TRIMPHONE DOWNERS GROVE 221.

THURSDAY, JULY 11, 1901.

"Coin" Harvey is said to be a candidate for congress from Arkansas. To be in line with chairman of the Democratic national committee, who is from that state, he should be connected with Chairman Jones' round cotton bale trust.

There is a round bale trust in Arkansas, according to the supreme court of that state, of which J. K. Jones of the Democratic national committee, is president. What, by the way, is the difference between a cotton bale otopus and any other old octopus?

Editor Bill Davidson of the Fulton Democrat, a leading Democratic organ of the military tract, says: "Bryanism is a memory." He don't say so, but Editor Bill doubtless agrees with thousands of other Democrats that it is not a very precoclous memory either.

It will be remembered that Mark Hanna strongly favored the peerless statesman of the Platte for candidate for president on the Democratic ticket in 1900. And now comes the same paericus, etc., and wants Mark nominated by the Republicans in 1904. Now does Bryan really want Mark nominated or is he doing as he always has done, merely pretending?

Contrary to their rule, the Chicago press almost universally commend Governor Yates' park board appointments. But in view of the fact that the self-respecting people of the state care little for the opinions of the Chicago press, what they say on this or any other subject has little weight. The facts are, Governor Yates' park board appointments are of the same character as those throughout the state -first-class men, good citizens who will make capable officials.

Just now there is a great deal being given. mid by the space writers in the papers bout "political combinations" and "line ups." And they are about right. There will be a powerful political combination and solid line up in Illinois. It will be made up of Republicans, who greaent a solid front to any at- the charge of Prof. Dudley a school contempt at a return to Democratic rule In the state and nation. Any organi- schools are apparently well conducted, your work promptly and satisfaction matten or combination having in view having every grade of study commonly any other purpose will be met with a taught in public schools. In addition to well-deserved rebuke at the hands of that, we find that all boys over the age of the loyal rank and file of the Republican years are required to enter the work Hean party. A truce to factional poli- shops, consisting of woodworking; forging, C. S. Hughes who will give estimates

A recent New York telegram to the metropolitan newspapers quotes Ex-Governor Stone of Missouri, who was visiting his old campaign headquarters at the Hoffman house, as authority for the statement that "Bryan is sincere in his declaration not to be a candilate for a third nomination." When and where did Bryan ever make the declaration? True the dominant faction of the Democratic party in Illinote has settled the question of a third nomination so far as the delegation from this state is concerned, but we inderstand that it was without the "aid or consent" of Bryan.

It is very evident that what this country really needs for its salvation is another appellate tribunal, higher than the supreme court of the United States, to be composed entirely of ediorial writers and paragraphists emlayed on Democratic papers. That the wisdom, patriotism, familiarity with and devotion to the constitution. well as intuitive knowledge of the stent of the fathers, for which these entlemen know themselves to be disinguished, should be wasted and away in solemn utterances hat don't make a particle of differnce. In for the nation a terrible calamity, only to be averted by constithese valuable wiseacres into al whose over-rulings of the sueme court shall be authoritative and

It is unkind in the Democratic Chiage Chronicle to speak thus of the out enint of Democracy, but it does Il the same. Here's what it says: Mr. Bryan has promised the Demoof Ohio that if they will nomithe candidate for governor whom | ties mants to see in the field, he will the stump for their ticket next in all parts of that state. The Democrats are flattered by the but are thinking that it is posnominate a candidate for govhe would get more votes with eyan's aid then with it. The "Men of all ages have been deceived by inflated rhetoric," says Bourke Cockran. This may or may not have been inspired by recollections of Bryan's campaign speeches, but be this as it may, there were not so many people of this age a year ago deceived, as both Cockran and Bryan hoped for.

According to Mr. Bryan the recent decision of the supreme court makes the presidency the position of an emperor. If that is so, then Bryan cannot consistently aspire to it again, for, should be be elected, he would be obliged to exercise imperial functions, and that, of course, would hurt Mr. Bryan's feelings. That gentleman therefore, must bereafter regard himself as ineligible to the presidency.

Governor Yates promised the people of Chicago that he would keep the management of the parks of that city out of politics. He kept this promise and the fault-finding newspapers of the metropolis, having no chance to knock at the governor on this ground, immediately manufactured a story of his alleged interference with pool selling and racestrack gambling. His absolute disavowal of any connection with the matter, and his positive assertion that he was in nowise inclined to usurp the duties of the legally constituted authorities of the city and Cook county made no difference to the Chicago editor. He simply manufactured a story and proceeds to say mean things about the governor and the governor's friends.

Everybody knows that Manila is a good sized city, but perhaps few are prepared to state off-hand the number and character of its people. Let it be stated, then, that Manila has a board of health, which body has recently taken a census showing that the population of its city is 244,932, divided as follows: Filipinos, 181,361; Chinese, 51,567; Americans, 8,562; Spaniards, 2,-382; other nationalities, 900. The figures do not include men belonging to the United States army. There are 18,463 buildings in the city, of which 3,739 are good, 1,135 bad, 1,472 small and 12,117 classed as shacks. Since Manila is "territory appurtenant and belonging to the United States, "according to the constitution and (inferentially) the supreme court, it is well for Americans to be more or less fa-- miliar with the figures that have been
