Miss Anna Wetten returned Friday from a visit to Miss Bertha Remington at Nelegh, Neb.

Mrs. Arthur C. Wisegarver left Monday for a month's visit with her grand mother at Marion, Ohio.

Miss Della Wilcox and Mrs. D.G. Graham are visiting in Englewood and West Pullman this week.

Charles Graves and son Ed will each build a residence on their lots on Highland avenue this summer.

Miss Pearl and Maude Cossitt left Tuesday evening for a month's visit with their aunt at Dyest, Iowa.

Among old settlers who have had increase in pensions recently are Postmaster Carpenter and J. S. Miller.

Capt. T. S. Rogers left Tuesday night for a trip west and will visit Omaha, St. Joseph, Kansas City and other points.

Mrs. Gus Bullerman of Hinsdale, and children are spending a couple of weeks with friends on a farm north of Downers Grove.

Dr. E. S. Fry of Naperville, the well known veterinary surgeon, was in Downers Grove and Hinsdale Tuesday, on professional business.

The Q. employees in the offices at the corner of Franklin and Adams streets are working overtime now on account of the rush of business.

Miss Louise Stanley has surprised her many friends here in her return from her New York visit and will abide in Downers Grove again.

Chas. DeFoa has sold his place on Summit street and will soon move to Rockford where he will establish his home. He is a good citizen wherever he lives.

Mrs. John Scorgel of Chicago, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Wm. Frankel Friday. Her daughter Myrtle accompanied her and remained for a longer visit.

The ladies of the German Evangelical St. Paul's church are perfecting arrangements for their annual fair, which will be held at Thompson's hall, Thursday, July 29th, commencing at 7 o'clock p. m.

F. E. Mayer and family will reside in Mrs. Bellinger's new house now in course of construction on Saratoga street. W. W. Alford is the builder and expects to have it completed about Sept. 1st.

A new local directory of the Chicago Telephone company has been issued. The new list includes the new rural subscribers' numbers. There are now about 75 patrons of the exchange and the number will be materially increased. All lines are now copper metallic, equipped with long distance instruments.

Downers Grove housewives have by no means canned the usual amount of fruit this season. Perhaps the best reason for this is that they couldn't get it to can. Two other reasons are also binding, the quality was none too good and the average price away up. The peach crop is expected to help them out in a couple of weeks.

The Northwestern has tried an experiment on the Galena division by which the dust is laid during the dry season. The road bed is saturated with crude oil, thus preventing the dust from making the passengers feel uncomfortable. Thus far the test has proved very satisfactory and will probably be put into general use.

Prof. Smith and family of Naperville held their annual family reunion at the home of Mrs. Henry Lyman last Friday. A few invited guests were present including Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Foster of Downers Grove. It was an ideal day and the occasion one of great enjoyment in which music rendered by this gifted family was a prominent feature. The Lyman family heartily welcomed and entertained the guests and contributed greatly to the pleasure and enjoyment of the day.
