The proposition for the paving of Main street from the railroad south to Maple avenue is only a step in the right direction which must sooner or later be followed by the agitation of sewers and paving on all principal streets. Sewers are, for the time ing to let the present unsanitary conditions threaten the well being of the town. Hon. M. B. Castle died at 3 o'clock Friday morning at his home, in Sandwich, after a few weeks' illness. For quite hal a century Hon. M. B. Castle has been a leader in all public, business and church Main at Sandwich. He was the founder of the Sandwich Argon, and of the Sandwich bank, and has long been identified with other business interests. A correct history of Sandwich could hardly be written leaving the name M. B. Castle out. For scores of years he has been prominent in the councils of county, district and even state republican politics, and served his district in the state senate.

The Hinedale Doings says: "If the move to pave Main street in Downers Grove is successful it will be evidence that the town has really awakened from its twentyfive year lethargy." Quite true, Danny. We have always maintained that Downers Grave was not dead -only electing-and when it once awakens to the possibilities Its matural advantages give it, the 'sleepy' town will so far outstrip the little resi ence town of Chicago's "codfish" aristherney in securing homes of real wealth and culture that the very existence Hindale will be forgotten. It was generally understood at the time at the democratic senatorial convention deadlock that an adjournment would permit such a new adjustment as would rethe situation. The deadlock now Her on a new turn by the announcement of the name of S. N. Hoover as a candidate Mr. Henver's friends state that, owing to bligations which the party owes him for is work of the past four years, there is a kindly feeling expressed in his interest the delegate representing three tages of the contest, viz., the Aurora, the country districts, and the DuPage county factors in the contest.

People who talk of this country backing out of free silver, if it proves dangerous, demonstrate their ignorance of the querion. It would be a case of damage once done, could not be undone. When a person loses money through carelessness, or otherwise, it may be recovered or the loss de good in some way. When a person lowever, loses credit by chesting, it is not to get it back.
