Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cole, of Ottawa, Ill., Mrs. Bates and daughter Florence of Maywood, came to attend the funeral of Mrs. Will Fox at Clarendon Hills, Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. George Deaney, 43 Midway avenue are the happy parents of a baby boy who put in an appearance last week and balanced the scales at 8 pounds.
Mrs. J. C. White left Tuesday for an extended trip in the west. She will visit Denver, Colorado Springs, Leadville, and friends at Canon City, returning home about the first of July.
J. B. Moss was here from Morris last Friday. He was looking for carpenters. He has a contract there for building a large elevator and other work and reports a great deal of building in that vicinity.
States Attorney Sluser gave an interesting address at the Economic League meeting last Thursday evening upon the subject of "Trusts." There was a good attendance of the membership; much interest was manifested and quite a number took part in the after discussion. The next meeting will be held on Thursday evening, May 30, and will be addressed by one of the members.
Died, in Clarendon Hills, Friday, May 17, 1901, Clara Schaeffer Fox, wife of William Fox, aged 37 years and 11 months. Funeral services were held at the home, Sunday, May 19, conducted by Rev. E. H. Libby, and burial at Lockport. Mrs. Fox, in her girlhood lived with her aunt, Mrs. Bates, and had many friends here. She was a devoted wife and mother, a loving daughter and sister, and her early death is a sad loss to her husband and only son, Norman, her father and mother, two sisters and a brother, besides their relatives and friends.
A considerable amount of interest is already being evidenced concerning the coming to Chicago of William Brady's production of "Uncle Tom's Cabin," which terminated a run of 3 months at the New York Academy of music on Saturday, and will begin a limited engagement May 27, at the Auditorium. The fact that Milward Adams' enormous home of grand opera has been chosen for the presentation is in itself most significant. None other than a really "monster revival" could fill the stage of that commodious house. Mr. Brady's fifty-three settings and 250 colored jubilee singers should accomplish this feat to a nicety, the claim being made that the production will be seen to a greater advantage there than ever before. It is not only in magnitude, however, that the Brady edition de luxe of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" is said to excel. The cast engaged for the interpretation is so distinguished and so capable as to insure the infusion of new life into the old lines and situations of Harriet Beecher Stowe's work. In fact, the entire production is of an altogether unusual sort and there is every reason why it should be extensively patronized. All the familiar episodes of the play will be shown at the Auditorium—the pursuit of Eliza with bloodhounds, the death of little Eva, and the slave sailing on the levee in New Orleans. As an incidental to this scene a force of 250 darkies will be introduced in songs and dances. During the engagement at the Auditorium, afternoon performances will be given on Wednesdays, Saturdays and Decoration day, the former being bargain matinees at especially low prices. Every seat in the house will be reserved, and elevators will run to convey passengers direct to the balcony.
