back into the abyss of shame and panic put Governor Roosevelt in nomination for the vice presidency, said to the

"The country never called for patriotic sons from any given family but more were offered than there was room for on the enlistment roll. When this conventhe enlistment roll. When this conven-tion and this great party called for a candidate for Vice-President, two voices responded, one from the Mississippi Val-ley by birth; another by loving affection and adoption. It is my mission, repre-senting that part of the great Louisiana purchase, to withdraw one of these sons and suggest that the duty be placed upon

"I therefore withdraw the name of Jonathan Dolliver, of Iowa, a man born with the thrill of the Lincoln and Frement campaigns in his heart, and with the power to stir the hearts and consciences

The Campaign in Cuba.

the great Middle West. And at this moment I recall that two years ago today as many men as there are men and women in this great hall were on board sixty transports lying off Santiago harbor, in full view of the bay, with Morro Castle looming up on the right, and another prominence upon the left, with he opening of the channel between. On board these transports were 29,600 soldiers, that had gone away from our shores to liberate another race, to fulfill famous regiment of rough riders of the far was that fearless young American, stu-harbors two years ago tomorrow, and the navy bombarded the shore to make a place for landing; and no man who lives was in that campaign as an officer, as a soldier, or as a camp follower, can fail to recall the spectacle; and if he closes his eyes he can see the awful scenes in that campaign in June and July, 1898. Then, the landing was brilliantly completed.

There were those who stood upon the shore and saw these indomitable men land, landing in small boats, through the waves that dush against the shore, landing without harbor, but land they di with their accourrements on and their weapons by their sides. And those who Uncto fiam a Cosmopolitan. "Gentlemen of this convention, I know you have been here a long time, and that "In many respects the years 1996 and 1886 have been the great years of the republic. There is not under any sun or dares to insult the flag of the United States. We are a greater and a broader people on account of these achievements.

Uncle Sam has been made a cosmopolitions his prowess or his bravery as the result of these campaigns, and as the re-

"My fellow-citizens, the American sol-dler ten thousand relies away from home, with a musket in his hand, says to the aggregator, to those who are in favor of tyranny, 'Halt, who comes there?' and the same spirit says to the beleaguered beats of liberty, 'Hold the fort, for I am coming.' Thus says the spirit of Ameri-

"Now, gentlemen of the convention, I place before you this distinguished leader of Republicanism of the United States, ple whose hearts are right, and this lead-men of this country. Their hearts an consciences are with this young leader, whom I shall name for the Vice-Prestdency of the United States, Theodore Roosevelt, of New York." (Loud cheek-

Scotland's Fishertes.

Aberdeen has become the great center of the Scotch fishing industry. No fewer that 140 steam trawlers, twenty-five steam liners, and eighty other boats are engaged in fishing. These land on an average something like 870 tons of fish every week. It seems only a proper thing that Aberdeen, which is doing so much to empty the Scottish sees of fish, should do something to replenish them, and the results the brief period of its existence have been of a setisfactory nature, from a may be feared, however, that it will be some time before the sea is benefited by the artificial hatching of fish. This hatchery is situated close to the sea, and occupies half an acre of ground.

It has a large supply of filtered sait water flowing constantly through it.

The spawning pond is ninety feet long by thirty-five feet wide, with an average depth of eight feet. It is in charge of Dr. Fulton, a keen pisciculturist.-

New Cotton Mills.

Ga., along the line of the principal railways, it seems as if it were impossible to get out of sight of new cotton mills, either in operation or in course of construction. These mills are principally the growth of the last decade.

From Richmond, Va., to Atlanta,

M. E. Gilbert in Chicago Record.

scientific point of view at least.

achieved at the Nigg hatchery during the aspirations of young suit of the American spirit, ou have had polities in abundance.

enforce ft.

"A campaign follows. There were those no obligation but that of humanity.

tho witnessed the great spectacle of fleet, and on the ship Yucatan was that "We turn to this other adopted son of of men as part of his birthright.

Hon, Lafayette Young, of Iowa, who and disaster."

convention:

Closing Scenes and Speeches at Philadelphia, mater Feraker's Speech Renembating President McKinley for a Second Term -- Governor Rossevelt Nominated by Dolliver's Chief Lioutenant.

ACCLAMATION CHOICE

Thursday was the great day of the Republican national convention Philadelphia. The sessions of Tuesday and Wednesday were short and devoted to organization and platform. Long before 10 o'clock, the hour set for the reassembling of the convention, the hall was surrounded by an dimmense army of people, who besieged all the doors and entrances, clamoring for admission.

When the doors were opened they surged in like a flood, submerging the wast hall. The stage had been freshened with green things, and at each corner, like a touch of flaming color, red peonies shot into the air. The band in the north gallery was at work early with inspiring music. It was much warmer than Wednesday, and the sun blazed down through the spaces in the roof and the heat gave promise of being, oppressive.

The women came prepared, however, and were attired in their thinnest muslins. Everybody was provided with old fellow in the gallery, with charming disregard of the proprieties, diwested himself of coat and vest, hung them over the rail and took his seat.

Kansas delegation, headed by Colonei Burtton, with bright silk sunflowers, pinned to their lapels, aroused the first enthusiasm as they marched down the main able bearing a white banner, inscribed in big black letters with the words:

"KANSAS IS THE FIRST STATE TO DECLARE FOR ROOSEVELT."

As the delegates debouched into the pit the utmost good nature was manifested. Chairman Lodge called the session to order at 12:38. This is the story of the seasion as timed by the 10:34. Chairman Lodge called the convention to order. 10:40. Prayer offered by Archbishop Ryan, of Philadelphia. 10:55. Benator Quay withdrew his amendment and the rules were adopted. 10:54, Chairman Lodge aunounced that nominations for the presidency were next in order. 19:57. Schator Foraker began his speech. pominating McKinley. 11:12. Benator Foraker concluded his speech. 11:28. Gov. Roosevelt began his seconding speech. 11:28. Gov. Roosevelt concluded his speech. 11:21. Benator Thurston began his seconding speech. 12:00. John F. Yerkes, of Kentucky, made a seconding speech: 12:05. Delegate Knight, of Call-fornia, made a according speech. 12:10. Gov. Mount made a seconding speech. 12:27. Roll call for vote on President. 12:47. McKinley unanimously nominated. 12:56. Col. Lafayette Young, of Iowa, nominated Roosevelt for Vice-President. 1:15. Cov. Roosevelt announced that he President, 1:24. J. M. Ashton, of Washington, withdrew Hartlett H. Tripp's Rossevell. 1:28. Michael Murray, of Massachusetts, seconded the nomination of Hoosevelt, 1:53. Roll call begun for vote on Vice-Presidential nomination. 39. Roesevelt nominated for vice-pres-dent by acclamation. 2:30. The convention adjourned.

Sepator Foraker's speech nominating McKinley was as follows:

"Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen of the Convention: Alabama yields to Ohio, and thank Alahama for that accommodation. Alabama has so yielded, however, by reason of a fact that would seem in an important sense to make the duty that has been assigned to me a super-fluous duty. Alabama has yielded because of that fact that our candidate for the presidency has, in fact, been already nominated. [Applituse.] He was nominated by the distinguished Senator from Colorado, when he assumed the duties of temporary chairman. He was nominated again vesterday by the distinguished Senator from Massachusetts, when he took the office of permanent chairman, and he was nominated for a third time when the Senator from Indiana yesterday read the platform. [Applause.] And not only has tion, but he has also been nominated by the whole American people. [Applause.] From one end of this land to the other In every mind only one and the same man now about to confer, and that man is the first choice of every other man who wishes Republican success next November, [Applause.] "Mr. Chairman, we are not surprised by this, for we anticipated it all. When we nominated him in St. Louis four rears ago, we knew he was wise, we tient; we knew he would be faithful and devoted, and we knew that the greatest possible triumphs of peace would be his: but we then little knew that he would be called upon to encounter also the trials of war. That unusual emergency It came unexpectedly as wars generally come. It came in spite of all he could honorably do to avert it. came to find the country unprepared for it, but it found him equal to all emergencies, [Applause.] And it is no exaggeration to say that in all American history there is no chapter more brilliant than that which chronicles with him as our commander-in-chief, our victory on land and sea. [Applause.]

The McKinley Record.

"In one hundred days we drove Spain from the western hemisphere, girded the earth with our acquisition and filled the world with the splendor of our power. Applause.] The American name has a new and greater significance now. Our flag has a new glory. It not only sympolizes human liberty and political equality at home, but it means freedom and independence for the long-suffering patriots of Cuba, and complete protection, ducation, enlightenment, uplifting and ultimate local self-government and the enjoyment of all the blessings of liberty to the millions of Porto Rice and the Philippines. What we have so gioriously done for ourselves we propose most generously to do for them. [Applause.] save so declared in the platform that we have adopted. A fitting place it is for this party to make such a declaration.

"Here in this magnificent city of Philadelphia, where the evidences so abound of the rich blessings the Republican party has brought to the American people, ternative, we waged the most righteous Change the Missouri's Course.

A mob of fifty farmers, which had set to work cutting a channel for the Missouti river at Renninger's Neck, ten miles north of Sloux City, confronts a posse sent there by Sheriff Sides of Dakota county, Nebraska, and a fight between the two is expected at any hour. If the farmers succeeded, they would rob Nebraska of 27,000 acres of the most fertile land in the west and add it to the arce of South Dakota.

one class to speak for him here or clasself (appinuse) and to all the world. He has already spoken for himself (appinuse) and to all the world. He has a record replets with brilliant achievements: a record that apeaks at once both his performances and his highest sulogy. It comprehends both peace and war and constitutes the most attriking illustration possible of triumphant and inspiriting fidelity and success in the discharge of public duty.

"Four years ago the American people confided to him their highest and most sacred trust. Behold with what results. He found the industries of this country paralyzed and prostrated; he quickened them with a new life that has brought to the American people a prosperity unprecedented in all their history. He found the labor of this country everywhere independent. He found it everywhere employment. He found it everywhere in despair; he has waged during the filtratary country has waged them has waged during the filtratary country has waged them has waged them him aparts and the present and his performance and his pe employment. He found it everywhere in despair; he has made it everywhere prosperous and buoyant with hope. He found never before, we shall not be plunged the mills and shops and factories and mines everywhere closed; they are now everywhere open. [Applause.] "And while we here deliberate, they are sending their surplus products in commercial conquest to the very ends of the earth. Under his wise guidance our financial standard has been firmly planted high above and beyond assault, and the wild cry of 16 to 1, so full of terror and long hair in 1896, has been put to everlasting sleep alongside of the lost cause, and other cherished Democratic barrels and the contraction of the lost cause. herestes, in the catacombs of American politics. (Applause.) With a diplomacy never excelled and rarely equaled, he has overcame what at times seemed to be insurmountable difficulties, and has enly opened to us the door of China, but he has advanced our interests in every Leaders of the Past.

"It was here that our Declaration of Independence was adopted, and our constitution was formed; where Washington and Jefferson and Hancock and John Adams and their illustrious associates wrote their immortal work; here, where centers so many bistoric memories that stir the blood and flush the cheek and excite the sentiments of human liberty and patriotism, is indeed a most fitting place for the party of Lincoln and Grant and Garfield and Blaine (applause); the party of union and liberty for all men to formally dedicate themselves to this great duty. We are now in the midst of its discharge. We could not turn back if we would, and we would not if we and there was no complaint. One | could. (Applause.) We are on trial before the world, and most triumphantly meet our responsibilities, or ignominiously fall in the presence of mankind. These responsibilities speak to this convention here and now, and command us that we choose to be our candidate and the next President-which is one and the same West and the Mississippi Valley (applause); in command of that regiment Three minutes before 10 o'clock the thing-the best fitted man for the discharge of this great duty in all the republic. (Applause.) dent, scholar, plainsman, reviewer, opinion. No man in all the nation is so well qualified for this trust as the great leader under whom the work has been so far conducted. He has the head, he has the head, he "On that point there is no difference of leader under whom the work has been so far conducted. He has the head, he has the heart, he has the special knowledge and the special experience that qualify him beyond all others. And, Mr. Chairman, he has also the stainless reputution and character and has led the biameless life that endears him to his countrymen and gives to him the confidence, the respect, the admiration, the love and the affection of the whole American people, (Applause.) He is an ideal man representing the highest type of American citizenship, an ideal candidate and an ideal President. With our banner in his hands, it will be carried to triumphant victory in November next. (Applause.) stood upon that shore and saw those mea 'in the name of all these consideracome on-they could see in their facestions, and not alone on behalf of his Stranger, can you tell me the nearest road to flantiago? That is the place they were looking for, and the leader in that campaign of one of those regiments shall be the name that I shall place before this convention for the office of Vice-President of the United States. (Applicates.) beloved state of Ohio, but on behalf of every other state and territory here represented, and in the name of all Repub licans everywhere throughout our jurisdiction, I nominate to be our next candidate for the presidency, William Mc-

During the speech of Foraker, Governor Roosevelt paid attention so strictly that there was an almost anxlous look upon his face. Once or twice, however, he got away from his intensity and applauded. When Foraker finished, Roosevelt arose with the rest, but undoubtedly with the, prospect of his own nomination on his mind, only stood silent, not joining in the cheers, and both hands in his pockets. But when Senator Foraker came down the alale he grasped him by the hand and slapped him on the shoulder, smiling and laughing aloud. In his speech on behalf of the New York delegation, of which he was chairman, seconding the nomination, Governor Roosevelt said:

Roosevelt's Speech.

"Mr. Chairman-I rise to second the nomination of William McKinley, the President who has had to meet and solve problems more numerous and more important than any other President since he days of mighty Abraham Lincoln; the President under whose administration this country has attained a higher pitch than ever before in its history. Four years ago the Republican party nominatd William McKinley as its standardbearer in a political conflict of graver moment to the nation than any that had taken place since the close of the civil war saw us once more a reunited coun-The Republican party nominated him; but before the campaign was many days old he had become the candidate not only of all Republicans, but of all Americans who were both faryighted enough to see where the true interests of the country lay, and clear-minded enough to be keenly sensitive to the taint of dis-

"President McKinley was triumphantly elected on certain distinct pledges, and hose pledges have been made more than We were then in a condition of industrial paralysis. The capitalist was plunged in ruin and disaster; the wage worker was on the edge of actual want meant not only immense aggravation of the actual physical distress, but also a stain on the nation's honor so deep that more than one generation would have to pass before it would be effectually wiped We promised that if President Mo-Kinfey were elected not only should the national honor be kept unstained at home and abroad, but that the mine and the workshop open, the farmer would have a market for his goods, the merchant for his wares, and that the wageworker should prosper as never before. Well, we kept our word. The oppor tunity has been given, and it has been seized by American energy, thrift and business enterprise. As a result, we have prospered as never before, and we are now prospering to a degree that would have seemed incredible four years ago when the cloud of menace to our industrial well-being hung black above the Foreign Affairs.

"So it has been in foreign affairs. Four years ago the nation was uneasy because right at its doors an American island lay writhing in agony, with the curse of worse than mediaeval tyranny and misrule. We had our Armenia at our very doors, for the situation in Cuba had grown intolerable and such that this nation could no longer refrain from interference, and retain its own self-respect. President McKinley turned to this duty as he had turned to others. He sought by every effort possible to provide for Spain's withdrawal from the island which she was impotent longer to do aught but oppress. Then, when pacific means had failed and there remained the only al-

FOR THE CURIOUS.

A message travels over an ocean cable at about 700 miles a second. It only rains about once a year in Lower Egypt, on the coast of the Mediterranean. About 1,000 tons of soot annually fall on London. Shucks! We can beat that. Watch our smoke!-Chicago Journal.

The British navy has control of 62 docks, 61 of which are of stone, the other one wood.

Pronunciation.

Mikado is pronounced "Mi-ka-do," the accent on the second syllable, the "i" as in "it," and the "a" as in "and." Doukhobor is pronounced 'Doo-kobore," the accent on the first syllable. Tomato is pronounced "to-ma-to," the accent on the second syllable and the "a" as in "and." The word is sometimes pronounced with the "a" sounded short as in "ate," but this pronunciation, while not incorrect, is not as common as the other.

Record of the East Six Days a the Front

CONDENSED FORM

Landon Believes That Moberts Is Ready to Strike Decisive Blows to Compe Bruger and Steyn to Sue for Terms of Feace-Boers in South Returning to Their Farms.

Wednesday, June 20. London believes that Lord Roberts is ready to strike decisive blows and force Kruger and Steyn to make peace.

Thursday, June 21. Roberts is preparing a final movement; truce with Botha intimates surrender. Roberts is believed to be in negotiation with Kruger. Boers is south returning to farms.

Friday, June 32. Lord Roberts has almost accomplished his object of cutting apart the Boer army and preventing intercommunication of isolated commandos.

Saturday, June 23. Buller occupied Stantierton, capturing railway rolling stock. Ian Hamilton took Heidelberg and chased Boers for seven miles.

Monday, June 25. Clements defeated Boers at Wynberg.

Death of Martin J. Russell. Martin J. Russell, editor of the Ch!cago Chronicle, died at Mackinac Island, Mich., Tuesday. At 19 he became a reporter on the old Chicago Evening Post. Within a year he was city editor, and served for two years. In 1873 he went over to Wilbur F. Storey's Times, where he became a paragrapher in the days when to be a paragraph writer for the Times was to call from a man all that was in him of invective, force and satire. It was in this old school of journalism that Martin J. Russell was graduated. When the old to be called the reserve squadron.

term as collector of customs at Chics

THE OREGON IN CHINA.

world they will find the Oregon a great discouragement to their projects.

This American vessel could cope single-handed with the whole remnant of the Chinese navy left by the Japanese Wrecked at Son.

Frank Jackely, sole survivor of a disaster at sea, has returned to San Francisco in the ship Jeanie from Dutch Harbor. He was one of nine sailors on the fishing schooner Stanley who deserted the ship in boats when far at sea and made for the Cape Nome placer diggings. A terrific storm overtook them, wrecking two of the boats of the boats survived, and three the men reached an island about 175 miles from Dutch Harbor. Their sufferings were intense as the arctic blasts struck them, but finally the little craft reached Dutch Harbor, where two of the men died as the result of British admiralty proposes being frostbitten.

in 1894.

The navy department has sent the battleship Oregon to Taku, where it most in the tional nest The vessel that set the pace for the whole American fleet

Fu-A prefecture. Chihtai-Governor-general, superintending two provinces. Chun Chi-The general at Santiago Chung Tang-A grand secretary state, of whom there are six. good account Futal-Governor of a province. of itself in Chinese waters or any-Hul-A club or association. where else. If the Chinese are Helang-A village. actually contemplating a Hslen-A district. for-all war against the rest of the Net Ko-Grand secretariat and D

> His Secondo Throw Up the up in New York, Patsy Halay Buffalo, who about two years ago we looked upon as one of the clev men in his class, was defeated George Monroe, Terry McGove sparring partner, at the Sampson letic club. The end came in the teenth round. Monroe was about administer a knockout blow. Haley's seconds, to save their further punishment, threw up sponge, perial chancery,-New York Herald,

Kwang Ye Wal—The yo

the reform party.

ing to America.

Liung Kai Chu-

the emperor and reform less Fan Kwei--Foreign devil.

percr's chief adviser and the te

Kwang Sul-The young emper

Drowning Man's Death Grip. and drowning six of the sailors. One Harry P. Bissell, a member of Yonkers (N. Y.) Cance club and an expert canonist, left the club's anchores near Glenwood with Clifford Long botham Sunday morning. They wer chums and were bookkeepers in the Citizens' National bank, The cant capsized, turning bottom side upward Longbotham, who could not swim clutched Bissell about the neck and held on with a death-like grip and both were drowned.

THE FORTS AT TAKU, CHINA.

strengthen channel fleet with another,

REDUCED BY THE WARSHIPS OF RUSSIA, FRANCE AND ENGLAND

Big Electric Railway Plan. Maj. Rothwell of Detroit has turned to that city from New York and brings nevs of a big scheme which is on the point of being consummated for an overhead electric railway line between New York and Chicago. The American Railway company, 6 Wall street, proposes to build such a road, and make the trip from New York to Chicago by means of cigar-shaped monorail cars in five hours. The cars win on a single rail. He declares that George Westinghouse said they can make 200 miles an hour with perfect safety. Maj. Rothwell says all the necessary capital has been Woman Kirk With a Razor. Presumably inspired by jealousy, Miss Jessie Morrison, Eldorado, Kan., attacked her successful rival, Mrs. Olin Castle, formerly Miss Clara Wiley, during the absence of Mr. Castle, and infleted wounds with a razor which proved fatal. After killing Mrs. Castle Miss Morrison ran to her home and turned the bloody blade to her own throat. She is still alive, but her wound is probably fatal.

Finds Tusks of a Mammoth. Benjamin Griffin, a San Francisco man spending his vacation at Half-Moon hay, has found in the bed of Pilareitos creek, near there, the head of a full-grown mammoth of the species elephantus primogus. Portions of tusks a foot in length still remain attached to the skull, and are about six inches in diameter where they protrude from the bone.

General Wheeler in Command. Gen. Joseph Wheeler formally took command of the department of lakes at Chicago Tuesday, Gen. J. F. Wade relinquished it. The little general arrived at his office in the Pullman building about 10 o'clock accompanied by Gen. Wade, and the two officers went ... rectly to the commandant's office. After signing the orders in which one assumed com mand of the department and the other withdrew from the position Gen. W. returned to the Auditorium and G Wheeler held an informal levee.

Gotham-Chicago Five Hours. Detroit, Mich., June 21 .- Mai. Rothwell of Detroit has returned from New York and brings news of a big scheme which is on the point of being consummated for an overhead electric railway line between New York and Chicago. The American Railway company, 6 Wall street, proposes to build such a road, and make the trip from New York to Chicago by means of cigar-shaped monorall cars to five house. The cars run on a single raft, He declares that George Westinghouse said they can make 200 miles an hour with perfect safety. Maj. Rothwell says all the necessary capital has been subscribed.

Boy's Remarkable Growth, Edward Robinson, a 10-year-old boy of Lone Tree, lows, is exciting the wonder of physicians. Two weeks ago he became ill and his parents put him to bed. When he became ill he was four feet five inches tall. Saturday he appeared on the street and many of his boy friends did not know him. He had grown nine inches during the two weeks he was in bed. He is now five

No Fireworks on the Fourth. The feature of the at Gutenberg, Germany, was a bril-Hant historical procession in which 3,000 persons and 1,000 horses participated. The former were in costumes representative of literature, commerce, science and art, here were large cars in the procession emblematic of the different epochs, feet nine inches tall and still growing.

Three Killed in Torne Court. Sheriff Noel Roberts was fatally wounded and his brothers Felix and Gold Coast colony, according to re Sidney were shot dead in the court- from Kumassi, was would room at San Augustine, San Augustine | shoulder during a recent sortie county, Texas, Monday morning. The shooting was done by the friends and relatives of King Borden, who killed Sheriff Ned Wall a few weeks age and who was to have an examining trial. The entrance of the Roberts others into court was the signal for Great privations are e Gold-Seekers Drown at Sec. San Francisco, Cal., June 21 .- Frank Jackely, sole survivor of a disaster at sea, has returned here in the ship Jeanle from Dutch Harbor, He was one of nine sailors on the fishing schooner Stanley who deserted the ship in boats when far at sea and made I the Cape Nome placer diggings. terrific storm overtook them, with ing two of the boats and drowning at of the sailors. One of the boats an vived, and three of the men renc an island about 175 miles from Dat Harbor. Their sufferings were int as the arctic blasts struck them. finally the little craft reached Du Harbor, where two of the men died as the result of being frostbitten.

Barry Picker Kills Farmer, Harry Hopkins, son of James Hee kins, a leading farmer of Baroda, village ten miles south of St. J. Mich., was fatally stabbed by J. P. Crowen, a berry picker. Crowen wa arrested, and to prevent lynching the farmers in the neighborhood of Baroda was taken to St. Jos safe-keeping. Hopkins died.

Lightning Kills Hoy in Charel In a severe thunder United Brethren church at ham. Wis., was struck by during services. Lewis Peckham. youth, was instantly killed by the b The entire congregation was a and Julian Hart and S. Fole rendered unconscious. Foley is expected to live. The built hadly wrecked.

Sir Frederick Hodgson, governor scera were killed. Provisions massi are scarce, and the