Escaped Lion Causes Paule. At Milwaukee, Wis., a lion escaped from its cage at the Coney Island menageria and frightened the pleasure seekers in the park. The attendants were teasing the beast by offering meat and then snatching it away, when the lion dashed so violent. ly against the bars that the cage fell over and freed the animal. It knocked over the kangaroo, but could not reach the men, for they all climbed tent poles. Then the lion ran through the Dark, where people were drinking beer. The women fainted and the men climbed trees. The cowboys in the show chased the king of beasts, lassoed it and dragged it back to its cage.

Play with Dead Men's Boned, The boys in the neignborhood bounded by Broadway, Park avenue and Seventh and Rutger streets, St. Louis, are enjoying themselves during the school vacation season with curious playthings. "Shinny" is their favorite pastime and the instruments they employ in the game are portions of the decomposed anatomies of what were once, perchance, their ancestors. A blackened, grinning skull serves for the ball and a grisly thigh bone or upper bone of the arm for a driving stick. The playthings of the boys of the neighborhood are the relics of past and almost forgotten generations of people whose bodies were buried in the old St. Joseph's convent cellietery.

Gen. Wade Sent to Rainy Lake. The threatened Indian uprising in the Rainy Lake region of Minnesota was considered at the cabinet meeting in Washington. A telegram from the governor of Minnesota was submitted, saying that an uprising in that region was threatened and expressing the fear that it might get beyond the control of the state authorities. was concluded that more definite information was needed before the federal authorities could properly interfere, and, in order to procure this information, Secretary Root telegraphed to Brig.-Gen. Wade at St. Paul to proceed at once to Bat Portage and investigate the trouble.

National Committee Meets. The meetings of the Democratic National Committee on Monday and Tuesday inaugurated the official work of the convention. Several contests were heard, tana case an hour was allowed on each side of the controversy. Mr. Corbett made the opening argument in behalf of the Clark delegates, while Governor Smith performed a like service in behalf of the Dalyites.

The case turned upon the right of the chairman of the state central committee to ill vacancies on the commit-Mr. Cockrill, a Daly man, held the position of chairman, and he attempted to fill these vacancies. The Chark members of the committee objected to this proceeding, and Mr. Corbett insisted that the committee should have been allowed to fill the vacancies. It was upon this point that the aplit occurred, and for this reason Mr. Cockrill was deposed by the committeemen from fourteen of the twenty-four countles of the state.

Mr. Corbett also contended that nineteen of the twenty-four counties of the state were represented in the Clark convention, and that a majority of the uncontested delegates sat in this convention. Mr. Corbett asserted that this was not a contest between the people and the copper trust, which was attempting to control the political affairs of the state.

Contom of the State.

Governor Smith devoted his argument largely to showing that the practice in the state is favorable to permitting the state chairman to fill vacancles. This practice had prevailed for twenty years, and he asserted that no objection had been made to the appointments when Clark men had been selected to fill the vacancies. The state convention was held at the place selected by the committee having that matter in charge, and there was no misunderstanding on this point at the from Meagher county had been secured by taking convicts out of jail to vote and that J. G. Johnson will assume for their ticket.

The subcommittee in the Oklahoma contest heard Judge A. G. C. Bier and Leslie P. Ross for the Jacobs faction and J. W. Johnson and Joseph Wilsby for the Sipes faction. The Jacobs delegates claim to be regular, but the contention is denied by the contestants. The decision of the subcommittee is understood to have been in the interest of the Jacobs faction.

In the Indian territory contest the decision will be favorable to Marcum for nationl committeeman. In this case the Marcumites accused the Woiforial convention and they walked out.

The District of Columbia contest will be heard next.

The following were chosen members of the Democratic national committee; Arkansas, James P. Clark; Connecticut, Homer S. Cummings: Florida, George H. Ranch; Illinois, Thomas Gahan; Indiana, Thomas F. Taggart; Kentucky, Urey Woodson; Maine, Arthur Sewall; Nebraska, James C. Dahlman; Ohio, John R. McLean; Pennsylvania, J. M. Goffey; South Carolina, Benjamin R. Tillman; South Dakota, Morris R. Taylor; Texas, R. M. Johnston; Vermont, John H. Senter; Wash-Ington, William H. Dunphy; Wisconsin, Timothy E. Ryan; Alaska, L. T. Williams, Arizona, John T. Breathiff. The bitter contest between the Clark and Daly factions of Muntain occupled the attention of a subcommittee of the national Democratic executive committee. No decision was reached, although it is understood the subcommittee stands two for Clark, two against him, and one undecided.

CONVENTION NOTES.

It was averred that Mr. Croker was not disposed to challenge Mr. Hill's aspirations to represent the New York delegation in the committee on resolutions, his latter concession, it was said, was confirmatory of an agreement made by Senator Murphy and others at the state convention.

Trees and Lightning. A writer in Knowledge discusses cases of trees shattered by lightning, nd cites an extraordinary case. A tree was encircled by a rope some twentyfive feet from the ground, and it so chanced that an end of the rope stood out from the bark of the tree so that during the earlier part of a rainstorm the tree was damp from the top to the rope, while the lower portion of the trunk was kept comparatively dry. The tree was struck in this condition, and the lower pant only was damaged. The damage followed downward a path which the twist in the fibre of the

Mr. Woolley, to use his own words, became a Christian and a party Prohibitionist at the same instant,' Jan. 31, 1888, in New York city. He immediately joined the Church of the Strangers, the church of the late Dr. Deems, and launched out into active Christian and Prohibition party work.

"For several years past John G. Woolley has been the speaker par excellence of many of the largest and most important religious, political and temperance conventions. Of his speech in Madison Square Garden at the International Y. P. S. C. E. convention in 1892, Murat Halstead, editor of the Brooklyn Standard-Union, said: 'Now, Bourke Cochran (the famous New. York Tammany speaker) is an orator, but he never got off anything that spup the sunshine into streaks of golden fire like that."
