Other relatives are two brothers, Edwin Davis, of Omaha, and Stephen Davis, of Spokane, Falls, Wash.

Downers Grove people curious to see the strange sight of the moon slipping across the face of the sun Monday morning were sadly disappointed. The sky was cloudy and the sun was completely hidden from view during the entire time of the observation. The first contact of the eclipse was at 6:43 a. m., and the eclipse continued until about three-quarters of the sun's surface was hidden. The duration of the phenomenon was about two hours.

"For the sake of fun, mischief is done." A vast amount of mischief is done, too, because people neglect to keep their blood pure. This mischief, fortunately, may be undone by the faithful use of Hood's Sarsaparilla. Hood's Pills cure liver ills. Non-irritating.
