Mrs. Freedman Butler deed at Naperville last Wednesday morning at 5 o'clock. Funeral services Friday at 1 o'clock at the Episcopal church, Rev. Edgar W Thompson officiating, Willard Scott having general charge. Mrs. Butler would have been 78 years of age the 19th of this month. She was married to D C. Butler Dec. 5, 1848 in that city, where they have resided for the past 52 years. Mrs. Buthe so creditable filled in the last leg- ler's sickness developed into cancer of the breast and was the immediate cause of her death.

Last Thursday, immediately after dinner, John Gabel and Arthur Beidelman employed in the lounge factory at Naperville had a friendly wrestling match by appointment, the time set being 12:45. In order to give both parties room according to their strength, they stepped outside and tackled. Arthur made a misstep into a mudhole and lost his balance, throwing most of his weight on one foot. The small bone snaped and the match was declared off. By careful nursing and judicious treatment, Arthur will come out all right in the course of several weeks.

In his home on South Lincoln St . Hinsdale, Aug. Galke, a section hand on the Q., was found frozen stiff last Thursday by Chris. Karnatz and Officer Nicholson. A mute jug of whisky by his side told the story. All alone in his room he celebrated the closing of the century, and becoming stopified by the firey liquor he froze to death, and his life passed out with the stantly on hand. Write me and save century. He was a widower, 54 years old, money. Flemish Giants-we have the and lived alone in the house he occupied, best—the hare for meat. Chas. A. Coroner Matter came over from Wheaton White, Prop., Olathe, Kansas, box 653. and held an inquest Thursday evening. The jury, after hearing the evidence returned a verdict of accidental death resulting from too mush whisky and exposure.

With his face a mass of bruises and his clothes in tatters, a sorry looking specimen of a man tottered into West Hinsdale depot last Monday with the information that he had fallen from a fast train. Officer Nicholson was notified and took the sufferer to Dr. Lawton, who dug a number of pebbles and stones from the man's face. after which he was put on a train and taken to the Cook County Hospital to recuperate. He gave his name as Mat Kiernan, of Cincinnati, who had lately sequired a position at Aurora, and was on his way home after his family. His escape from death was marvelous, as the train was speeding along at the rate of sixty miles ride on the blind baggage and becomming benumbed from cold, fell off, and after turning a dozen summersaults, landed in the ditch. He must have laid unconscious for two hours, and upon regaining his senses he stumbled into the West Hinsdale depot. Hereafter he will give the blind baggage a wide berth in the winter.

The saying goes that an intoxicated man up some more "sweet cider." About 8:30 dreds have used it on my advice, and all in the evening Heinke and Raatz were ready to go home but were afraid they a forked tree beside the could not find the way so they took Dettthe barrel of my gun an old mer along for driver. On their way home the trunks and bent they turned in a ditch to let a hay wagon of the path. Then pass. The seat of the buggy broke and spilled the three plain drunks in the ditch.
