tion with our public schools. One objection to the general movement of trimming the trees is that the branches are allowed to remain in uneightly piles on the streets. Trim the trees, but burn up the brush.

A vote cast in favor of the proposition to build an addition to the Maple avenue school building is not only a vote favoring public improvements, but better accommodations for the children-more warm! and light in winter, with large and wellventilated rooms.

Citizene will be justifled in refusing to patronise the electric light plant unless the lights are run all night. It would be almost equally unreasonable to supply consumers with water only a portion of the time as it is to give them lights only a payable annually. few hours each night.

every other town in the matter of lighting the streets all night? Ninety per cent. of the population of the village would vote in favor of an all-night service because of the great inconvenience of being in total darkness after midnight, to say nothing of the increased danger of being burglarfined or burned out of house and home The expense of running the plant three or four hours longer is too trifling to mention. Let us have light all night.

Advertising in newspapers of good standing pays, because it is a constant source of Information which the people want and must have. There is no end to the wants of mankind, and the enterprising and watchful merchant or manufacturer is always alert to promptly produce the goods which the necessities or whims of the publie bring into demand. Naturally, everyhody who intends to make purchases desires to know where to deal most advantastaly. This information the advertiser emabled to satisfactorily furnish by his interesting business an-

The pure-food law, passed by the last legislature, went into effect on the 1st of July. The provisions of said law, briefly stated, may be summarized thus: Every article of goods sold by grocers, in meat markets and in restaurants, or anywhere else, must bear a reliable label, truthfully specifying the contents of the bottle or package. This applies to coffee, tea, sugar, baking powder, honey, maple sugar, and the thousand and one other things on the market used as food by the human family The penalty is a fine or imprisonment, or both, and every infraction of the law will he promptly prosecuted on information being lodged with the proper officers of the law in any village, town or city.

Alsohuler's companions on the demowalls state ticked were selected Wedneslay and they are: Elmer A. Perry, Mount Sterling, lieutenant governor; James F. O'Donnell, Bloomington, secretary of te : Gaorge B. Parsons, Shawneetown, M. P. Dunlap, Jacksonville, James Todd, attorney general. The delegates at large are Carter H. Hartaon, A. S. Trude, Ben. T. Cable and J. Williams. The appointment of honors this district were assigned thus: J. C. By, of Woodstock, and Gen. Andrew ich, of Aurora, are delegates to the me City convention ; D. J. Hogan, or was returned to the state comand John W. Leonard, of DuPage nerved on the committee on reso te nominees four years ago because of to the Chicago platform to support the candidates of this state this year for the adopted by the democratic national conrention he'd in Chicago in 1896." No equivocation or evasion can obscure the real meaning and import of those few words. Every democratic candidate for office in Illinois this year must stand upon this p'atform, and is committed thereby to principles and doctrines which the voters of this state have repudiated by overwholming majorities. They must ask for votes upon this understanding, and if any of them are elected they will be committed to the support of the principles proclaimed in the Chicago platform, no matter how carefully they may ignore those is ues during the campaign.
