PROGRESSION OR RETROGRESSION

Some of our most broad-minded and progressive citizens are freely expressing the opinion that the people of Downers Grove are soon to be brought face to face with a question the settlement of which is to make or mar the future property of the village. In almost every community there are to be found men who cling to the old-fashioned notions of their forefathers, and who stand ready to do all in their power to retard the progress of any movement or enterprise that has for its object the general betterment of the people.

WHAT MAKES A TOWN.

Merchants and farmers ought to patronize each other if they would have their town grow and their farm and town property increase in value. The commercial spirit of a place is what makes and sustains a town. If farmers expect a good market for their produce they must patronize their home merchants and not purchase their supplies of mail-order houses in the cities.

take their butter, cheese, eggs, potatoes and other farm products, and pay them the highest market prices for them, but if they withhold their patronage from their local merchants they can not reasonably expect that their home dealers will do as well by them as they otherwise would. The local merchants can not live without local patronage. They can not keep up their stocks and give credit to farmers and pay their running expenses unless they have the trade of the people in the towns in which they live and do business.

Merchants and farmers should patronize each other; should help each other; should feel a common interest in the weal of their town, if they expect to live in a prosperous community, have their town grow, and their farm and village property increase in value.

The city papers are all right if you want them, but it is the local paper, says the Nauvoo Kustler, that advertises your business, your schools, your churches, your numerous societies, sympathizes with you and your afflictions and rejoices in your prosperity. In short, it is your local paper that mentions the thousand and one items in which you are interested during the year and which you do not find in the city paper.

A few matters connected with the operation of the electric light plant needs the attention of the board of trustees. The plant should by all means be operated until 10 o'clock. Parties coming out from the city on the late trains do not fancy stumbling home in the dark.

This is a time for general improvement of the home, the farm and all around the country. There is always something that can be done to improve the home, and while it may be expensive in itself, it is an improvement and adds to the beauty and value of the place. Little by little will get the place to be valuable in course of time.

The republicans of the eighth district will have the first opportunity of hearing Judge Yates in the campaign at Aurora today, when he will address the republican editorial association at its annual meeting to be held at Evans Park.

If the trees are trimmed the new lights will show off to much better advantage, besides lighting a much greater area.

Then, too, too much shade kills the lawns and rots walks.

The streets will present a more uniform appearance if you—

Trim the trees.

A woman in Idaho got a divorce from her husband because he would not take her to the Paris exposition. He testified in court that he was afraid of water, and that he was afraid to get into a bath tub even, he got so seasick.
