is not only the best cough remedy, but that it is a sure cure for croup. It has saved the lives of our children a number of times." This remedy is for sale by Bush & Simonson.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

OF COD-LIVER OIL WITH HYPOPHOSPHITES

should always be kept in the house for the following reasons:

FIRST—Because, if any member of the family has a hard cold, it will cure it.

SECOND—Because, if the children are delicate and sickly, it will make them strong and well.

THIRD—Because, if the father or mother is losing flesh and becoming thin and emaciated, it will build them up and give them flesh and strength.

FOURTH—Because it is the standard remedy in all throat and lung affections.

No household should be without it. It can be taken in summer as well as in winter.

50c and $1.00, all druggists.
