Bitter fighting does not necessarily mean personal abuse or unavailing remarks. Keep your temper. Work for your party and stand by your convictions—work all night and talk all day if you find it essential to your success. It will irritate you and cause Dyspepsia, but you can find relief for that in Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which is guaranteed by Bush & Simonson's.

Negotiations have been completed whereby C. M. Liljedahl will dispose of his grocery and market business at East Grove to Edward Ahrens—who it is expected will take possession about December 1st. The sale also includes the store building and Mr. Ahrens will move from his farm and become a resident of East Grove. Mr. Liljedahl is as yet undecided as to his future movements.

Two giant iron horses stand on the track at the Baldwin Locomotive works ready for shipment to Chicago. There they will be given a trial of speed, which is confidentially expected by the members of the great engine building firm to retain for the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad the lucrative government contract of carrying fast mail between Chicago and the Missouri. The government divides its mail contracts between the railroads that can show the fastest speed for their engines, and the Burlington company has purchased these two magnificent flyers for the express purpose of retaining the contract for the district named, which it has successfully defended against all comers.
