A total eclipse of the sun is soon to occur, and the phenomenon will be followed by the obscuration of several lilinous politicians who at present imagine they are running for governor.

The republican congressional convention for this (the eighth) district convenes in Aurora this morning. There can be but one result—the renomination of Congressman A. J. Hopkins, and Capt. T. S. Rogers, of Downers Grove, for the state board of equalization.

The old board of trustees closes its administration Monday evening, having to preciated by the crowd. its credit several important improvethe municipal electric lighting plant. During these pleasant spring days, when the professional tramps are deserting their winter quarters and starting on their annual summer pilgrimages, it is just as well to see that your windows and doors are all locked at night. There is little donbt that the men who have been responsible for the recent burglaries here have been from this class.

There is an organized non-partisan movement among lawyers in Cook county to secure the nomination of Judge John H Batten for judge of the probate court, He is now filling the unexpired term of Judge Kohlsaat. Judge Batten consented to become a candidate recently in response to a petition signed by more than 1,000 local attorneys, including Luther Laffin Mills, Albert S. Trude, John W. Els, and many other prominent practitioners at the Chicago bar.

The Cook county republican primaries formation. will be held today, and upon their outcome depend, in a large measure, the chances of all the candidates for the gubernatorial nomination. The other representative will be chosen from Kane county. There are four aspirants for the position-C. H. Backus, of Hampshire; William H. Hunter, John Williams and Mayor Price, all of Elgin. The DuPage county republican convention, which met in Wheaton last Saturday, was one of the most enjoyable gatherings of the faithful ever held in the county. The party has an overwhelming majority In this county, which is, in fact, one of the republican strongholds of the state, and the deliberations of its conventions are looked to with interest. While small, DuPage county rolls up the largest proportionate republican majority of any county in Illinois. Therefore a nomination on the county ticket is almost equivalent to an election The officers named Saturday to administer county affairs are all capable and honest men, to whom the people can anfely entrust the county business. T. M. Hall, who was nominated as circuit clerk, is excellently fitted, through former experience and ability, to execute the duties of this office. M. Slusser, who has filled the office of state's attorney for the post four years, was nominated by acclamution without a dissenting vote. He has proten his capability by previous service, and his renomination is gratifying to all who respect a rigid enforcement of the faws. For coroner the republicans again hose Newton E.
