THURSDAY, DEC. 6, 1900.

The Illinois legislature will be conrened Wednesday, January 9, 1901. The house will stand 80 republicans to 73 democrats: the senate, 32 republicans to 19 democrats. The republican majority on joint hallot, will be 20. Governor Ynten will be inaugurated on Wednesday, January 16.

There is no occasion to horrow trouble about the organization of the two houses the session. Both houses will be organized by republicans and on republican lines, and that means that they will organize for good legislature and a businesslike management of the state's affairs.

Violations of the ordinance prohibiting the driving of cattle through the village streets, except during the hours from midnight to dawn, are of weekly occurrence. The lesson of the personal injuries damage suits resulting from the practice seems to have been forgotton. Perhaps an enforcement of the penalty clause might have a better effect.

The frequency of grade crossing accidents has caused the Burlington to commence elevating its railroad tracks in the suburbs as well as in the city. A start is being made at Riverside, where a very dangerous crossing will be abelished. Some protection will be afforded the Maple avenue crossing in Downers Grove, when the promised automatic signal system is court house. installed, but sooner or later track elevation will be demanded here.

mid, a popular demand for general rural for the at pply of Chicago. mail delivery has arisen. For a time at east this would increase the cost of the mutal service throughout the country, but it would induce un increased use of the malls in the way of correspondence and the transmission of newspapers and other seriodicale, books and packages, and thus from the sale of stamps, which in time might sound the cost of the service. But, whether it did or not, if the demand bein authorit to the increased expense, the and should be complied with by the parerument, and very likely will be. In fact, it is said that the postmaster general will recommend to congress that rural free mall delivery he made general, and that it shall take the place of the service post affice and star routes.

Name that the returns are all in it is eria that with the exception of the repob can and democratic, no party in Illinois and two per cent of the total hallots and h two columns of names would suit the wast majority of voters. It is because the them to the prisoners. American public believes in giving every an the apportunity of voting as he New that the Australian ballot as proved so good why not print the ticket for general elections with three two with the names of the pomion of the two lending parties, the other with blanks under the offices to be filled which the "independent roter. and "fanatie" could write or he name of the person he wished to Il the office. This would give everyone men to vote as he wished, save a big and put all the parties close toer when the ballots were counted.

> Among the cases tried at the last term of the Circuit court in which some of our citizens are interested, was the case of the First National Bank of Naperville, vs. Staffeldt. The suit was based on a note for $1,000, given by Staffeldt to Wm. King in settlement of a land deal, and by him sold to the bank. Staffeldt claimed this note was seenred by fraud and circonvention, and that the bank had notice of this because King was a director in the hank. Judge Bishop resterday decided against Staffeldt and rendered judgement against him in favor of the bank for the full amount due on the note. H. Goodrich, of Naperville, and M Slusser of Downers Grove, represented the hank, and J. R. Flanders and D. F. Higgins, e Joliet, represented Staffeldt.
