

CARRIE NATION IS IN JAIL.

Placed Under Bonds in $2,000 at Topeka.

ACTS AS HER OWN COUNSEL.

Cross-Questions the Chief Prosecuting Witness in a Way That Would Do Credit to a Criminal Lawyer—Passing on Material Testimony.

Mrs. Carrie Nation is now in the county jail at Topeka, Kan. She was placed under bond to keep the peace, ard, charging them with threatening maliciously to destroy property owned by Moezer at his cold storage plant. Mrs. Nation was immediately arraigned in the District court, and the Judge inquired if she had counsel. She replied that she had not, that she could not afford it, and would plead her own cause. William Moezer was the first witness called. He testified that the defendants visited his place Sunday, chopped the door down, entered the parts of the building known as the butter room, and tried to enter the machinery room. He said he had stock in the butter and ice rooms worth $3,000, and that his plant where the deperation occurred was worth $100,000. Mrs. Nation had a hatchet, and broke a lock on the west door. As

Mrs. Nation's bond to keep the peace as appear for trial at the next term of court was fixed at $2,000. She announced that she would not give bond, but would go to jail. The judge remanded her to the custody of the sheriff, and she will be held in the hospital ward of the county prison. In addition to the above, a peace warrant was sworn out by William Moezer against Mrs. Nation, C. R. McDowell, Mrs. Rose Crist and Madeline South-

MRS. NATION ADDRESSES CROWD IN CHICAGO CITY HALL.

Spends Night in Mountains. Albert Pitcairn, president of the Third National bank of Pittsburgh, the American insurance company and Versailles Street railway, while temporarily demoted from overwork, wandered from the Markleton sanitarium and spent the night in the Allegheny mountains. When found his hands, feet and ears were badly frozen. He was taken back to the sanitarium and is in a serious condition.

the officers were taking her away to the patrol wagon she said she would come back and smash the walls in. Mrs. Nation cross-examined the witness.

"Did you see me break in the door?" asked Mrs. Nation. "Yes." "What did I use?" "You used a hatchet." "Did you see me strike the first blow on the door?" "Yes." "What did I strike at?" "The lock." "How did I approach the door? What did I do?" "I saw you use the hatchet." "Well, everybody knows I use a hatchet; but how did he see me use it?" "That's not material," said the judge. She then asked the witness if he stored beer in his place. Objected to and objection sustained. "Did you have a carload of beer carried away?" was the next question. The court ruled it out. "But I'm a woman, judge, and you ought to let me ask what I want to," protested Mrs. Nation. "You have no more rights than a man in this court," said Judge Hazen. "The question whether he kept beer there or not is immaterial." "Then it is immaterial whether I broke the door or not," was her reply.

Three Score in a Tomb. The town of Cumberland, which lies across from Union bay, where all the Alaskan liners call to fill their coal bunkers, was shaken by a terrific explosion Friday morning. The explosion was at shaft No. 6, Union mines, owned by the Welling Colliery company. Sixty men were imprisoned in the mines. From the force of the explosion, which covered the ground in the vicinity of the head with a layer of crushed and broken mine timber, men of experience fear the worst. Little hope is expressed that any of the unfortunates imprisoned below will be brought out alive.

Tennessee Mob Lynches Negro. An open-air trial was held in the courthouse yard, Dyersburg, Tenn., at which Judge Lynch presided over a jury of twelve of the most prominent men in the town. This court, after a fair hearing, adjudged Fred King, a young negro, guilty of attempting to criminally assault Miss Elise Arnold, and it was not long until his lifeless body was dangling from a limb made famous in this section because four other negroes have met their punishment there at the hands of enraged men. All were guilty of the same crime. There were about 2,500 people present at the lynching and the occasion was marked by the most perfect order.

Death Blow to Boxing. There was no prize fight between Jeffries and Rubin at Saengerfest hall Friday night. Everything was settled for the pugilists and the Saengerfest Athletic association. The threatened invasion of troops at the order of Governor Nash was made unnecessary by the decision of Judge Hollister in the trial for an injunction. The court granted a permanent injunction, and the contest of months between the state and the fight promoters is thus ended.

Smallest of Railways. The smallest railway has been built to the order of Perry H. Leigh in an annex of his residence at Brentwood, Worsley, near Manchester, England. The little line is really toy, but one of the most marvelous toys ever made. In all respects except size it is an exact replica of the track, locomotives, rolling stock and station equipment of the London and Northwestern railway. It has been placed in a room ninety feet long and thirty feet wide, and is raised on trestles three feet high.

A Question of Partisanship. Major General O'Grady Haly of London, who went to Canada a few months ago to assume command of the Canadian militia, has come to loggerheads with a portion of the people of the Dominion. The general was asked to lend a military band for a political meeting in Quebec, but declined on the ground that the meeting was of a partisan character. In consequence the press of the party he offended has made a vigorous attack upon him.

A stag party would be much more enjoyable if a few dears were invited.

Usefulness of Megaphones. Megaphones are by no means a "foolish" instrument. They are, in fact, capable of great practical use, and will doubtless be so recognized in the near future. On the water, shore or in any open country where there are no obstructions and no local sounds to interfere, one may talk through a megaphone and be distinctly heard for over a mile, while a loud call can be heard through this instrument for at least two miles.

A Remedy for the Grippe. Physicians recommend KEMP'S BALSAM for patients afflicted with the grippe, as it is especially adapted for the throat and lungs. Don't wait for the first symptoms, but get a bottle today and keep it on hand for use the moment it is needed. If neglected, the grippe brings on pneumonia. KEMP'S BALSAM prevents this by keeping the cough loose and the lungs free from inflammation. All druggists, 25c and 50c.

Armament of New Ships. The armament of the new British battleships Queen and Prince of Wales will be of a very powerful character, and in each case the guns will cost £75,000. When ready for the pennant each ship will have cost £1,000,000.—Montreal Herald and Star.

Care of the Baby. To keep the skin clean is to keep it healthy, every mother should therefore see that her baby is given a daily bath in warm water with Ivory Soap. The nursery should also be well aired and cleaned, and all clothing washed with Ivory Soap, well rinsed and dried in the sun. ELIZA R. PARKER.

"Man is as old as he feels, and Woman as old as she looks."

Dr. Greene's Nervura Makes Health and Beauty for Women.

Remember! Not Age, but Disease, Weakness and Ill Health Make Women Look Old!

You cannot look your best unless you feel your best—that is, unless you feel well, strong, vigorous, with pure blood, strong and steady nerves. If you have no appetite, poor digestion, are bilious and constipated, your skin will be dark, sallow, pimply, with unhealthy pallor. If you are sleepless, nervous, irritable, despondent, with nerves all on edge, feel as if you could fly, and are startled at every sound,—these nervous troubles will certainly line your face with wrinkles like age, make you look haggard, hollow-eyed, take the lustre from your eyes and the elastic spring from your step. If you suffer from female troubles, the dragging pain, the aching head, the tired limbs, the utter weakness, prostration and misery will turn youth to old age unless cured at once.

Beauty Means Good Health, and Good Health Always Means Beauty for Women.
