The exhibit of M. F. Oldfield of oats and corn at the festival of C. S. Hughes last week was one that attracted considerable attention. His display was far over the average and it will be hard to find a better grade of oats or corn in the city. Mr. Oldfield sold 2 bushels of corn for seed at $1 per bushel and 20 bushels of oats for seed at 50c per bushel. It was quite gratifying to see the interest manifested by the farmers in this particular branch of the 2d annual harvest festival and we predict for next year a greater one than this year.
