Many Hoers Die in Battle.

Dispatches received at London from South Africa tell of another furious battle, and this time of victory for the British arms. It also stated that the Boers, who numbered between 1,500 and 2.000 men, were overtaken by the British at the Orange river. The conflict lested for several hours, the Boers contesting every inch of ground. Gradually they were hemmed in to close quarters by the furious onslaught of the British, who did fearful execution, killing and wounding a large number of the enemy. The defeat was decisive and the Boers at last made a violent dash to escape from the tightly drawn circle. The British pursued them and took a number of captives. Seven hundred Boers have crossed from Orange River Colony into Cape Colony near Aliwal North and have reached Kaapdal.

Sunday. December 16. The British officer, Col. Tullock, has returned to Pekin with a report of a hard fought battle with boxers. Col. ers. Tullock attacked the town of Del-Hal-Ying, where the "boxers" were encamped early in the morning, entering the place by the use of scaling ladders. Forty "boxers" were killed, a number were wounded and many were captured and brought to Pekin. Owing to the killing of the informer no treasure was obtained. Tullock says the people of Pekin do not realize the contempt in which they are held in the country districts. He adds that one of the wounded Chinamen said while dying: "You can kill me, but you cannot kill the 'boxer' movement which will exist until every foreign devil in China is killed."

Wescott Attacks Football. Oliver S. Wescott, principal of the North Division high school, Chicago, whose team won the championship in the recent school football season, has publicly denounced the game as inhuman. He said: "The football field is more brutal than the ring for the prize fight. In the latter the contestants have been especially trained for what they are to face. Neither expects a blow below the belt, and each has been taught the art of self-defense. But the contestants in football are kicked, wrenched, pounded without any opportunity for defense, even in their most helpless conditions."
